Swenson's Way Boulevard Improvement Project

The City of Dillon with help from the Dillon Tree Board will begin work on revamping the boulevard on Swenson's Way. Many of the trees and shrubs are overgrown and have lost their appeal and beauty, becoming a safety hazard for pedestrians using the sidewalk and traffic on the road. The city is concerned for children crossing the street near the YMCA and Blacktail pond, especially during the summer months when sight distances are the worst, due to leaves and height of the shrubs. In addition, cheatgrass and other weeds have overtaken the rock ground cover. The area is no longer a fitting example of beauty and a functioning green infrastructure for the entrance to our community.

To spruce things up, the city will begin removal of the rock ground cover, shrubs, and some of the trees along the entire boulevard starting Thursday, April 11, 2019. Soil and sod or an appropriate grass seed mix will be laid in the spring, and replacement trees planted along the boulevard. This project is a large undertaking and can only be completed incrementally in sections as funding becomes available. The project will start approximately 800 feet near the existing irrigation clock and work south toward the YMCA. The current irrigation system will also need some updating to assure that the new sod and trees stay green and vibrant.

This is a high traffic area with daily use by our community and deserves to show our community in a positive manner. The Dillon Tree Board will use funds secured from the Montana DNRC Montana Tree City of the Year grant award, the City of Dillon, and funds generated from our February Bake Day at Great Harvest Bread Co, along with donations from the community. If citizens or civic organizations are interested in helping with the costs, or volunteering to help plant the sod and trees in the spring, please contact Tree Board Chairman, Jason Glenn at 683-6305 or Todd Hazelbaker at City Hall 683-4245.

Miss USA 2019 Pageant

Dillon native Grace Zitzer is a Child Protection Specialist with a Master's degree in social work and works with some of the most vulnerable and marginalized populations. Through her experiences she has learned to accept others and take the time to have face to face interactions in order for positive change to occur. Before an injury in college forced this 27 year old onto the sidelines, Grace was an All-state athlete and MVP in both basketball and volleyball, a four-time All-conference selection and a six time All-state academic selection.

Some of her hobbies include trail running with her dog Ziggy and crafting cards for Meals on Wheels clients. Grace is also an active member of the Missoula County human trafficking task force and an annual volunteer at Camp Mak-A-Dream.

Since her crowning, in addition to continuing to work fulltime for the Department, Grace has been an honorary guest and judge at the first Miss Fort Peck pageant, and has travelled to Washington DC to meet with Senator Jon Tester to discuss her work with the Department and the importance of creating awareness about human trafficking. Grace was recently a finalist in the Volunteer of the Year category at the Global Beauty Awards.

Grace will be travelling to Reno NV at the end of April to represent the State of Montana in the Miss USA 2019 pageant.

The community is invited to a send off party for Grace on Saturday, April 13 @ 5 PM at Sweetwater Coffee. Come show your support for Grace and wish her well.

University of Montana Western Rodeo

The University of Montana Western Rodeo team is back from their winter sabbatical and is saddling up for the 2019 spring season.

The Bulldogs will open the spring season in Bozeman, Mont. on April, 11-14 for two rodeos hosted by Montana State.

"We're excited to get back out there and get back to competing," head Coach Kody Lahaye said. "It's been a long winter."

With five rodeos left in the season, time is short and the stakes are high as the cowboys and cowgirls fight for a trip to Casper, Wyo. and the College National Finals Rodeo (CNFR).

"I tell the kids the season's only half over," Lahaye said. "There are still 800 points available in each event. Even if you had a bad fall, there are still a lot of chances in the spring."

Currently the Bulldog women's team is second in the Big Sky Region. They sit 1,301 points behind Montana State, but just 157 points ahead of Montana.

While the women control their own destiny. The men have an uphill climb as they try to catch MSU. Currently Montana Western is sitting third, just 150 points behind the cowboys from Bozeman.

"The men have to step it up," Lahaye said. "We had a good fall sticking with MSU, but they always have the potential to go off in the spring. We will have to get going right off the bat and keep up with those guys."

Kelly Murnion is leading the region in the bull riding and will spearhead the Bulldogs run as they try to get back into the second spot in the region.

Bulldogs in the regional standings heading into the spring season:

University Montana Western track

Records fell and history was made for the University Montana Western track team at the Northwest Scoring Clash (WAR XII) as Mindy Kaufman became the first Bulldog to qualify for nationals in over 30 years.

In less than ideal conditions at the Spokane Falls Community College track, senior Mindy Kaufman didn't let the rain faze her as she ran a personal best and set a school record in the 5000 meters (17:44.81). Kaufman's time hit the NAIA "B" standard and qualifies her for the NAIA national championships in Gulf Shores, Ala.

She finished third overall in the event but was the first collegiate finisher as two unattached runners crossed just a few seconds ahead of her.

"It was a pretty special meet for the Bulldogs," head coach Dylan Zitzer. "Mindy had an amazing 5k, she has really made strides with her fitness since cross country."

Sophomore Eireann O'Connor set a couple of records of her own. She became the first woman at Montana Western to compete in the 3000-meter steeplechase, finishing in 12:40.46. She also set a school record in the 1500 meters with a time of 4:54.35.

Gabi Gomez and Emma Adams both ran personal bests in the 5000 meters.

It the men's 5000 meters freshman Matt Wilson ran a 16:14.29 in his 5000-meter debut. Senior Tanner Lehr finished with a time of 16:17.71.

Russell Kujala finished in 2:04.32 to lead the Bulldogs in the 800 meters. Freshmen Jonathan Harrison and Jake Jessop ran personal bests. Harrison finished in 2:10.19. While Jessop finished with a time of 2:15.15.

The Bulldogs will be back in action on April 13 when they head to Missoula, Mont. to run in the Montana Open. The first event the Bulldogs will run in will take place at 12:05 p.m.

Teen survives bear attack south of Ennis

A 17-year-old male was attacked by a bear south of Ennis. He fortunately survived the attack with relatively minor injuries.

The teen and his family were visiting their cabin in Wolf Creek, about 30 miles south of Ennis, on the east side of the Madison Valley. He was out looking for shed antlers in the area.

According to the teen, he was walking down a hill around 2 p.m. when he heard a "thump" behind him. He turned around to see a bear charging at him. The teen was carrying bear spray, but he was unable to deploy it immediately because of the bear's rapid approach. The bear pushed him up against a tree and held him there momentarily. When the bear let go, the teen fell over and attempted to crawl between two trees and protect his head and vitals. The bear then pinned him face-down on the ground. The teen, who was wearing a hoodie and a backpack, said he was able to reach over his shoulder and spray the bear with bear spray, and the bear left.

The young man began walking out and made radio contact with his family. He was treated for his injuries at Madison Valley Medical Center and later released.

FWP was notified of the attack at 3:45 p.m. Based on the teen's description of the bear's behavior, the bear was mostly likely a grizzly bear. The bear's behavior in this incident appears to be typical of surprise close encounters. FWP will continue to monitor the area, which is well within occupied bear habitat. The investigation is ongoing, but no further management action is being taken at this time.

- Be prepared and aware of your surroundings.
- Carry and know how to use bear spray.
- Travel in groups whenever possible.
- Stay away from animal carcasses.
- Follow U.S. Forest Service food storage regulations.
- If you encounter a bear, never approach it. Back away slowly and leave the area.
