CRIME HELP: This past weekend, June 7-9, District 10 buildings were unlawfully entered and vandalized. The trespassers were likely students who accessed the buildings during the night hours. An attempt to start a fire could have done tremendous damage to the recently constructed campus complex. Please help us identify these culprits by contacting the Dillon Police or Randy Shipman directly at (406) 683-4311. Callers may remain anonymous or come forward for a reward, once positive identification has been made. Parents: please ask your students if they have knowledge of this event. It is likely there are individuals in our community who are aware of the offenders' identities. Thank you for helping us keep our schools priority #1.

Dedication of Civil War Veteran tombstone and special marker for

Jonathan A. Hill, Private, Co K 92nd Illinois Infantry
July 20, 2019 - 1 p.m.

Mountain View Cemetery, Dillon, Montana

Jonathan A. Hill was the last Civil War veteran to die in Beaverhead County. He died in 1935 and was buried at Mountain View Cemetery in Dillon with full military honors by the American Legion. A veteran tombstone was not ordered for him at that time, so we obtained one for him this year with the help of Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War Compliment-Chapman Camp #2 in Billings. The Sons provided a "last in county" marker for him. The stone and marker were set by the American Legion Post 20 men and friends and will be dedicated by the Sons on July 20. Jonathan Hill's grave is in the old Legion section just west of the Legion monument, close to the main road.

Everyone is invited to be there to honor this last Civil War veteran of our county.

Lettuce Go to the Farmers' Market

Dillon Farmers' Market Opens Saturday June 22

The Dillon Farmers Market will begin June 22 and run through September 21, 2019. The market will be open on Saturdays from 9 am to 1 pm, in the Wells Fargo Bank parking lot at 20 North Montana Street.

Do not park your vehicle overnight in the Wells Fargo Bank parking lot on Fridays. Vehicles left in the lot at 7 am on Saturday mornings may be towed at the owner's expense.

"19 vendors were signed up by June 9, and we will hear from more vendors in the coming weeks," reported Katie Bump, market secretary. In 2018, there were 60 vendor-members, with an average of 28 vendors present on each Saturday. Some vendors come every week, others come just a few times during the summer. The market welcomes musicians and others to provide entertainment at the market. Anyone interested in performing at the market should call in advance to organize dates, times, and spaces.

By: MJ

Present: Councilman Hand, Graham, Mayor Klakken and other city employees.

Water Bill adjustments: Ken Schaible ask that his water bill be adjusted at his rental house where Jerry Butts resides. After discussion Councilman Schwandt moved to adjust the sewer rate to reflect normal usage, however the water that was metered will have to be paid for. Motion passed and was accepted by the council.

Sewer Usage Statement: Sheriff Craft, representing Beaverhead County, reported that the law enforcement building has a water leak that began in 2017 and has been fixed as of today. The County requests that the sewer rate be set to what it was before the leak began in March 2017. Councilman Graham made motion to recommend making the adjustment. Motion passed.

City purchasing the Swenson Lift Station: Mayor Klakken reported that there was no new information and the topic was tabled.USDA-RD Grant: The Task Order is to authorize DOWL to apply to USDA-RD for grant loan funds for the Beaverhead River Pipe Crossing project. The current interest rate for a USDA loan is approximately 2.5%. Grant money is based on the need. The tentative funding plan would be split with 25% from grant funds, $750,000 and 75% from a loan, $2,660,000. Councilman Hand asked Treasurer Straus if he seen any downside to applying for the USDA money. Straus responded there would be a cost to apply and paperwork that will have to be completed. Councilman Schwandt moved to recommend approval of the Task Order. Motion passed.Determine better methods to charge sewer only customers: The committee has taken up a discussion on past due sewer charges at this time because there is an account that is long past due in payments. The problem is that when a Sewer only user becomes delinquent on their account, leverage to compel that person to bring the account current is difficult to implement. Putting a lien on property, installing a shut off valve on sewer line and have the bill for all Sewer only accounts put directly on tax bills were issues discussed. *Due to the severity of the past due account the committee decided to disconnect the line.*Mayor Klakken and City Attorney Dolan agreed that the current City Code, Title 13 Public Utilities, permits the City Water and Sewer Department to dig up and disconnect the sewer service line from the City sewer mainline. The committee is continuing to look for a solution for delinquent statements. NOTE: Mr. Dolan stated that the MT State Code allows cities to establish rules for municipal water and sewer systems. He went onto say that if a process was in place and publicly noticed, people would have an expectation of consequences for not paying their sewer bill.

