Dillon Farmers' Market News

The Dillon Farmers' Market opens for the summer on Saturday, June 22. So far, there are 21 vendors signed up. The market will take place from 9 am to 1 pm in the Wells Fargo parking lot at 20 North Montana Street, across from the bank. Please remember that the parking lot is reserved for the Farmers' Market from 7 am to 2 pm on Saturdays through September 21. Cars left in the lot on Saturday mornings at 7 am may be towed at the owners' expense.

What can you do at the Farmers' Market this year? You can "Bee Local!" Stop in to visit with friends and local growers, artists, and crafters. You can shop for handmade products while you enjoy coffee and a snack. You might buy fresh food such as garden produce, meat, jam and jelly, fruit, nuts, eggs, and baked goods. You could be dazzled by jewelry, get a feel for fabric, and knitted, crochet, or leather items. Knock on local wood furniture. Support a local charity. You could even make your own stomp rocket with Joe Witherspoon! In addition to local vendors, the market will feature special products from outside our region.

This Saturday, Maria of Jacob's Gardens will be bringing fresh, sweet, Santina Cherries from Kennewick, WA, and a new crop of large, roasted & salted pistachios from Arizona. Marie will bring other fruit as it becomes available throughout the summer. We also expect Ron McParland of Alder, MT to bring his California walnuts and almonds again this summer. Our neighbors from Twin Bridges, Jerry and Shirley Braach, will bring Utah peaches and other fruit according to the season. Bob and Katie Bump and others will bring market produce as the local growing season progresses.

In the meat department, Gary and Pat Ordish return again this year with their popular meat and cheese products from G.O.'s Jerky barn. New to the market will be Pamela Ford, of Triple F Pigs, offering packaged pork. Locally raised and processed, Triple F pigs are fed on a soy free diet, giving their high quality meat great flavor. are expected to have fresh eggs for sale this year.

Lilia Guillen-Sanchez will return to the market with her Mexican food truck, specializing in tamales. Coffee will be available from the BCHS Peru Travelers, returning to the market to raise funds for their expedition. Sweet treats and baked goods will be available from Kim Nye, Barbara Sievers, the Grace United Methodists, and new vendors Janet Tatarka and Lois Griffin, and others. Marshall and Cathy Prindle will sell their homemade candy this year, in addition to leather and fabric crafts.

Among our artisans, returning vendor Doug O'Connell will bring his handmade furniture, and new vendor William Salada will also have handmade furniture and clocks. Bob and JoAnn Johnson are returning with a glittering array of bird feeders, as well as leather and other crafts. Lois Griffin's Lupine Arts - willow wreaths, prints and cards, and original art work will be on display. This year's market master, Elise Davis, will also display her artwork for sale. Paula Kerrick and Sue Frank, and Brenda Hawk will have their handmade jewelry for sale. Catherine Cain will again have plants and yard art for sale, along with a line of silk scarves she makes with dyes from native plants.

Our fabric and needlework specialists, Kim Nye, Paula Kerrick and Sue Frank, the Grace United Methodists, and JoAnn Paddock and the Beaverhead Kennel Club will have a variety of fabric items from pretty potholders to colorful quilts, and crochet and knit wear for all ages. Funds raised by the Grace United Methodists go towards a variety of charitable causes, and the Kennel Club supports the Beaverhead Humane Society.

For more information about the Dillon Farmers' Market, visit the web site www.dillonfarmersmarket.blogspot.com, or call Catherine Cain at 406-498-6198, or Katie Bump at 406-683-6735. Find them on Facebook at dillon-farmers-market.

On 05/22/19 Officer Eric Pedersen was confirmed by the city council and appointed as a full time permanent officer after completing the Montana Law Enforcement Academy and successfully working for one year. I look forward to Officer Pedersen's continued success, he is a vital member of your police department and community. Officer Pedersen was awarded his basic law enforcement certification from the Montana Police Officers Standard and Training Council on May 1, 2019. The entire department is proud of his accomplishments and are happy he is back patrolling with us.

