Deer Lodge Demo Derby Accident

The final demolition derby event at the Tri-County Fair in Deer Lodge turned tragic. The Powell County Sheriff's Office, Deer Lodge Police Department and the Montana Highway Patrol are investigating a demolition derby accident that left one woman dead and seven others injured last Sunday night in Deer Lodge.

Powell County Sheriff Gavin Roselles says one car received a blow from another car and the driver lost control. The car jumped a fence and landed on nearby bleachers. Roselles says several people were trapped underneath the car.

The car went in the only place where there was not a log for a barrier, an opening where the cars come into the arena.

Roselles says at least one was flown by helicopter to the hospital and others were transported by ambulance or law enforcement.

The accident killed 36-year-old DaryLynne Day of Anaconda who was an emergency medical technician in Powell County.

Authorities say seven other people are recovering from non-life-threatening injuries. So far, two people have been released from the Deer Lodge Medical Center, and three are in stable condition.

The Powell County Chamber of Commerce hosted the event.
