ELIZABETH "LIZ" (BRENNER) YOUNGGREN

Elizabeth "Liz" Brenner
Younggren, native of Horse Prairie and loved mother, grandmother, and wife passed away Saturday April 27, 2019 in Dillon, Montana while bravely living with acute rheumatoid arthritis.

Liz was born in Butte, Montana January 8, 1941, the only child of Jack S. Brenner and Frances Ford Brenner.
Liz grew up on the Lazy E4 Ranch where she was raised like siblings with her cousins

Bill James, Robert Alexander "Sandy" James, Kate (James) Kajin, Julie James, and fellow prairie neighbors and children. She enjoyed natural sciences, animal care, art, and life on the prairie.

Liz's love of science blossomed into a passion for geology.
After graduating from Rowland Hall in Salt Lake City, she attended and graduated from Wellesley College with geology degree in hand and adventure in her heart. She and a dear college friend traveled around the globe after graduation.

From there, Liz moved to Denver, CO to start her professional career as a geologist for the United States Geological Survey. While at the USGS, Liz worked on many field investigations including examinations of known and suspected lithium occurrences in the western US. Her professional work after the USGS years was varied and extensive; she owned and operated X-Min Analytical Lab, providing x-ray diffraction analyses for industry and government clients. Liz evaluated and promoted numerous mining properties in southwest Montana including the Chinatown gold lode and placer project, Argenta District properties, the Tamarack mine in the Tobacco Roots and zeolite deposits on Grasshopper Creek, to name a few. For more than three decades, interwoven with her professional work and ranch work, Liz devoted countless hours to Tobacco Root Geological Society, serving as an officer, director, scholarship committee member and contributor to Northwest Geology. Throughout her life Liz continued her interests, education, and work including attaining her gemology certification from the Gemology Institute of America, and recently publishing the Geology of the Coyote Creek Quadrangle with JoAnn Sherwin, as part of the Montana State Map program.

In her personal life, Liz was always up for a night of video poker and a beer, and she was a gentle soul who loved animals - she

Classical Music Concert "Romantic Musings"

Carrie Krause, violin and Julie Gossweiler, piano

Friday, May 17 at 7:30 pm - First Presbyterian Church, Dillon

Admission: $15 general/$5 students suggested donation at the door

A classical music concert featuring wistful melodies and commentary takes place in Dillon on Saturday, May 17 at 7:30pm at First Presbyterian Church. Carrie Krause and Julie Gossweiler perform "Romantic Musings," an evening of chamber music for violin and piano. The program features the Franck Sonata--perhaps the most beloved sonata of all time--composed for the revered early 20th c. violinist Eugene Ysaye to play at his own wedding. Other works include Five Melodies, lyric short pieces tinged with sadness by Prokofiev, Dvorak's amorous Romance in F minor, Mozart's noble, contemplative, and bawdy sonata K. 380, and Kreisler's orient-inspired Tamborin Chinois, all intimate works perfect for the home parlor or First Presbyterian Church. Performers include violinist Carrie Krause, who serves as the Bozeman Symphony concertmaster and baroque violinist with ensembles across the nation, and pianist Julie Gossweiler, MSU professor of piano and chamber music specialist. Admission at the door, $15 general/$5 students suggested donation. More information info@baroquemusicmontana.com or 599-3397.

Watercraft Inspection stations to open in southwest Montana

Several watercraft inspection stations in southwest Montana will soon become operative for the 2019 boating season. These stations help boaters meet state laws in preventing the spread of aquatic invasive species.

Boaters with either motorized or non-motorized watercraft must stop at any inspection station they encounter in Montana. In addition, boaters must seek out an inspection prior to launching if they are coming into Montana from out of state, traveling west over the Continental Divide into western Montana, coming off Tiber or Canyon Ferry reservoirs, or launching anywhere within the Flathead Basin with a watercraft that last launched on waters outside of the Basin.

Several decontamination stations at Canyon Ferry Reservoir are scheduled to open in the coming weeks. Their hours of operation are Monday through Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., and Friday through Sunday from 7 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.:

- Canyon Ferry Bureau of Reclamation Visitor Center and Silos stations open May 11.
 - Canyon Ferry Hellgate station opens May 18.
 - Canyon Ferry Goose Bay station opens May 25.
- Several other stations in and around the region are currently open or scheduled to open soon:
- The Dillon inspection station (Red Rocks Rest Area on northbound I-15, south of Dillon) is currently operating daily from 6:30 a.m. to 8:45 p.m.
 - The Anaconda inspection station (westbound I-90) is currently operating daily from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.
 - The Helena Highway 12 inspection station (westbound) opens May 18. Hours of operation will be posted at the web address listed below.
 - Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Helena office inspection station operates weekdays from 9 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.
 - FWP's Bozeman office operates weekdays from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

If regulations require you to get a watercraft inspection and you will be traveling past a station outside of operating dates and hours, please plan to go to FWP's Helena or Bozeman offices during the hours listed above, or any other regional FWP office. Boaters are also asked to voluntarily clean, drain and dry their boat and equipment before launching in Montana waters.

For more information on how you can help prevent the spread of aquatic invasive species in Montana, please visit www.CleanDrainDryMT.com

"The NIWRC's main office is located in Lame Deer, and our staff experienced the disappearance and losses of Henny Scott and Hannah Harris directly as members of that community," Simpson said. "This localized training of national partners signals a step forward to addressing the disproportionate violence that American Indian people face on a daily basis, including a homicide rate on some reservations that is ten times the national average," Simpson added.

The joint training is sponsored by the Montana Department of Justice, the U.S. Attorney's Office for Montana, the FBI, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

The training will be offered free of charge; POST credits for law enforcement officers are pending. Space is limited to 250 attendees; priority will be given to tribal government representatives and law enforcement. ESTABLISHING A PHARMACY

Southwest Montana Community Health Center

Keeping your whole family healthy

In response to the overwhelming need from the Dillon community, Southwest Montana Community Health Center is moving forward in establishing a pharmacy in the old Mitchell Drug building at 125 E. Glendale.

"We are very excited for the opportunity to expand our retail pharmacy" services into the Dillon Community. Our staff is dedicated to providing personalized service at an affordable price, as we have in our communities for nearly 20 years," said Tammy Cox, director of pharmacy services for the SWMTCHC.

The pharmacy is expected to open in summer 2019, following a remodel of the building.

In the meantime, CHC pharmacies in Sheridan and Butte are available to assist with medication needs. Call Mac's CHC Pharmacy at (406) 842-7434 or Butte CHC Pharmacy at (406) 496-6001 to discuss options to obtain your prescriptions.

If you need a medical provider, now is the time to establish at our clinic by calling (406) 683-4440 for an appointment.
