Kiel's Konnection brings Dr. Alan Wolfelt to Butte for Suicide Grief workshop, September 26 and 27

Exploring Misconceptions of Suicide and Grief

Sponsor: Kiel's Konnection

Date: September 26, 2019

Time: 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm

Purpose: This evening program will dispel misconceptions about suicide and grief. You will be able to make use of some important insights that will help you open your heart to your own grief and those you wish to bring support and comfort. This compassionate program, presented by one of North America's leading death educators, will help you understand the normal and necessary journey thorough suicide grief.

Why This Workshop: As you probably know, a misconception is a mistaken notion that you might have about something - in other words, something you believe to be true but that is not true. Misconceptions about grief are common in our society because we tend not to openly mourn or talk about grief and mourning. You can see how we would have misconceptions that need to be dispelled surrounding suicide grief.

Who Should Attend: This evening program will help anyone who wants to learn more about their own grief, as well as, how to support suicide survivors. Anyone, from lay persons to professional caregivers will benefit from attending this program. Make your reservation right now.

About the Presenter: Dr. Alan Wolfelt is a noted author, educator, and grief counselor. Recipient of the Association for Death Education and Counseling's Death Educator Award, he serves as the Director of the Center for Loss and Life Transition (www.centerforloss.com) in Fort Collins, CO. He is also a faculty member of the University of Colorado Medical School's Department of Family Medicine.

Dr. Wolfelt is the best-selling author of more than fifty books including Loving From the Outside In, Mourning From the Inside Out, Understanding Your Suicide Grief, The Journey Through Grief, Companioning the Bereaved: A Soulful Guide for Caregivers, Healing a Spouse's Grieving Heart, Companioning the Grieving Child, Healing a Parent's Grieving Heart, and Creating Meaningful Funeral Ceremonies.

Dr. Wolfelt and his wife, Susan, a family physician, are parents to three children. They live in the foothills of the beautiful Rocky Mountains next door to the Center for Loss and Life Transition.

Kiel's Konnection is a non-profit organization that was created in loving memory of Kiel Podgorski. This organization shares a passion for changing the language of mental health.

Kiel's Konnection is a safe place to share your story and realize you're not alone. A place that will assist you in finding the support you need to help yourself or help a loved one.

Rob and Halladay Quist with Great Northern Band to Perform at UMW

As part of the 2019-20 Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series, the University of Montana Western's Fine Arts Department is pleased to announce that Rob Quist & The Great Northern Band with Halladay Quist will share their original country and bluegrass songs on Tuesday, Sept. 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the Beier Auditorium.

Halladay Quist released her first CD, titled "In the Sun." As a songwriter, she has composed many songs on her CD and has a new piece recorded by Phil Vassar, an American country music artist. Quist is recognized as an up and coming artist who has received enthusiastic responses from concert audiences throughout Europe and the West.

Rob Quist is lead singer and songwriter of several bands, including Mission Mountain Wood Band, The Montana Band, and Rob Quist & Great Northern. His ode to rural living, titled "Close to the Land," was recorded by Michael Martin Murphey. It was recently awarded "Song of the Year" at the Texas Music Awards, and was also featured on the Grammy nominated bluegrass album by Murphey. Quist has had the opportunity to tour in Japan, Europe and the United States, while producing many CDs. He is also a published poet and was recently inducted into the University of Montana School of Fine Arts Hall of Honors.

The band promises stellar lead vocals and a three part harmony followed by world class instrumentals featuring Leif Christian on lead guitar and Valley Lopez on drums.

The performers will also hold a free teaser concert on Montana Western's Legacy Plaza at 3:15 pm the same day.

Tickets are $15 for adults, $8 for seniors and youth, and free for Montana Western students. For more information, please email judy.ulrich@umwestern.edu or call (406) 683-7422.

SW MT Veteran's Home Update #1

By Mike Lawson

(This is an shorten version of Mike's first article to give background of project)
June 7, 2018

Greetings to the veterans/communities of the 6 counties in SW Montana who organized and are part of our "Southwest Montana Veteran's Home" presently being built here in Butte, Montana. The purpose of this weekly article is to keep you updated as to the progress of the construction of this long awaited project.

