FATALITY NEAR WISDOM

William Johnson Clark, 82 from Victor, Montana was identified by the Beaverhead County coroner as the man killed near Wisdom Monday afternoon on Highway 278.

The Montana Highway Patrol said Mr. Clark was behind the wheel of a Ford 350 pickup that was parked on the side of the road when it was struck by a GMC Sierra pickup going south.

The passenger in the Ford truck was an 81 year old woman from Victor who was taken to Barrett Hospital as well as the 70 year old woman who was driving the GMC. Their injuries were not considered to be life threatening.

Blacktail Pharmacy NOW OPEN

The new Blacktail Pharmacy has opened at 125 E. Glendale in Dillon. The pharmacy opened to the public on Monday, Sept. 9.

The CHC made plans to open a new pharmacy in the town when two of the area's pharmacies shut their doors earlier this year by purchasing the building which formerly housed the Shopko pharmacy.

Hours for the new pharmacy are Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The phone number is (406) 988-0772.

Browning Cowboy Dougie Hall Rides with Perseverance, Character and Hope

This story, by Tom Wylie, was orginally published by Montana Sports and the complete store can be found on MontanaSports.com.

Hall graduated in 2016 from the University of Montana Western with a degree in Natural Horsemanship and Business Administration. During his time at UMW, Hall qualified for the College National Finals Rodeo and has since become a regular name on the Montana rodeo circuit.

BROWNING — The horse holds an important place in Blackfeet culture.

And horses are front and center in the life of Browning bronc rider Dougie Hall – whose Blackfeet name translates to "Crazy After Horses".

Whether he's riding horses or raising horses, Hall finds peace in the animals.

"I've been around horses my whole life. Growing up when I was small, my dad and uncle had an Indian relay team and so I was an Indian relay brat growing up," said the 26-year-old. "We traveled to every fair in Montana and I would live off of funnel cakes. My life was sugar and fast horses."

Hall has turned spending time with horses into a labor of love. He started bronc riding in high school, qualified for the College National Finals at Montana Western and has since become one of the most popular cowboys on the Montana circuit.

Hall is hard to miss. His distinctive braid whips around the arena as the horse bucks underneath him. And when the eight seconds are up, the cowboy has earned the nickname "Dancin'" Dougie Hall.

After every successful ride, he lets out a war whoop and does his signature "Indian Dance" to the delight of crowds around Montana.

"Some people probably think I'm doing it to show off, but I'm just having fun. That's why I started doing it in the first place," Hall explained. "Bronc riding didn't click with me at first, so when I first figured out how to ride broncs, I'd jump off and I'd be so happy. I just couldn't stop my feet from moving."

His eyes lit up.

"And you make people smile and laugh and that's a good medicine. Probably the best medicine there is," he said.

Hall rides with joy in his heart, but he has experienced his share of pain. And he doesn't shy away from telling his story.

"See, in my family there's there's a lot of problems with addiction, alcoholism," Hall said. "When I was a little kid, I saw the effects of alcoholism and I never saw anything good come from it."

Tears began to well in his eyes.

"I've had a lot of family killed alcohol related, too many people. And so growing up my mom (Susan Hall) was a registered nurse and she didn't drink. And when I was a little kid, I remember she made me promise her that I would never touch a drop alcohol in my life. And I promised her I wouldn't," Hall said.

Even though the Hall family abstained from alcohol, the effects of alcohol found them on June 5, 2007.

Dougie was 14 at the time and he remembers every minute detail of that night to this day.

"I remember the day it happened, we had a good dinner and it was just a perfect evening, just a nice evening like this," Hall recalled from his home in the picturesque Rocky Mountain front. "And we had dinner and we were smiling and laughing. I was getting in trouble because I was teasing my sister and just being a little brother."

He paused before continuing: "We start for home and we're coming towards Browning on Highway 2. And my mom's laughing and singing to the radio, just enjoying life. I even remember the song she was singing. And all of a sudden, my sister I remember hearing her yell, 'No.' And our truck swerved. So I peek around the front seat and I see a pair of headlights coming at us, and they're close."

Hall says he remembers a million thoughts running through his head in that moment.

"There was nothing I could do," he said. "That's the most helpless I've ever felt."

He tucked himself behind his father's seat and braced for impact. The crash was violent. Hall blacked out for a few moments.

"I remember coming to and hearing the hissing of the engines," he said. "And I'm trying to get my bearings and I finally realize what had happened."

Aside from internal bruising, Hall was unharmed. But he gasped when he looked at his family.

"I looked in the front seat and I see my dad, my older sister and my mother all laying over airbags and — I'll never forget this — they were all blowing bubbles in their own blood on them airbags," he said. "I just started screaming at them, 'I love you guys. I love you,' just telling them all that I loved them. I was most concerned about my mom for some reason. It's almost like I knew something was wrong."

The driver of the other vehicle was drunk. The Hall family was flown to Seattle with severe injuries. Doug's father Cliff suffered a compound leg fracture, and his sister would eventually recover.

But his mother, Susan, was on life support. Nurses told Hall that her injuries were not survivable.

