Montana Western Ranked Among the Best Colleges in America

The University of Montana Western was recently ranked among the "Best Colleges in America" by Money Magazine.

The ranking is based on factors including educational quality, affordability and alumni financial success. The other Montana colleges in the ranking are The University of Montana, Montana State University and Carroll College.

According to the Money Magazine website, the Main Hall at the University of Montana Western.

publication drew "on the research and advice of dozens of the nation's top experts on education quality, financing, and value to develop a uniquely practical analysis of more than 700 of the nation's best-performing colleges."

U.S. News & World Report has also bestowed The University of Montana Western, a public institution founded in 1893, with several impressive rankings in the Western region. The rankings include #8 in Best Regional Colleges, #4 in Top Public Schools, #5 in Best Value Schools, and #6 in Best Colleges for Veterans.

Niche.com has also ranked the University of Montana Western in the top three Montana public universities based on reviews from students. One of the most unique aspects of Montana Western is the Experience One program, an innovative class scheduling system that allows students to focus on a single course at a time.

The fields of academic study at Montana Western include Biology, Business and Technology, Environmental Sciences, Education, English, Equine Studies, Health and Human Performance, Fine Arts, Mathematics, and History, Philosophy, and Social Sciences.

Students at the University of Montana Western enjoy a tight-knit community atmosphere and small class sizes where they work closely with peers and professors alike. Montana Western focuses on serving students, achieving academic excellence, and promoting experiential education. The 20-acre campus is an excellent choice for students to take advantage of the immersive learning opportunities offered by the Experience One program, where they can build on critical and creative thinking skills to prepare for real-world job and graduate school opportunities.

For more information about Experience One and the University of Montana Western, or to schedule a visit, call 877-683-7331 or visit www.umwestern.edu.

HE RUBY VALLEY MEDICAL CENTER & THE RUBY VALLEY HEALTHCARE FOUNDATION

On August 22, 2019 The Ruby Valley Medical Center received official notice from the Montana Department of Transportation that our grant request for a new ambulance was approved. The Ruby Valley Medical Center was one of three organizations in the state of Montana chosen to receive a state-of-the-art Type 1 AD four wheel drive ambulance with power cot/power load system as requested in our application.

The Ruby Valley Healthcare Foundation, Nondi Harrington and Kathy Tetrault, Ruby Valley Medical Center EMS Director, were instrumental in obtaining this award. This is a 90/10 match and the Ruby Valley Healthcare Foundation has secured the 10% match through community fundraising activities and additional grant requests. Our new ambulance should be off the production line and delivered to us as early as May 2020.

Thank you to the Montana Department of Transportation for this incredible grant award. A new ambulance will help us continue to provide quality emergency medical services for all our community members, visitors and the rural communities we serve throughout Southwestern Montana.

A Mad Cow Moose

By: Bryce Angell

Since moving up to Island Park, I've seen game on the loose. There are elk and deer and buffalo. Oh, did I mention moose? We're living in our camper while the builders do their stuff. Last Friday night one hollered, "Well, I think we've done enough." I watched the last truck pull on out. Then tied the makeshift gate. I stood there feeling lonely. It was time to take a break. I had a mighty thirst and thought I'd grab a soda pop. I was heading for the camper faster than a bunny's hop. I rounded out the camper corner. Stopped dead in my tracks. A moose was giving me the eye. I've heard of moose attacks. And standing by the doggone moose a timid week-old calf. I'm sure the moose was thinking that she'd tear me clean in half. I busted out a running. Barely climbed into my truck. Someone was looking over me. 'Twas more than just dumb luck. So, I called my aged father. He would know just what to do. But I heard him laughing. Then he said, "Just try and holler shoo!" And then he said, "If she is mad the hair stands on her hump." I said, "That cow is mad as hell! Her nose was on my rump!" I blew the horn in hopes the noise would scare the moose away. But she blew her nose right back and spewed my window with moose spray. It must have been the panic what my mind would soon recall. My windows did not streak. I'd sprayed em with some ArmorAll! I can't believe how long a moose will stay and stare you down. But she finally wandered off. I bet my underwear was brown. Next day I had to wonder, "Was the incident so bad?" I'd have to say, "Heck yes it was! Next time I won't call Dad!"

Stapleton Announces HAVA Grant Allocations for County Election Offices

Today Secretary of State Corey Stapleton announced the awarding of 2018 HAVA Election Security Grants to Montana's counties. The funds are part of a federal appropriation to update and improve security in elections. A $750,000 subgrant was made available to all Montana counties to share in the replacement of antiquated voting equipment or to supplement current voting equipment. A listing of each county and its subgrant allocation and required county match is attached.