The Wind

By: Bryce Angell

We rolled out of our sleeping bags, then scratched and stretched our legs. The cook was flipping hot cakes, frying hash browns, steak and eggs.

Old Jed was giving me the eye. I tossed two forks of hay.

A belly full was needed. He'd be packing me all day.

Our camp was at the San Raphael, in Utah's arid land.

The river flowed a trickle but was mostly rock and sand.

We shoveled down our breakfast, saddled up and hit the trail.

We'd been warned about a little wind. Not one of us turned tail.

We rode down through the riverbed. A great start for our ride.

The canyon walls were steep, prob'ly three hundred feet each side. I'd never seen such beauty, all the rocks of deepest red.

The thought of God's creation just kept running through my head. But my humble thought soon faded by a gale force so extreme.

A howling coming up the canyon like a banshee scream! I cinched my hat then tied my neck bandana 'cross my face.

I wondered 'bout the campsite. Would the tents all be in place?

We rode atop the bluff to see our camp come into view. Not a single tent was standing. That old wind had blown plumb through.

The horses set their fastest pace until we reached our site.

We found tents from hell to breakfast. We were headed into night. So, we cleaned the trailers out and swept the horse turds off the floors.

Laid sleeping bags from end to end, then promptly closed the doors. One trailer stocked the kitchen. Now we had a place to eat.

The stoves and chairs were placed so every cowboy had a seat.

The cowboys sat close to the stoves and weathered out the storm.

The tarps and tents were blown away but dang sure we'd be warm. Now if you're wondering who's in charge, part of your daily thoughts.

No need to even give a guess, Mother Nature calls the shots.

Pennington Bridge FAS closes due to migrating river channel

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will be permanently closing the Pennington Bridge Fishing Access Site on the Big Hole River, four miles south of Twin Bridges. The closure will take effect June 17.

The closure has become necessary due to the river channel's migration and the subsequent threat of latrine contents contaminating the river. The site was leased from a local landowner, but due to these evolving river conditions, the lease has been terminated, and the latrine will be removed.

As an alternative, Big Hole River floaters can use the public boat ramp located on river left, immediately upstream of the Pennington Bridge FAS, under the bridge.

For more information, please call 406-994-6931.

BASKETBALL NAIA LETTER OF INTENT

The University of Montana Western head men's basketball coach Mike Larsen has announced the signing of junior college standout Max Clark to a NAIA Letter of Intent.

Clark, a 6-3 point guard from Lawrenceville, Ga., comes to the Bulldogs after spending the past two seasons at Wallace State Community College in Hanceville, Ala. Clark started all but five games during his time with Lions.

This last season he had the second-best assist to turnover ratio of all national junior college players at 5.9 to 1. He finished the 2018-19 season with 148 assists to 25 turnovers, shot 34.8 percent from the floor and pulled down 3.6 rebounds a game.

"We are extremely excited about Max committing to our program," Larsen said. "He comes from a winning program that has amazing values. Max himself boasts an impressive 3.7 GPA and a 5.9 assist to turnover ratio. Max will bring an exciting brand of basketball to Dillon and we can't wait for him to arrive in August."

Clark is a 2017 graduate of Collins Hill High School and is the son of Laura Nero. The Dean's List student plans on majoring in health and human performance at Montana Western.
