Healing Garden

A fresh floral memorial wreath will be on display inside the Healing Garden at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare Sunday May 26th through Thursday May 30th. Barrett Hospital Foundation invites you to experience Barrett Hospital & HealthCare's Healing Garden in honor of Montana Veterans.

Highway Patrol Trooper Wade Palmer

We share with you our joy as we welcome our brother home to Montana.

Parlmer has been receiving care in Salt Lake City, Utah for injuries sustained during a March 15th shooting near Evaro, MT. He has been receiving treatment at the University of Utah Hospital in Salt Lake City, where his doctors have determined he is ready to transition to the next phase of care.

"Wade will be welcomed home to Montana as a hero," Attorney General Fox said. "On behalf of the Highway Patrol, the Department of Justice, and the entire Montana law enforcement community, I want to again share my profound thanks to all who have supported Wade and his family in ways large and small, seen and unseen. Let us all keep the other victims of that fateful March night in our thoughts and prayers as they continue to receive medical care."

On March 15, Palmer was shot in the neck, face, and head, after locating the suspect involved in an earlier shooting that injured two and killed one in Missoula. He was transported to Saint Patrick Hospital in critical condition and eventually flown to Salt Lake City to receive Level I trauma care.

In the following days, Wade will begin outpatient therapy as his recovery continues. While the family is happy to share this news with the public, they also respectfully request privacy as they return and adjust to life back at home.

SPLASH PAD OPENING POSTPONED

Splash Pad USA and the City of Dillon have been down checking all the features and getting the splash pad system up and running for the first full summer of operation.

The only draw back is Mother Nature. So the opening of the Splash Pad will be put off for at least another week. I am sure we are all ready for a warm change in the weather.

Pledge of Allegiance and Standing for the Flag

By: MJ

When you are attending an event where you are asked to stand and salute the flag, what are you thinking or do you think "whatever?" Are you thinking about freedom, independence, self-reliance and accountability? Are you thinking about all the sacrifices men and women have made for that freedom?

I was standing by a person at a meeting where people were asked to stand for the Pledge of Allegiance. The response of that individual I was standing by was negative and disrespectful. To this person it was not just a memorized memory to recite the Pledge, it was a waste of time and there was nothing to honor. Their reaction made me think about what I thought when I stood for the flag; was it just a memorized memory or was I standing for the freedom and those who fought for it? Today I take a silent moment after I recite the Pledge of Allegiance to appreciate and thank those who fought.

Humans have a difficult time being empathetic, thoughtful, sympathetic and truly comprehend at the very core of their soul anything, unless they have had experiences. Question: Has the time come when we today need to remember where our freedom comes from, why we have independence, to be accountable, to be respectful…?

Montana's 2019 Bring Our Missing Children Home Poster Contest Winner Announced

Attorney General Tim Fox and Superintendent of Public Instruction Elsie Arntzen today announced Quinn Berkram, a fifth-grader in Mrs. Amy Grigoletti's class at Edgerton Elementary in Kalispell, is the 2019 winner of the Montana Bringing Our Missing Children Home poster contest.

Poster artwork was judged on originality, creativity, use of color and materials, and reflection of the contest's theme. Written poster applications were judged on the level of understanding of the subject, clarity, and grammar. Quinn's poster reflects a scene of parents joyfully reuniting with their son under a sky bursting with fireworks. For her winning entry, Quinn received a $100 cash prize presented today by the Montana Department of Justice's Division of Criminal Investigation along with a classroom pizza party. Quinn's poster has been submitted to the national contest.

"Quinn's colorful artwork is a moving reminder there are currently 71 missing school-aged children in Montana," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "It's also a good prompt for each of us to talk to our children and grandchildren about their personal safety in a variety of situations, whether they're at school, out in their communities, or online," Fox added.

State Superintendent Elsie Arntzen said, "Congratulations to Quinn and thank you for your participation in this important cause. We have too many precious Montana children missing. I am honored to work with Attorney General Tim Fox to raise awareness of this problem and bring these kids home. The Missing Children's Poster Contest is one important way to raise awareness in communities across our state."

