Grandma's Seat Belts

By: Bryce Angell

Grandma got a new Dodge Dart. She chose it from the lot.

We crowded round that brand-new car to see what she had bought. That Dart had everything you'd need. Its price you couldn't beat.

It even had two sturdy belts to keep you in your seat.

Though Grandma wasn't sold on being tied behind the wheel, she said she'd take a chance with it and see how she would feel. Grandma moved the seat ahead as far as it would go.

She stretched to reach the pedal, then could touch it with a toe. Well, Grandma drove right down Main Street, then home on Merkle's Lane.

If only she had known that car was going to yank her chain.

Grandma liked to go to town on Wednesdays, right at lunch.

She always wore her favorite dress to meet the senior bunch. She'd promised that she'd buckle up each time she drove to town.

We knew she loved her grandkids and wouldn't let us down.

But one day when she clicked that belt, the buckle caught her dress. It tore the cloth from stem to stern and left her in a mess.

She really wasn't in the mood to let that seat belt win.

That buckle ruined her favorite dress. A war would now begin. She changed her dress. Made up her mind. There really was no doubt.

She took a ten-inch butcher knife and cut those dang belts out. She grabbed those two belts by the neck and threw them o'er the fence.

Grandma's scary frame of mind was growing more intense.

A neighbor guy was gawking as this whole event took place.

But, when my grandma glared at him, he turned and ran post-haste. Well, Grandma jumped into her car and down the road she flew.

She met up with the senior bunch. Her day was far from through. And when she told them all about the seat belts and her dress, they burst out laughing. All agreed: that story's for the press.

So if you click your seat belt, and the buckle feels too tight.

You better take a look at it. Some say that seat belts bite!

Songs for my Grandmother - Invitation to the Community

Fellow Dillonites! My son, John Tibbetts, baritone, will be in town to perform a recital for his Grandmother, Gerta Mular, on Sunday, the 28th of July at 4:00 PM, at Saint James Episcopal Church.

We'd love the community to join us in celebrating this event. John is singing across the United States, and now seeks time to sing for his Grandmother at her church in Dillon and share with the community.

John appeared with Cincinnati Opera, the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Virginia Opera, Opera Saratoga in NY, and Kentucky Opera. He was a 2018 finalist in the International Lotte Lenya Competition and recently signed a contract with the Sarasota Opera in Florida for the 2019 Fall Season. John earned his master's in music from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and his bachelors in music from Georgia State University. Please see his website for more details: <https://www.operajohn.co/>

We are honored to present Dillon's own Charlene Loge (Gerta's next door neighbor), pianist; along with special guest Victoria Isernia, mezzo-soprano from Long Island, NY.

Program highlights will include Opera, Broadway, Spirituals and more!

Father Wells and the congregation of Saint James, along with John's Aunt Jo, Uncle Bill, and many cousins from Helena are looking forward to seeing you on the 28th of July.

Donations welcome at the door: reception to follow in the guild hall.

ROTARY SPEAKER

Isaac Sturgeon will speak to Rotarians and guests at noon Wednesday, July 17, 2019. He recently completed a three month train trip through Asia and eventually ending up on a safari in Africa. He will talk about his trip, share some facts about the many countries he visited during his train ride and share his experiences. Visitors are welcome.

Anyone interested in learning more about Rotary should come at noon to be a guest for lunch. The Club meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, 203 East Glendale St. For more information, email Dick Achter at dachter@barretthospital.org or Tina Giem at tgiem@barretthospital.org.

Summer Hunter Education courses offered throughout southwest Montana

Hunter and Bowhunter Education courses have been scheduled in several locations throughout southwestern Montana this summer. Registration has opened for many of those courses.

Students can find the course closest to them and register online at fwp.mt.gov/education/hunter.

Students may be required to pick up materials and complete the course manual before the first day of class. Dates, locations and specific instructions for each class, as well as contact information for the instructors, are available in the event description online.

A student must be at least 10 years old to register for Montana Hunter Education courses. Students ages 10-11 can take the course and hunt as an apprentice but will not be fully certified until the year they turn 12. There is no maximum age limit. Students must attend all classroom sessions, the field course and pass a final exam. Anyone age 18 or older can complete an online course but must still attend a field course to become certified.

To purchase a Montana hunting license, any person born after Jan. 1, 1985, must provide proof of having successfully completed a hunter and/or bowhunter education course issued by Montana, any other state or any Canadian province.

Hunter and bowhunter education courses are led by volunteer instructors who are passionate about preserving Montana's hunting tradition, teaching firearm safety and other outdoor skills.
