2005 BCHS graduate recently won an Emmy

2005 BCHS graduate Chase Hilton recently won an Emmy in the Outstanding Special Class - Short Format Daytime Program category at the 46th Annual Daytime Creative Arts Emmy Awards for his role as creative and copywriter on the Truth Initiative's campaign, The Truth About Opioids.

The winning 6-minute video, "Treatment Box: Rebekkah's Story", brings viewers face to face with the truth about opioids by capturing 26-year-old Rebekkah's experience with opioid addiction and her journey to recovery. The campaign demonstrates that opioid addiction can happen to anyone after just five days, and helps young people to understand the dangers associated with opioid misuse.

Chase is the son of Rich and Lalove Hilton of Dillon. To view the film go to opioids.thetruth.com

The Montana Cutting Horse Association July 12-14th

The Montana Cutting Horse Association (MCHA) is sponsoring a cutting July 12-14th at the Montana Center for Natural Horsemanship four miles south of Dillon. Cutting is said to be the most exciting equine sport. Since cutting is a judged event, there are certain characteristics in a "run" that determine a horse's score. Reflecting a mirror image of the cow and its movement is the ultimate goal of the horse. All this is done without the rider reining or visibly cueing the horse or allowing the cow to get back to the herd before "quitting" the cow.

The cutting will be judged by Kelly Graham who is a four star judge from Weatherford, Texas, and has judged many major events around the country. Cutting judges are similar to other sports' referees in that they evaluate the run at live speed, enforce the competition rules and determine the contestant's score. A judge's score can range from 60 to 80 points.

Kathy Foote, MCHA Vice-President, said she is excited for this cutting to be held in Dillon and is expecting over 130 of the best cutting horses in the Northwest, along with their owners and trainers, to attend this National Cutting Horse Association approved event. Local cutters John Seymour, Michelle Van Dyke, and Peri Suenram have been assisting with logistics and the LaCense ranch is providing cattle for the competition. The Mustard Street food truck will be on-site to serve breakfast and lunch.

The cutting will start each day at about 7:30 am. Everyone is invited to attend - there is no admission fee.

By: MJ

Members Present: Chair Matt Kenworthy, Don Hand & Bill Shafer.

Staff Present: Mayor Klakken, Mr. Devers, Mr. Hazelbaker and Ms. Stacey Roundy.

Surveillance Camera's: The total cost of two cameras is $5,000±. This item has been put on hold until the 2019-2020 budget.

Poindexter Cemetery: Devers said he was given a cost of $300 from Memorial Monuments to repair and set stones for the individuals whose remains were removed from Poindexter Cemetery. Committee discussed developing a memorial for Poindexter Cemetery at Mountain View. A motion was made to work toward developing that memorial. Motion passed.

Cattle Damages: The total cost for repairs to cemetery from cattle was $568. Motion was made to bill the cattle owner for the expenses. Motion passed.

Green Burial Section: A draft Ordinance was presented to committee and approved to be sent to the council. A Green Burial is a burial without a casket or embalming.

Reclaim Cemetery Spaces: At prior meetings a procedure to reclaim cemetery spaces purchased eighty or more years ago and have not been used was discussed. City Attorney Dolan is reviewing. Motion to table the item was made and passed.

Public Comment: Ms. Patty Kehrer was looking for a friend's grave on Memorial Day and was unable to located it. She contacted Mayor Klakken and he went up to see if he could help her find the grave to no avail. She believes there should be contact information for someone to be available to help people at the cemetery on weekends and holidays.

UMW Athletic Trainer Kaleb Birney Wins National Award

Kaleb Birney, UMW head athletic trainer, received the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Young Professionals' Committee National Distinction Award.

The National Distinction Award is the Young Professionals' Committee's (YPC) highest honor to recognize a professional athletic trainer who has made a positive and lasting impact on the athletic training profession at the community, state, district or national level.

Birney received his award during the NATA National Convention in Las Vegas on June 26, 2019.

"I am very honored to receive this award. I wouldn't be able to do this without the guidance of Russ Richardson, Janelle Handlos, and Chris Heard, or the help of Zach McCarthy and Mary Placzkowski. I'm blessed to be able to work with such a great family. I am even more thankful for my wife Emilee who supports me with everything," he said.

The nomination is based on multiple factors, including a strong demonstration of leadership abilities, embodiment of goals and ideas while maintaining a high level of honor, respect and integrity.

Birney is a member of the Montana Sports Medicine team with St. James Healthcare in Butte, Mont. for the last three years. He plans to return in fall 2019 for his sixth year at UMW.

FWP reminds boaters of hazardous river conditions

Two recreationists were caught in a hazardous spot on the Gallatin River in separate incidents last week where a cottonwood tree recently fell into the river. Both boaters were uninjured, but their watercrafts — a canoe and a paddle boat — became stuck in the log jam.

This hazard is new and appeared recently between Logan and Missouri Headwaters State Park. But similar hazards exist in all rivers across the state and, like this one, are altered by constantly changing river flows.

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks reminds boaters to use caution everywhere they recreate. Boating, while enjoyable, is inherently dangerous. Boaters and other people who recreate on Montana's waterbodies do so at their own risk.

Historically, boating accidents are not uncommon in Montana. Between 1998 and 2018, 134 people died in boating accidents in the state. Of those fatalities, 71 occurred on a river. And in 73 percent of Montana's drowning deaths, the victim was not wearing a life jacket.

Here are several recommended precautions boaters can take to avoid accidents and injury:

Always wear a life jacket. Make sure the type of life jacket is appropriate for the activity. Montana law requires that children under age 12 wear a life jacket when they are in any boat shorter than 26 feet.

Avoid downed trees and other visible hazards in the water. Practice situational awareness and know that dangerous conditions can appear and evolve without warning.

Abide by Montana's boating regulations. A copy of these regulations can be found online at fwp.mt.gov or at any FWP regional office.

Follow vessel safety checklists provided by FWP and the U.S. Coast Guard, including an inventory of necessary rescue equipment. These checklists can be found online at fwp.mt.gov/recreation/safety/boating.

Consult the U.S. Geological Survey for daily streamflow conditions. Avoid recreating on rivers during high flows.