This is the eleventh time Montana has participated in the annual Bringing Our Missing Children Home national poster contest, which allows Montana fifth-graders to compete at the state and national levels while giving their schools an opportunity to teach students about personal safety. The Montana Department of Justice Missing Persons Clearinghouse website provides information on Montana's AMBER Alert and Missing Persons programs, which are operated by the agency's Division of Criminal Investigation.

WADING THE ST. JOE

by "Swede" Troedsson, Missoula, '59

On August first, 1959, Jerrold (Jerry) Daniels (MSO '58) and I were dispatched from Missoula in a Twin Beech to the Bacon Creek Fire. The spot fire was on the south side of the St. Joe River, on the Red Ives Ranger District, in the St. Joe National Forest, Idaho. The spotter was Harry Roberts (MSO '53).

Upon starting to exit the aircraft, the prop blast momentarily pinned me against the small door frame. Harry gave me a STRONG shove which propelled me out the door. After a non-eventful parachute landing, we had the fire out by late that afternoon. The next morning we packed up our gear, and proceeded to make the pack out north from the Bacon Peak ridge down to the St. Joe River. The pack out to the river was a rough cross country 1½ miles, and took almost two hours.

We had to wade the river in order to get to the St. Joe River trail on the north side of the river. The trail would lead us to the Red Ives Ranger Station.

The water was up to our knees. Here I was, a 140 lb. pin butt, with a 100 lb. pack, on slippery rocks, trying desperately to avoid doing a face plant in the river. My lack of good traction was compounded by boots with smooth neoprene soles.

We made it across without incident. After stacking our gear on the trail, (to be picked up later by a packer), we walked about ten miles down-river to the ranger station.

After getting cleaned up, we were driven to Avery that evening, where we had dinner. We later boarded the late night Milwaukee train to Missoula, arriving in the early morning.

Cemetery Committee

By: MJ

Surveying East Boundary: Mr. Devers ask for approval to have the east boundary of the cemetery surveyed because it is unclear where the boundary line is. He would like to build a fence along the boundary to keep stray dogs and coyotes off the grounds. Motion was made and passed to continue with the survey.

Green Burial Section at Cemetery: Green Burial Council (GBC) is a non-government agency. The city may or may not become a member of the Green Burial Council. The benefit for being a member of the GBC is the publicity for having a green burial section that would be listed on their website. The initial fee to join the organization would be $545 then $345 annually after that. An ecological assessment would have to be done on the part of the cemetery that will be reserved for green burials. Cost of the assessment was estimated to be $2.000 or less. Councilman Kenworthy suggested calling other green burial cemeteries to see what the demand has been. A motion was made Councilman Hand and passed to proceed with developing a green burial section but hold off on joining the GBC until the demand for the space is determined.

It was discussed that many people who had planned to be cremated are now choosing natural burial.

Attorney General Fox Announces Plans to Appoint Missing Persons Task Force, Hire Missing Persons Specialist

Announcement Follows Passage of Missing Indigenous Persons Legislation

Following the passage of legislation to address missing indigenous persons in Montana, Attorney General Tim Fox today announced his agency's implementation plans related to these new laws.

"Over the past two years, my office worked closely with the State-Tribal Relations Interim Committee on measures to address missing indigenous persons in Montana," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "Four of those bills passed, and another, the LINC Act, is now law also. We are moving forward with the tasks the Legislature set before us, including appointing members to a Missing Indigenous Persons Task Force, and hiring a Missing Persons Specialist within the Montana Department of Justice."

Attorney General Fox added, "Issues of concern to Indian Country are close to my heart, not just because I grew up in a community near a tribal nation, but also because we can and must do more to work together. Toward that end, U.S. Attorney Kurt Alme and I recently announced a joint training for law enforcement and the public on issues relating to missing persons cases across the state, particularly those involving Native Americans." The event, set for June 12 in Helena, will provide instruction for law enforcement on accepting and entering a missing person's report, use of missing persons alerts and advisories, and conducting missing persons investigations. A separate session for the public will offer information on how to report a missing person, give an overview of missing persons databases and alert systems, and discuss other resources that are available.

