Montana Western Announces 2019-20 Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series

The Fine Arts Department of the University of Montana Western is pleased to announce the 2019-20 Performing Arts Series, sponsored by the Bank of Commerce. Each exciting performance will take place on the Montana Western campus.

The opening event of the series, the "Annual 10-Minute Play Festival," will be held September 12-16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Small Auditorium (Main Hall room 314). All plays are directed, produced, and performed by Montana Western students, and each night will feature a different selection of plays. Festival director, Larry Brazill, is inviting students, faculty, staff and community members to submit their original short plays for the event. For more information, contact him at larry.brazill@umwestern.edu.

On the opening night of the 10-Minute Play Festival, the community is invited to the UMW Fine Arts Gallery to experience "Imaginarium," an exhibit by visiting artist Louis Habeck. There will be an artist's talk at 5:00 p.m. in Main Hall 309 followed by a reception in the gallery with refreshments from 6:00-7:00 p.m.

Rob Quist & The Great Northern Band with Hallady Quist will perform on September 24, with a 3:15 p.m. teaser concert on the Legacy Plaza followed by a full concert performance at 7:30 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium.

October 4 will feature Shakespeare in the School's "Romeo and Juliet" at 1:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium, the first stop on the company's fall tour.

"The Giver," based on the award-winning novel by Lois Lowry, will be presented at 7:30 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium October 24-26, with matinee showings to be scheduled. On December 10, at 7:00 p.m., please join us for the UMW Band and Choir Winter Program in the Beier Auditorium.

The spring semester will feature two rollicking comedies, "He Said, She Said" held January 30-February 1, and "Leading Ladies" April 2-4. The Spring UMW Band and Choir Concert concludes the series on April 28 starting at 7:00 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium.

Individual tickets for the plays and the Great Northern concert range from $5 to $15, and school group rates are available. Please contact Series Coordinator Judy Ulrich at 683-7422 or judy.ulrich@umwestern.edu for more information. Montana Western students are admitted free of charge, thanks to additional funding provided by ASUMW and Student Senate.

Reuben and the Devil

By: Bryce Angell

Reuben was a quiet man whose life was cut too short. He met up with the devil and the devil's own cohort. The devil and his helper said, "You'll like your brand-new home." The devil said, "So far my helper's been your lifelong gnome." Well Reuben said, "I didn't think that I had gone awry." The devil laughed, "Your heavenly scales were just a little shy. "You didn't help the Widow Jones. She had six girls, you know. Her car was buried two feet deep, and no one plowed her snow. "You opened up your neighbor's gate and let your cows get in. From heaven's side, I'd have to say, that's probably a sin. "When they passed the plate to you at church, you dropped in two lug nuts. I heard them make a clunking sound. That sure took lots of guts." Reuben said, "I'd like a chance to give life one more shot." The devil said, "You're in my trap. You're here, like it or not." But Reuben was a clever man. He said, "I'll be your voice. You send me home, I'll work on men and make you be their choice." The devil was a gambler and he knew that he could lose. But if Reuben brought more men to him, this would be a deal he'd choose. So, Reuben was a quiet man. He lived a long, full life. He was generous to his neighbors and adored his newfound wife. His funeral was the largest that anyone had seen. The Widow Jones told everyone how he kept her driveway clean. His neighbor said that Reuben kept his gates and fences sound. Reub's offerings were generous when the plate was passed around. Well Reuben hadn't kept his word. He said so with a grin. So is lying to the devil even slightly called a sin? When Reuben reached the Pearly Gates, St. Peter said, "Well done! You beat the devil at his game! He gambled and you won!" So, when you're contemplating if your life is up to snuff. Roll up your sleeves and look around. 'Cuz someone's got it tough.

FWP collecting upland game bird wings in southwest Montana

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks biologists this fall will be collecting wings from hunter-harvested sage-grouse, mountain grouse and Hungarian partridge across southern portions of Region 3.

Biologists will use these wings to identify birds by species and age class—juvenile or adult. This helps biologists monitor juvenile recruitment among upland game bird populations.

Wing collection barrels will be placed in the following locations during the sage-grouse hunting season:

Hook and Horn Mercantile, Wisdom

Sportsmen's Campground along the Big Hole River;

Montana Hwy. 43

Blue Moon Saloon, Divide

Mill Creek Highway at the check station site,

three miles southeast of Anaconda

FWP's office in Dillon

The intersection of Big Sheep and Muddy Creek roads

The intersection of Medicine Lodge and

Horse Prairie Creek roads

Snowline Block Management Area's sign-in box

The intersection of the Ruby River and Sweetwater roads

The Upper Sweetwater Basin Block Management

Area sign-in box

The intersection of Blacktail Deer Creek and Rock Creek roads

Lima Reservoir Dam

The east side of Monida Hill along the South Centennial Road

Near the mouth of Sage Creek

Along the High Road west of Twin Bridges

If hunters intercept a wing collection barrel while traveling from a hunt, please put only one wing from each harvested bird into the barrel. Wings can also be turned into area wildlife biologists or game wardens.

For more information, contact wildlife biologists Dean Waltee (Sheridan), Craig Fager (Dillon) or Vanna Boccadori (Butte) by calling 406-994-4042.
