UMW Welcomes AmeriCorps Volunteer Service Member Chloe Weber

The University of Montana Western is excited to welcome AmeriCorps Volunteer Service Member Chloe Weber.

AmeriCorps is a voluntary civic society program designed to lessen the effects of poverty in the United States through the work of thousands of full and part-time volunteers.

Weber is responsible for grant writing, donor research, event planning and creating media content during her 12-month position. She will initiate tribal community outcomes on campus, expanding UMW's Indigenous education projects including the Teacher Preparation and Tribal Scholars Visiting Professor Projects. Weber will also support UMW Foundation efforts associated with fundraising related to these programs.

Weber graduated from Purdue University in spring 2019. She chose a career in public service inspired by an experience in North Carolina with the Arete Project.

The Arete Project is a service program aimed at teaching small groups how they can work together to utilize their skills as a community, based on three central pillars: rigorous engagement with the liberal arts, physical labor undertaken in service of the land and community and student self-governance.

After the two-month program concluded, she applied for several programs within AmeriCorps that could utilize her writing and industry experience. As well as participating in the Arete Project, Weber worked as a tutor and administrative assistant for the Purdue Writing Lab for two years, interned for nine months at an NPR station in Lafayette, Indiana and received a national and state award for her story on police training in June 2019.

"The UMW Foundation is pleased to provide the infrastructural support for Chloe to be part of the Montana Western campus for the next 12 months as an AmeriCorps Vista member. Her work with private granting organizations will seek to support Indigenous projects and other campus initiatives. We are thrilled to have Chloe on our team for the coming year," said Roxanne Engellant, University of Montana Western Foundation Executive Director.

Weber looks forward to bringing the skills and experiences she has developed to Montana Western and is excited to help create lasting initiatives and support for Tribal students and UMW.

Dillon celebrates CHC week

A free barbecue, giveaway of school supplies and more is planned for Tuesday, Aug. 6, at the Southwest Montana Community Health Center, 41 Barrett St.

The event is part of a weeklong National Community Health Center celebration which focuses on the mission and achievements of community health centers in the U.S.

"We are pleased to bring these events to all of our communities and have them join us for the festivities," said Jennifer Malone, CEO of the SWMTCHC. The center is headquartered in Butte with satellite offices in Anaconda and Dillon and pharmacies in Butte and Sheridan. The primary medical, dental, behavioral health and pharmacy organization serves more than 12,000 patients each year.

The Dillon barbecue runs from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 6. Free food, face painting, a fishing pond and giveaways are planned.

In addition, events are planned in Anaconda and Butte as well. Tuesday's event marks Agricultural Worker Health Day, while Wednesday is patient appreciation day and Thursday is stakeholder appreciation day and Friday is dedicated to the employees of health centers.

BAG SALE

Beaverhead Animal Shelter Thrift Store will be having a bag sale this next week August 5th through August 10th.

$3.00 a bag - our bag. Jewelry & special items are not included. Items over $3.00 are not included.

BUSINESS MEETING SCHEDULED FOR DILLON ROTARY WEDNESDAY

The Dillon Rotarians will conduct their business meeting on Wednesday, August 7, 2019. Visitors are welcome.

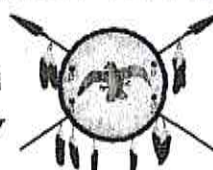

Anyone interested in learning more about Rotary should come at noon to be a guest for lunch. The Club meets in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church, 203 East Glendale St. For more information, email Dick Achter at dachter@barrethospital.org or Tina Giem at tgiem@barrethospital.org.

Community basement

We would like to thank the community for your donations & support of the Community Basement. It is a wonderful service for the community but we need your help & cooperation. We would appreciate items to be clean & gently used. We can't wash or repair clothing as we don't have the resources or manpower. We receive multiple items that are not usable. We can't sell infant seats, electrical items or knives due to liability. Also we don't have the room for furniture or large items. So we would appreciate it if you would be selective in the items you donate. We always welcome volunteers & a big thank you to the volunteers who work & strive to make it a pleasant place to shop.

Letter to the Editor

This letter is an expression of my gratitude for the wonderful care my granddaughters and I were given during our stay last week. On 7-27-19 while going to our room, my nine year old granddaughter experienced a panic attack when she saw the closed hall door and then the dark hall. For about six months Rachel has been having fears of elevators, restrooms, or other places in which she fears she may get locked. So she does not want doors closed. This problem started after she watched an episode of the Brady Bunch in which one of girls got stuck in a small room. So Rachel would not go into our room for nearly an hour. She sat in the doorway whimpering for nearly an hour while her sister and I got ready for bed. I finally pulled her in and closed the door while she started screaming. But when she saw how easily she could open it again she calmed down immediately. After several successful tries she quickly climbed into bed with her new doll friend, Woody, and fell right to sleep.

Kaylee, the young lady in charge of the front desk, went out of her way to assist us during this ordeal. She took on the role of a counselor in comforting Rachel. She went to her car to fetch Woody so that he could help to comfort her. He did that for Kaylee as she drove home from working at Super 8 late at night. She had twin toddlers waiting for her there. Kaylee moved our room to the first floor where there was not a closed door at the entrance to the hallway.

I, being a retired school teacher, was so impressed with Kaylee's kindness, verbal skills and wisdom. Rachel could not thank her in person the next morning, but she did want to thank her and Woody so much with a note that she left at the front with Woody. Rachel, Rebekah and I want to thank Super 8 and Kaylee for the thoughtful attention we received. I hope that you recognize what an outstanding employee you have in Kaylee. She is a great asset to your business and deserves your highest praise!

Sincerely,
Carol McHale

Garden Tips Workshop

The Dillon Public Library, in cooperation with the UM Western Community Gardens, will hold a workshop on Wednesday, August 7th, from 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm. We will meet at the UM Western Community Gardens, which are on the east end of the campus at the end of Cornell Street. Nolan Salix and other garden experts will give us gardening tips galore on pollination, and food and seed harvesting! Bring your gardening challenges and questions and we will try to answer them. Also, there will be an informal Plant Swap, so if you have some perennial plant volunteers that you would wish to share, please pot them up and bring them too!
