Community basement

We would like to thank the community for your donations & support of the Community Basement. It is a wonderful service for the community but we need your help & cooperation. We would appreciate items to be clean & gently used. We can't wash or repair clothing as we don't have the resources or manpower. We receive multiple items that are not usable. We can't sell infant seats, electrical items or knives due to liability. Also we don't have the room for furniture or large items. So we would appreciate it if you would be selective in the items you donate. We always welcome volunteers & a big thank you to the volunteers who work & strive to make it a pleasant place to shop.

City Treasure Straus Resigns

By: MJ

I was not present at the June 19th council meeting however, I did listen to the tape. At the council meeting Mr. Straus announced that he was quitting his job as city treasurer. July 15th would be his last day on the job. It appeared Mr. Straus was expressing generalized resentment of other people, and frustration with certain circumstances. Straus felt he was being unjustly accused by the mayor of hiding information and distorting facts. Straus accused the mayor of lying, defamation, unprofessionalism... There were several other city employees he spoke of being dissatisfied with.

Straus spoke for 20± minutes expressing strong feelings of annoyance and displeasure while projecting his opinion on the good and bad goings-on at the city. He thanked the City of Dillon, city council and mayor and others for allowing him to be of service to this community.

Mayor Klakken and City Treasurer Straus, have worked together for the past 5± years. They have worked conscientiously for the betterment of the city making large financial gains. Straus spoke of several of those savings like; reconstruction of the water/sewer bond debt that reduced upcoming bond payments by $8,149,000±, refinancing the police retirement bond that saved the city $400,000±, several changes in cash management and investment yields...

Straus spoke of information that in his opinion would obviously improve the financial operations of city government. He went on to say that he hoped the information he spoke of would improve the city operations, make the city more financially successful.

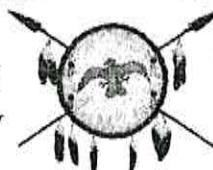

Question: Why was Mr. Straus not working with the team of people that make up the city government and making these improvements? Note: There are many statutes that govern how a city will manage the finances, invest money... The city employees are not allowed to spend, invest or collect money without following the state and federal laws. Question: Could some of Mr. Straus's ideas been disputed by Mayor Klakken because of conflict with governing statutes? Many questions not answered.

Settled and deliberate anger is a reaction to perceived deliberate harm or unfair treatment by others. This form of anger is episodic and had no place at a public meeting. The place to display this type of speech is in house with the entire team that is involved. Question: Free speech is one of the freedoms given by constitution however, does free speech mean we don't take responsibility for your own actions and just throw others under the bus?

Note: There are always two sides to every story. The seated council and a few public members heard only Mr. Straus's side of the story. Mayor Klakken did not speak.

The Grinnin' Skunk

By: Bryce Angell

I chose a spot down by the creek and backed my camper in.

A jagged tree limb snagged the roof and tore right through the tin.

Now, the weatherman's prediction was there ain't a chance of rain.

So, I didn't bother fixin' the new hole in my domain.

I lit my Coleman lantern. 'Twas so dark I couldn't see. Then the noise of runnin' water told my bladder, "Time to pee!"

I hopped down from my trailer, held my lantern up to see.

Then promptly stopped dead in my tracks. A skunk was eyein' me.

The ball of furry black and white sat straight back on his heels.

I couldn't move a muscle just stood blurtin' tiny squeals.

I swear the doggone, stinkin' polecat grinned from ear to ear.

No doubt he'd tried this trick before. He prob'ly sensed my fear.

He almost seemed quite friendly but I ain't no stupid clunk. Don't ever trust these varmints. 'Cuz they've earned the name of skunk.

I turned around and made the dash, the fastest five-yard run.

The skunk lit in behind me. He was havin' all the fun.

I opened up the camper door and slammed it after me.

But I hadn't solved the problem. I still needed to go pee.

That's when I saw the lightnin'. Heard the crackin' thunderclap.

It was gonna be a down pour. I'm a one sure sorry sap.

I peered out through the window. Couldn't see the little guy. So,

I nudged the door an inch or two. The pungent squirt flew by.

The smell was so horrific. Made the snot run out my nose.

A dang good thing I ducked. That stuff shot like a garden hose.

The rain was comin' sideways. Talk about the weatherman.

He prob'ly got his education from the boogey man.

Well, I've had enough of campin'. No more skunk and dumpin' rain. If you ever see me back again, you'll know I've gone insane.

Letter to the Editor

These thoughts are strictly my own, and not a reflection of editorial staff.

I often wonder what cereal box, Mr. Brillhart reads to get his information. As usual he only has ten percent of fact, totally ignoring the other 90 percent as being completely irrelevant. Since I have thought through, I do believe he has to be an undocumented alien from the planet Exxon. Nowhere does he mention the months of indignities we put up with (sometimes years). before we put our foot down saying "enough of this."

He also seems oblivious to 11 Sept, 2011, or the fact that there were 2,977 fatalities of the terrorist attacks.

Since you don't like the way we try to protect our people, you should move to Europe, or better beam back to your planet Exxon.

As a Veteran of the USAF, I was proud to have the privilege and honor to have served. Remember dictators always claim to have the right to govern, real Americans know in their hearts, it is a privilege to serve honorably.

Yours; Charles R. Thompson
