The crowd at the rodeo and concert hit record numbers

The Dustin Lynch concert was the last event Sunday night, and the crowd seemed to just keep growing as the night went on. Some say it is the quality of performers, some think it was the great evening weather. Whatever the reason, it was certain that the crowd was large and the concession stands were very busy.

The rodeo had world title cowboys and cowgirls competing for the prize money. The Wild Horse Race started out the rodeos with the Max Hansen team of Mudd Walker, Nickolas Lorenson, and Talon Waker from Toppenish, Washington winning the average for the two performances. Jerricho Brockle from Twin Bridges was crowned with the Sportsmanship award for the event.

Dillon is Character Rich!

Some of our best known residents are actually artists hiding in plain sight. They make their art in private. They rarely share their creations and they have a hard time claiming the title of artist. But, sometimes what they make is too BOLD and beautiful to remain hidden. That is certainly the case with the character we are about to reveal.

dART would like to applaud Karen Zaspel for creating a beautiful body of work for her first solo exhibit, "Solitude is Music and I Dance".

Karen's larger than life pastel faces are featured at the Sweetwater Coffee House for the month of September. Karen's personality-filled art pieces are a perfect addition to this lively gathering spot.

The artsy esthetic of Sweetwater Coffee House is enhanced by their rotating exhibits. And owner/curator Sara's dedication to makers gives the community of Dillon a chance to experience a variety of artistic styles.

Thank you Sara for creating exhibition opportunities and thank you Karen for sharing your talents with our town.

Come celebrate the maker at

"A Night with the Artist" on September 11th from 6:00 to 8:00pm

ODONTOID PROCESS

By "Swede" Troedsson

For a few years, while on the Bridger Bowl Ski Patrol, I would take a week of annual leave from my job with the Forest Service in Dillon, and patrol the Junior National Ski Meet in Bozeman. Ski racers from all over the country would participate.

The last year I worked the race, the ski hill was "boiler plate" hard. There was one bump in the course, below the midway lift station, that was wiping out many of the racers. The ski coaches from back east thought the course was great. The coaches from the west hated it, and were trying to get the course changed.

One morning I was riding up the ski lift and observed a group of skiers gathered around a fallen racer below the treacherous bump. I got off the lift at midway, grabbed an alpine rescue toboggan and proceeded down to the fallen racer. (The alpine was a surplus military fiberglass toboggan, with attached canvas covers. It was retro-fitted with handles, rear aluminum fins to prevent side slipping, and a thick rope rough lock or brake). Inside the akia was blankets, splints, and other first aid equipment.

When I arrived at the scene, I found out the racer was from Anchorage, AK. He told me that when he shot off the bump, he rotated over onto his back, and his back and head slammed on to the hard pack. I performed a quick patient exam. He felt that the main source of his pain was from a shoulder he had injured in a practice run in Anchorage. When he informed me he had tingling in his fingers, that set off alarm bells. I thought "Oh, Oh, cervical spine"

I left the racer's helmet on, and carefully immobilized him in the akia with blankets wedged all around. I sent another patrolman to the bottom of the hill to arrange for a station wagon. I felt time was of the essence because his condition could deteriorate any time.

Choosing the smoothest route, I carefully transported him down the hill. The race physician met me at the bottom, and asked what I thought we had. I told him "C-spine" and pointed to a station wagon backing up to the patrol shack. I proposed to the physician not to wait for an ambulance from Bozeman, but to remove the akia handles and slide the whole works into the station wagon. I thought it best to accompany the racer to the hospital in Bozeman. The physician agreed, and we loaded the racer into the station wagon and proceeded slowly into Bozeman.

At the hospital ER the ER Physician and I discussed the circumstances surrounding the accident, and the symptoms I had observed. I also suggested that they could x-ray the patient's spine through the fiber glass akia before they removed him from the toboggan. By the time I returned to the ski hill the race course had been changed.

The next weekend our patrol Medical Advisor informed me that the racer had a fractured odontoid process. (The odontoid process sits on top of the cervical spine and is the "peg" that the skull swivels on. If it picks the brain stem, it's "lights out") The attending surgeon told our medical advisor that he had been presented with three patients with a fractured odontoid process, and this was the only one to have survived.

I suspect I may have saved that boy's quality of life that day. He had to spend six weeks in a Stryker frame in Bozeman. Attempts were made to transfer him to Anchorage. But after measuring the doors on a Boeing 727, it was determined that the Stryker frame would not fit.

VFW Scholarship Raffle 2019 a Great Success

The drawing for the winners of the annual VFW Post 9040 Scholarship Raffle took place on Saturday, August, 31, at the Beaverhead County Fairgrounds. Sheridan Ferguson and Kena Sampson, 6th graders at Parkview Middle School, and members of the Horse Prairie Hayshakers 4H Club, drew the 10 winning tickets. Raffle winners were Richard Hauck, Jim Hagenbarth, Claryl Haggard, Brittney Hatfield, Meg Smith, John McGee, Joanie Montgomery, Rose Gray, Paddy Kehrer, and Phil Ralston.

VFW Post members would like to give a special thanks to all of the area businesses, Bitterroot Trading Post, Brian Mussard/Reminisce Angus Ranch, Standard Lumber/Ace Hardware, Murdoch's Ranch and Home Supply, R.E. Miller & Sons, Van's IGA, and Triple Crown Nutrition, Inc, for their generous donations of prizes. The VFW would also like to thank all of the individuals in the community who bought tickets for the raffle, and made this our most successful scholarship raffle to date. Your support will allow us to continue to provide scholarships to two graduating seniors from Beaverhead County High School, awards to outstanding graduates from the Montana Youth Challenge Program, and the various other programs in the local schools that we are involved in. We hope that everyone will continue to support this event in the future, and wish you better luck next year.

GONE SQUATCHIN'

2ND ANNUAL BigFoot HUNT
CLARKSTON Fire Service Area #6
2019

We are hosting our 2nd annual Bigfoot hunt at Headwaters Ranch, for a great cause! Clarkston Fire Service Area #6 is seeking donations for upgraded gear and equipment. The Clarkston Volunteer Fire Department has a capable team of dedicated volunteer firefighters and EMT's that have answered whenever called upon. They face unique challenges in that the nature of calls in Clarkston can include medical emergencies, structure fires, wild land fires, vehicle accidents and sometimes, a combination of different exposures. Clarkston has been experiencing growth similar to that of the rest of the Gallatin Valley and as the community continues to grow, Clarkston Fire needs to be able to grow with it. In order to more effectively handle any increased demand on the department, donations could be used for upgrades to EMS equipment, safety gear, communications, training opportunities, and fire engines. Last year's hunt had over 500 people in attendance and raised over $16,000! With that money, the fire department was able to pay for the services of a radio technician who was able to correct tuning issues, upgrade or change antennas, and identify issues with the equipment already in inventory. Four new handheld radios were purchased and, at the technician's advice, all the batteries on the existing radios were replaced. After all of the repairs, tuning, and replacement radios, there was enough money left for the department to purchase much needed rescue lights and helmet lights for each firefighter. All of which was only possible because of donors like you.

WHAT: A Bigfoot "Hunt"! (Whoever finds him 1st wins a prize!)

WHEN: Saturday, September 7th, 2019 from 5-11pm

WHERE: Headwaters Ranch located at 9700 Clarkston Road, Three Forks, MT. Once you reach the ranch, please follow the signs round back to the round barn.