The grants will help counties buy the new ExpressVote voting system, which will be easier to manage for the election judges and a great benefit to voters with disabilities. The 2019 Montana legislature approved use of the new technology at the request of Secretary Stapleton, who worked with disability groups on the legislation.

"This is a big step in the right direction for counties to upgrade election technology that strengthens Montana's election security ahead of 2020," said Stapleton.

Dillon is Character Rich!

Some of our best known residents are actually artists hiding in plain sight. They make their art in private. They rarely share their creations and they have a hard time claiming the title of artist. But, sometimes what they make is too BOLD and beautiful to remain hidden. That is certainly the case with the character we are about to reveal.

dART would like to applaud Karen Zaspel for creating a beautiful body of work for her first solo exhibit, "Solitude is Music and I Dance".

Karen's larger than life pastel faces are featured at the Sweetwater Coffee House for the month of September. Karen's personality-filled art pieces are a perfect addition to this lively gathering spot.

The artsy esthetic of Sweetwater Coffee House is enhanced by their rotating exhibits. And owner/curator Sara's dedication to makers gives the community of Dillon a chance to experience a variety of artistic styles.

Thank you Sara for creating exhibition opportunities and thank you Karen for sharing your talents with our town.

Come celebrate the maker at

"A Night with the Artist" on September 11th from 6:00 to 8:00pm

JAYCEE PARK PICKETS

Jaycee Park Pickets are available again to be engraved with your name or the name of a loved one. If you would like to support the Jaycee Park Renovation with an engraved picket, stop by Womack's Printing 126 N. Montana St. and pick up a form. The cost is $50 per picket and can have approximately 25 letters. The other option available is to engrave the back of one of the benches in the playground. The cost to have your own personal bench back engraved is $1,000. If you enjoy the park or just like watching others enjoying the park and would like to be part of keeping up the park, you can donate to Friends of Jaycee Park and bring a check to Womack's Printing, The Bank of Commerce, Erin Hughes, Cindy Wood, Judy Siring at Farmers Union Ins. or Taylor Realty.

New General Surgeon Joins Barrett Hospital & HealthCare

Dillon, MT., September 04, 2019 – Barrett Hospital & HealthCare announces that Nicholas Fromm, MD, will be joining the General Surgery Department.

"Dr. Fromm is an asset to our community. His overall surgical expertise and patient-oriented manner are an ideal match for the general surgery department," said Greg Moore, MD, FACEP, FAWM, Chief Medical Officer of Barrett Hospital & HealthCare. "Having a general surgeon on staff increases patient access to services and aids the entire medical team at Barrett in its goal of providing a continuum of care."

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare General Surgery offers patients the evaluation and treatment of hernias, gallstones, breast issues, colonoscopies and endoscopies, using minimally invasive surgery when indicated. In addition, General Surgery provides emergency department coverage and trauma surgery, and other general surgical procedures.

"I'm thrilled to bring surgical services to Beaverhead and Madison Counties, so community members have access to convenient local solutions to their healthcare needs," says Dr. Fromm.

Prior to coming to Barrett Hospital & HealthCare, Dr. Fromm completed his General Surgery Residency at Oregon Health & Science University in Portland, Oregon. Dr. Fromm's educational background includes undergraduate work in chemistry at South Dakota School of Mines & Technology and medical school at the Sanford School of Medicine at University of South Dakota in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Dr. Fromm was awarded "Trauma Resident of the Year," Legacy Emanuel Medical Center, Portland, Oregon in 2017 and he is a member of the American College of Surgeons. In his spare time, Dr. Fromm can be found enjoying many outdoor activities including skiing, hiking, camping, and fly fishing.

Dr. Fromm's appointment to Barrett Hospital & HealthCare coincides with the recent retirement of Shafi Shafaieh, MD, who practiced general surgery at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare for thirty-six years. Dr. Fromm will begin seeing patients for surgery on October 01, 2019.

ABOUT BARRETT HOSPITAL & HEALTHCARE

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is a non-profit Critical Access Hospital (CAH) and medical clinic provider in Dillon, Montana. Critical access hospitals make up approximately twenty-five percent of hospitals in the United States; there are over 1300 in the nation, with 50 critical access hospitals in Montana. They are, by definition, at least 35 miles from another hospital and have no more than 25 acute care beds at any given time with most hospitals being located in rural areas. Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is a four-time recipient for being a Top 20 Critical Access Hospital of the 20 highest ranked Critical Access Hospitals (CAHs) in the nation by National Rural Health Association (NRHA).
