Mary Jo Wenger Waldemar

Mary Jo Wenger Waldemar, 86, passed away on March 21st, 2019 in Butte, Montana surrounded by loved ones. She was born on July 10, 1932 to Ed and Ruth Wenger in Dillon, Montana.

Mary Jo is survived by her children Eddie (Lori), Brenda Borjas (David) and Jerry Rehse (Dennis); grandchildren Erik Waldemar, Harlan Borjas (Kimberly), Rudy Sevalstad (Carl) and Susanne Valach (Nick); and great grandchildren Cayden, Christopher, Dax, Ryland and Huxley, all of Dillon. Mary Jo is also survived by her sister Nancy Conley (Hank) of Hamilton, MT; sisters-in-law Fay McCracken of Florence, MT and June Kamps of Hamilton, MT as well as many nieces, nephews and cousins.

A graveside service will be held on May 18th at 11 AM at Mountain View Cemetery.

Leroy James Owen

A stirring adventure comes to an end. On Monday, April 29, 2019, Leroy James Owen – patriot, veteran, Christian, beloved father and true friend, died peacefully at the age of 87 in the Salt Lake City home of his daughter and son-in-law, Jim and Donna Poulton.

Leroy was born on September 21, 1931, in Armstead, Montana – growing up Great Depression tough in the largest cattle shipping point on the Union Pacific railroad. He raised a lot of hell as a young man, including setting fire to the skirt of a beautiful BCHS co-ed named Claire Marchesseault. She was so offended that she later accepted his marriage proposal.

In between, Leroy enlisted in the Air Force just in time for the Korean conflict, putting his hide on the line as a gunner on a B-29 Bomber, flying relentless missions into the heart of "MIG Alley", north of the Yalu River.

In the late 1960s, Leroy uprooted his young family and replanted it in the Portland, Oregon area, which he would call home for life. Even so, an unquenchable thirst for adventure would take him around the world for work, including a lengthy stint in Iran during the 1978-79 Revolution.

Eventually, Leroy settled in Milwaukie, Oregon with his gregarious second wife, Gretta. He was a loved and respected neighbor, marvelous mechanic and passionate gardener who nursed Rhododendrons back to life in his own yard, while volunteering time and labor to Portland's iconic Sanctuary of Our Sorrowful Mother.

Leroy was preceded in death by his second wife, Gretta, father, Alvin, mother, Lois, brother, Bennett, nephew, Glen and beloved pets including Norman and Baby. He is survived by his first wife, Claire, children, Donna and Bennett, step-daughter Patricia Irene Fleischman, two grandchildren, Christopher and Eva Owen, daughters-in-law Barbara Owen and Sabine Baerwolff, and a nephew and nieces. We are most grateful to Rocky Mountain Hospice in Salt Lake City for their compassion and care.

A funeral service will be held at Christ the King Catholic Church in Milwaukie, Oregon on May 17, 2019, with the Rosary at 10:30 am and the Funeral Mass at 11:00 am. Graveside services with military honors will be held at Gethsemani Catholic Cemetery at 12:00 noon. A reception will follow, location to be announced. In lieu of sending flowers—plant flowers—that will make Leroy happy.

Grand Opening of Seed Lending Library

The Dillon Public Library is hosting a grand opening of their Seed Lending library on Tuesday, May 14. Gardeners of all ages may drop by the Dillon Public Library between 5:30 pm and 7:30 pm to find out what seeds are available, learn about heirloom seeds, hear tips on planting from local gardeners and instruction on harvesting seeds. Local gardeners and Dillon Garden Club members will also be on hand to answer questions about what grows in Dillon, MT. Bring your children. They will get to plant a sunflower or a pumpkin to take home.

This year the seeds are mostly vegetables, but there are some flower seeds too. Various local businesses and a variety of seed companies have donated heirloom (non GMO, non-hybrid) seeds for the Seed Lending Library. Come in and check out a few packets of seeds. This is a great opportunity to try out some new plants in your garden this year.

The Seed Lending Library is a free program committed to education, providing seeds of plants that grow well locally and preservation of disappearing plant varieties. The way the seed library works is very simple: gardeners "borrow" seeds from the library at planting time. At the end of the growing season, they save seeds from the plants and return a portion of the seeds to the library. The library will also host classes during the growing season on: 1) Planting and gardening tips 2) The Know-how of harvesting and saving the seeds 3) How to enter "winning" flowers and vegetables in the Beaverhead Co. Fair.

