Franklin D Huckins, 1934-2019

Franklin D Huckins, 84, known as "D" and loving husband, father, grandfather and brother, died April 14, 2019, in Phoenix, Arizona, after a serious illness.

Born August 5, 1934, at Fort Peck, Montana, to the late Alyne and Clifford Huckins, he attended grade school and high school in Broadus, Montana, playing on baseball and basketball teams. He graduated from Montana State University at Bozeman with a bachelor's degree in accounting and took graduate courses at University of California at San Francisco.

D Huckins began his professional career in accounting with Del Monte Foods in San Francisco and Honolulu. From there he went to United Airlines in San Francisco, then Chicago, working in cash management and finance for the company for 31 years until retiring in 1994. In retirement, he volunteered at Phoenix's Mayo Clinic, enjoyed working part-time at that area's Tatum Ranch Golf Club, and going golfing at Beaverhead Country Club in Dillon, Montana.

He married Sallie Cardwell of Billings, Montana, on June 30, 1960, and they shared 58 blessed years of marriage. D was the father of Scott (Liz) Huckins of Barrington, Illinois, and Kyle Huckins of Huntington, Indiana. He had two grandsons, Zachary Cox and Kendall Huckins, and two granddaughters, Morgan and Payton Pitcher. He leaves behind a twin brother, K Huckins (Ginger) of Miles City, Montana, and was predeceased by a sister, Lucille, and brothers Larry and Bob.

Known for his dedication to family and work, D Huckins was a kind gentleman in every way. He loved coaching his kids' sports teams, playing golf, admiring antique and restored cars, washing and waxing everything he owned, traveling, reading the newspaper and eating ice cream. He and his wife had homes in Dillon and Scottsdale.

Services will be held at Brundage Funeral Home, Dillon, on April 30, 2019, at 12:30 p.m., followed immediately by burial at the town's Mountain View Cemetery, then a reception at First Baptist Church of Dillon at Sebree & Idaho streets.

Donations may be made to Sherman Home, Hospice of the Valley, 5801 E. Mayo Blvd., Phoenix, AZ 85054.

Update on Highway Patrol Trooper Palmer

Montana Highway Patrol Trooper Wade Palmer continues to receive medical treatment at University Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah. While he is showing indications that he recognizes certain people and things, all of his interactions remain non-verbal; he continues to interact with hand gestures and facial expressions. The extent of how much he understands remains unknown at this time. Nearly every day, Palmer undergoes physical therapy for continued strengthening of his left arm and leg. Limited movement has been detected on his right side. He is scheduled to have the wiring and screws from his reconstructive jaw surgery removed this week.

"The tasks that you or I take for granted have become much more significant for Wade," said Colonel Tom Butler, chief of the Montana Highway Patrol. "His brain is becoming more aware of the sensory input and is relearning how to connect the dots, so to speak."

On March 15, Trooper Palmer was shot in the neck, face, and head, after locating the suspect involved in an earlier shooting that injured two and killed one in Missoula. He was transported to Saint Patrick Hospital in critical condition and eventually flown to Salt Lake City.

For those who do not have social media accounts, the Montana Highway Patrol has created a webpage with information about the Palmer shooting. The page features:

- Updates on Trooper Palmer as they become available
- A list of all approved fundraisers that will continually be updated
- A synopsis of events
- Thank you's
- Photos integrated into the site from the "Back the Blue Wear the Green" campaign

BCHS Tennis

Today's Tennis has been cancelled.

The BCHS Boys and Girls' Tennis team hosted Livingston and Corvallis at home Saturday. The JV Boys team met their challenge against Livingston's varsity dropping only 2 of 7 spots on the roster. Girls' varsity also enjoyed success with 5 wins out of 7.

Corvallis arrived late afternoon when chilly winds blew in to make play challenging. Due to time constraints, 10 point tiebreakers were played for the 3rd set when necessary. Between boys' and girls' varsity there were six 3 setters giving excitement to the afternoon in nail biting competition.

The Beavs host another home meet versus Stevensville Tuesday, April 16th at 10 am.

Letter to the Editor

Every legislative session a bill appears to overturn a 10 year old Montana Supreme Court decision, Baxter vs Montana, that found nothing in Montana law prohibited a doctor from prescribing medication to hasten a patient's death. This year it was HB-284 introduced by Carl Glimm (R) that invalidated consent as a legal defense for "doctor assisted death" meaning doctors could be charged with homicide for complying with a patient's wishes. This year the bill passed the House and Senate Judiciary Committee narrowly and died on the Senate floor by a close vote, mostly along party lines.

These biennial attempts to overturn Baxter intend to come between a dying patient, family and his doctor and to result in more pain & suffering, family stress and expense when the family is most vulnerable. This year the supporters of this conflict apparently included the MT Catholic Conference, MT family foundation, MT Right To Life and Montanans Against Assisted Suicide. It also seems to have the support of the Republican Establishment when looking at the vote tally.

My belief is that these groups or individuals can extend their own suffering, family stress and expense all they like but they have no right to dictate to me and all other Montanans on how to deal with their impending end of life. Perhaps they can focus on more significant problems like late term abortion deaths of innocent children or opiate deaths among young people.

Fortunately, Representative Tom Welch, and Senator Jeff Wellborn had the wisdom and compassion to uphold the Supreme Court's decision and support this as a matter of privacy and personal choice rather than a decision made by government. Watch for another attempt to remove this freedom again in 2021!
