Helena author, Brian D'Ambrosio, will be our featured guest during Dillon Days. Brian's newest book, Montana Entertainers: Famous and Almost Forgotten chronicles Treasure State stars. Montana has supplied a rich vein of entertainment and personality -- from actors and actresses, comedians, the first famous female impersonator, singers, daredevils, dancers and even mimes. In this book D'Ambrosio marks Big Sky Country's long standing connections with America's Performing Arts.

His other titles include: Warrior in the Ring-Life of Marvin Camel, Montana and the NFL, and Shot in Montana-A History of Big Sky Cinema. Brian will be available from 1:00-3:00 on Saturday, August 10th to answer questions and autograph books. Please call 683-6807 if you have any questions.

JAYCEE PARK PICKETS

Jaycee Park Pickets are available again to be engraved with your name or the name of a loved one. If you would like to support the Jaycee Park Renovation with an engraved picket, stop by Womack's Printing 126 N. Montana St. and pick up a form. The cost is $50 per picket and can have approximately 25 letters. The other option available is to engrave the back of one of the benches in the playground. The cost to have your own personal bench back engraved is $1,000. If you enjoy the park or just like watching others enjoying the park and would like to be part of keeping up the park, you can donate to Friends of Jaycee Park and bring a check to Womack's Printing, The Bank of Commerce, Erin Hughes, Cindy Wood, Judy Siring at Farmers Union Ins. or Taylor Realty.

Attorney General Fox Urges Video Streaming Industry to Protect Young Viewers from Tobacco

AGs provide policy guidelines to streaming industry to combat increasing use of tobacco products by young people

Attorney General Tim Fox joined a bipartisan coalition of 43 attorneys general in urging the streaming industry to limit tobacco use in their video content. Due to the growing use of tobacco products among teens, the attorneys general urge the streaming industry to take proactive steps to protect the lives of young viewers.

"Smoking remains the number one preventable killer in the United States, causing over 480,000 deaths per year," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the number of middle and high school students using e-cigarettes rose from 2.1 million in 2017 to 3.6 million in 2018. Video streaming companies must realize that while they are entertaining young people, they can also play a critical role in protecting them from the dangers of tobacco use," Fox added.

In 2012, the U.S. Surgeon General concluded that watching movies with tobacco imagery increases the likelihood that adolescents will become smokers. In their letter, the Attorneys General urge the video streaming industry to adopt the following policies to protect young viewers from the ill effects of tobacco content:

- Eliminate or exclude tobacco imagery in all future original streamed content for young viewers, including any content rated TV-Y, TV-Y7, TV-G, TV-PG, TV-14, G, PG, and PG-13, and ensure that any promotional material such as previews, trailers, image galleries, and clips be tobacco-free. Content with tobacco imagery should be rated TV-MA or R and only recommended to adult viewers.
- Only "recommend" or designate tobacco-free content for children, adolescents, families, and general audiences.
- Improve or offer parental controls that are effective, prominent, and easy-to-use, that allow parents and guardians specifically to restrict access to all content with tobacco content, regardless of rating.
- Mitigate the negative influence of tobacco content, from whatever source and with any rating, by streaming strong anti-smoking and/or anti-vaping public service announcements, as appropriate, before all videos with tobacco content.

In 1998, Attorneys General across the nation fought to enter into the Tobacco Master Settlement Agreement, which imposed major restrictions on tobacco company marketing practices and prohibits advertising aimed at youth. This included banning the advertisement of tobacco products on TV shows, movies and other video content. Despite the ban, studies by the public health organization Truth Initiative found a high rate of tobacco content in streamed videos that are popular with young viewers. In particular, the study discovered high rates of tobacco usage in TV-Y and TV-PG shows. Further, a 2018 study found the streamed videos that are most popular with young viewers feature higher rates of tobacco content than programs shown on traditional television. A 2019 report by the Truth Initiative showed that the danger has only grown in the past year.

Attorney General Fox was joined in sending the letter by the Attorneys General of California, Nebraska, Alaska, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Guam, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, Northern Mariana Islands, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Puerto Rico, Rhode Island, Tennessee, U.S. Virgin Islands, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, and Wisconsin.