On 6/19/2019 Joel Stewart was approved by the council as a probationary police officer. Officer Stewart holds a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and was previously employed as a probation and parole officer. Your police department was very lucky to hire such a qualified and community oriented officer.

Our current staff is young and we are continuing to build and replace positions that were vacated, and approved by the community mill levy. Officer Jared Rumsey is currently at the academy and with one more hire our staff will be full as we prepare to send the new hires through the academy.

We once again thank the community for their continued support and patience as we continue to improve on our "community/police as one" relationship.

With Storm Season Here, AG Fox Cautions Consumers to Choose Contractors Carefully

This summer, many parts of Montana may face severe thunderstorms, hail, and flooding. Attorney General Tim Fox and his Office of Consumer Protection remind consumers to exercise caution while hiring contractors to repair damage to their homes. "Fly by night" contractors, or "storm chasers," swarm Montana communities after storms and natural disasters, eager to claim insurance checks and hard-earned money.

"Don't let shady contractors take advantage of you this summer," Attorney General Tim Fox said. If you have any questions about how to select a reputable contractor, be sure to call Montana's Office of Consumer Protection at 1-800-481-6896."

When hiring a contractor, make sure you follow these steps:

Research similar projects. Learn the best way to complete it and how much it should cost.

Consider local, reputable contractors. Check their registration by calling the Department of Labor and Industry at 406-444-7734 or checking online at www.mtcontractor.com.

Get at least three written bids. A bid is not a contract; you're not obligated to do business with someone just because you have their bid. Check references.

Call the Office of Consumer Protection at 406-444-4500 and ask if there are any complaints about the contractor you are considering.

Require proof that the contractor is insured and bonded. Otherwise, you may be liable for injuries to workers or others on your property. Ask to see the actual bond document and call the bonding company to confirm what it covers.

Don't pay 100% up front. While a down payment may be necessary, payments should be distributed over the course of the project.

Insist upon a written contract that includes: Start and end date of the project, payment schedule, a list of materials (quality, grade and cost), any guarantees or warranties, and who will be responsible for necessary licenses and permits.

Get the start and end date in writing and signed by both parties. If no project dates are put in writing, your project could be put off indefinitely.

Ask if subcontractors will be used in any part of your project. If so, require proof they are registered, insured and bonded.

To report an attempted scam, call your local law enforcement agency or the Montana Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection at (800) 481-6896 or (406) 444-4500, or visit <http://dojmt.gov/consumer>.

CLOSE CALLS - SLAPPED DOWN

By "Swede" Troedsson

In the summer of 1994 I was dispatched to Libby, Mt, to supervise a helibase operation that served fires on the Kootenai National Forest.

We were constructing a dip tank that would provide a water source for helicopter buckets.

While we were constructing the dip tank, a Bell 212 helicopter landed close to us. I had my back to the helicopter in order to avoid the strong blast of dust from the rotor wash.

The blast from the rotors picked up a 4X8 ft sheet of plywood. It sailed through the air, slapping me on the back with its' flat surface. I was knocked to the ground, and lay there, momentarily stunned, with the sheet of plywood on top of me.

Helibase personnel ran over to me, lifted the plywood off of me, and helped me stand up.

I was shaken, but uninjured. It might have turned out different had I been hit with an edge of the plywood sheet.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Friends of Dillon

I Chuck Thompson had the privilege of handing out Citizenship awards to 2 students at Dillon Middle School 8th grade graduation. I have done this 22 times for the American Legion, Beaverhead Post #20.

The District #10 Board of Education awarded me with a certificate of graduation with the class of 2019. (Honorary) I want to thank all at Dillon Middle School for this honor and privileged 2019 is a year of history for me. The VFW was formed in 1899 making this their 120 anniversary. The American Legion is having their 100th anniversary and at Beaverhead Post #20 we will celebrate 100 years in September.

I also gave out VFW Scholarships to graduates of Beaverhead County High School.

I presented two American Citizenship Awards to graduates of the Class #40 Montana Youth Challenge at Western.

Thank you all for this honor.