The training is free; online registration is available at www.dojmt.gov/mpt. POST credits for law enforcement officers are pending. For more information, email dojmmiw@mt.gov or call DOJ's Office of Victim Services at 1-800-498-6455 or (406) 444-3653.

Attorney General Fox also invited qualified applicants to apply for the new Missing Persons Specialist position created by the passage of House Bill 21, known as Hanna's Act. This position, which will be placed in DOJ's Division of Criminal Investigation, will work closely with local, state, federal, and tribal law enforcement on missing persons cases.

Letter to the Editor

I was going to write something this week but there was nothing to write about!

The President didn't tell one lie all week. The U.S. government received their last payment from Mexico for the border wall.

The weather has been perfect all across the U.S. No tornadoes, no floods, no winds, no heavy rains.

The majority of the women in the U.S. were pleased with the results of a bunch of old white men making rules for them. They want to thank these men for caring and being so smart.

The 380 men and women running for President as a Democrat was narrowed down to 379. Things are looking great!

The new tariffs will help everyone in the United States with just one exception. Now the dollar store will become a five dollar store.

The President released his taxes from the last 25 years. Mr. Trump has paid his fair share in taxes and then some.

Gas prices are the lowest in ten years. And the other good news is with a new invention that cost $14.96 all cars and trucks will get 200 miles to a gallon More great news.

The 87 trillion pot holes in the U.S. have been fixed, filled in, so you will be able to drive safely.

Everyone in Congress is working well with each other. They just passed a health care bill for all Americans. The President signed this new law to take effect June 1st.

All of the pharmaceutical companies said they have made enough money and all prescriptions will cost no more than a dollar. This will go into effect on May 37th.

So now you know why I didn't write anything this week. Everything is just hunky-dory. Maybe I will write next week.

Help For Harlee

As many know BJ and Alena Klose lost there 26 year old son Garrett to an aggressive Glioma (brain tumor) April 6th 2019. There has been a Memorial fund set up at stockman bank in Garrett's honor to help a family friend who unfortunately was diagnosed with a brain tumor just one month after Garretts passing.

Harlee Salmi is 5 years old, she is the daughter of Matt and Taylor Salmi from Hot Springs Montana. She was diagnosed with a diffuse intrinsic pontine glioma on May 5th. This is a very aggressive non-curable brain stem tumor. She is currently receiving treatment at Denver children's hospital. Medical and incidental costs are mounting and time is of the essence to provide the resources that can help them. As symptoms progress she will become increasingly reliant on every day cares and already needs assistance. Please pray for Harlee and her family they need a miracle! All donations will go to help the Salmi family ease the financial worry and reunite the family. Harlee's wish is to return home. Your kindness, generosity, and support are so greatly appreciated.

With Sincere gratitude,
BJ, Alena Klose and the Salmi family

Help For Harlee

As many know BJ and Alena Klose lost there 26 year old son Garrett to an aggressive Glioma (brain tumor) April 6th 2019. There has been a Memorial fund set up at stockman bank in Garrett's honor to help a family friend who unfortunately was diagnosed with a brain tumor just one month after Garretts passing.

Harlee Salmi is 5 years old, she is the daughter of Matt and Taylor Salmi from Hot Springs Montana. She was diagnosed with a diffuse intrinsic pontine glioma on May 5th. This is a very aggressive non-curable brain stem tumor. She is currently receiving treatment at Denver children's hospital. Medical and incidental costs are mounting and time is of the essence to provide the resources that can help them. As symptoms progress she will become increasingly reliant on every day cares and already needs assistance. Please pray for Harlee and her family they need a miracle! All donations will go to help the Salmi family ease the financial worry and reunite the family. Harlee's wish is to return home. Your kindness, generosity, and support are so greatly appreciated.

With Sincere gratitude,
BJ, Alena Klose and the Salmi family