Join with other Dillon gardeners in the age-old tradition of seed saving and plant sharing, just as our grandparents and great grandparents did. Many cultivar have been lost since WWII, when hybrids became commonplace. Commercial farming focused on a few hybrids that have been cross-bred to tolerate shipping, drought, frost, pesticides, etc. It's estimated that 93 percent of seed varieties available in the U.S. in 1900 are now extinct. With their extinction, came the loss of unique flavors and plants adapted to a wide range of growing conditions. With most of the world's food coming from a handful of plants, conserving what grows well locally is important to protecting our food supplies. Please join your local library in the preservation of heirloom seeds that grow well in Dillon, MT. For additional information, visit your local library or call the library at 406-683-4544.

The Future of Montana's Landscapes

The Montana Outdoor Heritage Project (MOHP) is coming to Dillon, and I would like to personally invite you to participate in this community conversation about the future of Montana's landscapes!

Community Conversation

Thursday, May 16 6 - 7 p.m.

Lewis and Clark Room, Matthews Hall

University of Montana Western

MOHP is a collaboration of Montana citizens, small businesses, conservation and recreation groups, and local communities interested in conserving, maintaining, and investing in our water, wildlife, working lands, and shared outdoor way of life.

We are leading a robust public discussion, with a goal of hearing from more than 10,000 Montanans by October, and I am excited to be co-hosting the Dillon conversation with a number of local organizations. Beaverhead County depends on our public lands, and your participation in this process is critical to protecting southwest Montana's outdoor heritage for future generations.

Montanans have always worked together to solve the challenges facing our state, so I urge you to be part of this discussion, and to invite anyone else who would like to have their voice heard. For more information, email me or check out the conversation on Facebook!

What is Bear Creek Days?

Bear Creek Days is a Field Camp that is an outdoor education program for 3rd - 8th grade students. This will be the 12th consecutive year of operation of this program held at the Bear Creek historic ranger station and primary portal into the Lee Metcalf Wilderness. Students from at least seven area schools including West Yellowstone, Ennis, Harrison, Cardwell, Alder, Twin Bridges, and Sheridan attend this camp each May before school lets out for summer.

Approximately 600 students attend three days of outdoor education. Each session is held outdoors, rain or shine, in the beautiful foothills of the Madison Mountain Range. Sessions such as gold panning allow children to pan for gold and other stones; traditional tools allow them to use a crosscut saw and log rollers; Icky-ology allows kids to dissect fish. Also in attendance each day are approximately 20 teachers, bus drivers, and parents. Focus areas include outdoor education, ethics, and natural science. The intent is to pass on a legacy of respect, interest, and appreciation for the outdoors and natural world to a generation often occupied with indoor pursuits and technological gadgets.

This program is sustained through the greatness of volunteers, donors, and the U.S. Forest Service and many partners.

Film Screening and Discussion with Doug Peacock

Join us for a special evening with famed wilderness defender, author and passionate grizzly advocate Doug Peacock. We'll see Grizzly Country, an 11-minute film about Doug and his long relationship with Yellowstone grizzlies, hear how the bears helped to save his life, and learn his thoughts on the best way to coexist with this feared but vulnerable American icon. Doug served as the model for environmentalist George Hayduke in Edward Abbey's novel The Monkey Wrench Gang.

ESTABLISHING A PHARMACY

Southwest Montana Community Health Center
Keeping your whole family healthy

In response to the overwhelming need from the Dillon community, Southwest Montana Community Health Center is moving forward in establishing a pharmacy in the old Mitchell Drug building at 125 E. Glendale.

"We are very excited for the opportunity to expand our retail pharmacy" services into the Dillon Community. Our staff is dedicated to providing personalized service at an affordable price, as we have in our communities for nearly 20 years," said Tammy Cox, director of pharmacy services for the SWMTCHC.

The pharmacy is expected to open in summer 2019, following a remodel of the building.

In the meantime, CHC pharmacies in Sheridan and Butte are available to assist with medication needs. Call Mac's CHC Pharmacy at (406) 842-7434 or Butte CHC Pharmacy at (406) 496-6001 to discuss options to obtain your prescriptions.

If you need a medical provider, now is the time to establish at our clinic by calling (406) 683-4440 for an appointment.