"I didn't know what to do. And so I walked up to her and told her, 'Mom, I love you very much and you're the best mother in the whole world. And thank you for being my mom.' And I just kept telling her that I loved her," Hall said. "And I got stern with her. I raised my voice and said, 'But one thing I'm not going to tell you is good bye, because there's no such thing. I love you. I'll see you later.'"

Dougie kissed his mother. Then her spirit left her body.

Not saying goodbye to his mother was prophetic. She lives on in Dougie's heart and guides him every day, at every rodeo and on every bronc ride.

Including his first-ever PRCA win earlier this year in Kalispell.

Council & Hearing on City Fee's Ordinance August 7th

By MJ

Present: Council members, Don Hand, Matt Kenworthy, Russell Schwandt, Dan Nye, Bill Shafer, Raymond Graham, Mary Jo O'Rourke, Cliff Stout and City Staff.

A draft ordinance for fees to be charged by the city for transient business, {businesses setting up shop along the roadside and moving in and out of the area} was presented. The draft originated via the Judiciary Committee existing of three (3) council members. The committee voted to approve the document and sent it to the council for their approval.

A public member that owned a transient business stated she was not aware of the document. She suggested that the city needed to use new technology like Facebook to communicate with the public for notification of meetings and agendas. She went onto say that her generation did not read the papers, did not read bulletins or listen to the radio. Question: Where does Facebook get the information posted? Is it someone's opinions or is it factual material? Notes: The city does have a detailed web site that is maintained and updated continually.

A range of public comments was presented to the council. The suggestions varied from; for & against document; clarification suggestions using word changes; results of public members speaking with city personnel, who will pay which fee; where the business can operate and set up; what information will be required on the application…

It is so nice to see the public come to meetings and participating. Taxpayers provide the dollars that support the city coffers. Remember it is the taxpayers and local businesses that have the boots on the ground and backup the community. Their ideas and other information (good, bad or indifferent) brought to the table are invaluable. When making law the actual and factual information is a necessity.

NOTE: Criticism is hard for humans to accept however; disapproval opens up dialog that will require communication to resolve issue, ultimately providing a better product. Not an easy task to sit across a table from someone who has just put a red "x" on your work and have a conversation with that person.

The Council voted to sent the document back to the Judiciary Committee. If you are interested in participating at the Judiciary Committee meeting check with the city for meeting date or get in touch with councilperson representing your ward.

skiers, so renters do not have exclusive use of the facilities and are expected to act in a welcoming manner. The upstairs sleeping area can be closed off to provide limited privacy during the day. Pets are not allowed at the cabin or on the trails. Visitors, volunteers and overnight guests must bring their own drinking water and are encouraged to share the large snow-melting pot for boiling water.

The cabin is located approximately ½ mile from the Chief Joseph Pass parking area/trailhead on Montana State Highway 43, 10 miles south of Sula, MT and 25 miles west of Wisdom, MT. Access to the cabin is an easy ½ mile snowshoe or ski on well groomed trails. The Chief Joseph Cross-country Ski Trail system encompasses over 30 miles (48 kilometers) of groomed trails of various difficulty. The trails are groomed and maintained throughout the ski season by a partnership between the Bitterroot Cross Country Ski Club, Lost Trail Powder Mountain ski area, the Forest Service, and the State of Montana. ## Volunteers Sought to Host at Popular Gordon Reese Cabin

The Forest Service is looking for winter recreation enthusiasts to volunteer at the Gordon Reese Cabin located at the Chief Joseph Cross Country Ski area this winter.

Volunteers are welcome to assist in maintaining this popular facility throughout the winter season. Each Tuesday and Friday during the ski season is set aside for volunteers to serve as Forest Service cabin hosts, helping maintain the cabin and trailhead facilities during the day and staying overnight for free. It is not necessary for volunteers to stay in the cabin through the entire day. Volunteers and their guests are encouraged to enjoy and explore the trails and surrounding winterscape. The Forest Service asks that volunteers occasionally return to the cabin to tend the woodstove fire, ensure snow is melting for hot water, and make the cabin clean and comfortable for visitors to use as a warming shelter during the day.

General volunteer host duties include: meeting and greeting the public; answering visitor questions; shoveling paths leading to both outhouses at the cabin and the trailhead; clearing snow from the deck and doors; stocking and cleaning the cabin and both outhouses; restocking firewood from the basement to the main floor and tending the woodstove fire.

To volunteer at the Gordon Reese Cabin, call the Wisdom Ranger District office at (406) 689-3371 beginning Monday, November 4, 2019 at 8 a.m. MST. Due to the popularity of the cabin volunteer program, this will be the only phone number available for volunteers to sign-up.

The Gordon Reese Cabin is available to the general public to rent from December 1 through April 15. Reservations are $10 per day and can be made on-line beginning Monday, November 4, 2019 at 8 a.m. MST at www.recreation.gov, or by calling (877) 444-6777. Cancellations are also handled through www.recreation.gov. However, due to the popularity of renting the cabin, last minute reservations and cancellations may be filled by contacting the Wisdom Ranger District office at (406) 689-3243.

As with other rental cabins, renters are responsible for cleaning the cabin, and packing out everything they pack in. During the day, the cabin is available as a warming hut to cross-country