This Vet's Home Project has been an uphill battle for the past 10 years for many of us. Bob Pavlovich started to work on this at least 20 years ago as a Legislator in Helena. He worked a deal with the Eastern Montana folks to build a Vets home there if they would than support building a Vet Home in SW Montana. They got their Vet Home in Glendive, Mt., and have since supported us getting our SW Montana Veterans Home. The long battle started after approval from the Montana Legislature and the VA., with the Montana being responsible for 1/3 of the 15 million dollar projected cost (Tobacco Tax money) and 2/3's from the VA. The State money was raised and we thought construction would quickly be forthcoming but than we found out that being on the VA's Priority List entitled larger populated area's and emergency type remodeling, projects to leapfrog in front of our rural state status. Meanwhile our Sen Jon Tester, who was the ranking member on the Veteran's Committee in the US Senate worked on a Bipartisan front to write and pass Bills to overcome this Leapfrogging of bigger populated areas shutting us down. He hit a number of brick walls but kept trying and got Legislation passed to make the dream of SW MT Veteran's Home become a reality.

The "SWMT Veteran's Home Foundation" has been formed, Incorporated/Registered, and is applying for a 501(c)3. Their Mission Statement is "To ensure the Southwest Montana Veteran's Home has everything that the Residential Veterans need to make it a "Home" for them".

Two Trustees and an alternate from each of the 6 SW Montana Counties, involved in the creation of our Veteran's Rest home, are chosen by their fellow Veterans in that county. Chairman: Tom Straugh -Beaverhead County.

It's finally a long awaited reality in seeing the Contractors on site preparation and seeing footings for the Community Building foundation walls being formed and poured. Markovich Construction are the General Contractors with Mike Zimlack Construction doing the excavation. Cory Markovich is the Project Manager with Mike Aschman being the Project Construction Superintendent. Cory and Mike have been very friendly and accommodating to us the Veterans. We asked if a viewing area could be prepared for veterans and visitors to watch the construction throughout the building process of 18 months or so.

Hoot owl restriction lifted on lower Big Hole River

A daily closure on an 18-mile stretch of the lower Big Hole River has been lifted due to cooler water temperatures.

A hoot owl restriction was put in place on Aug. 8 due to a seasonal rise in water temperatures. The closure applied from Notch Bottom Fishing Access Site to the confluence with the Beaverhead River. Hoot owl restrictions prohibit fishing each day between 2 p.m. and midnight.

A qualifying condition for reopening this area was met on Sept. 11, when water temperatures were below 70 degrees for three consecutive days. Restrictions of this nature are enacted to protect fish species like Arctic grayling, rainbow trout and brown trout, which all become more susceptible to disease and mortality when conditions like low flows and high temperatures combine with additional stressors.

TRAPPER in TROUBLE

By "Swede" Troedsson

On the morning of March 2nd., 1977, some Search & Rescue personnel, including Marty Malesich, our former Mayor, and myself, were called out to rescue an injured trapper in Gorge Cr. in the East Pioneer Mountains.

Nels Nygren, who owned the Argenta Sawmill, had been running his trap line in Gorge Creek with his son Allen. A culvert under the Gorge Creek road had frozen up, and the water from the creek overflowed onto the road and froze. Nels stepped on the ice. His feet went out from under him, and he fell and broke his hip. Allen, who was only fourteen at the time, built a fire for his Dad, and piled some extra firewood nearby. Then Allen jumped in his Dad's truck and drove to the Jim Marchesseau Ranch in Birch Creek to seek help.

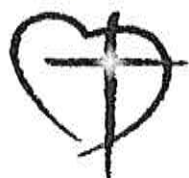

We arrived at the accident site later that morning. The fire was out, Nels having used up the firewood. Nels was beyond shivering, but alive, wondering how we were going to pick him up with his broken hip.

Just the previous week I purchased the first scoop stretcher in Dillon. Nels was the first patient on it! The lift went smoothly, and we evacuated Nels to the hospital in Dillon, arriving in the early afternoon.

Later local Game Warden Sarge Hoem told me Nels, prior to his accident, had trapped a wolverine around Tendoy Lake in the East Pioneer Mountains. Sarge had purchased the pelt and I saw it hanging on his living room wall.

At a later date, I happened to meet Nels' grandson Jeremia. Jeremia told me that prior to his accident, Nels had set some bobcat traps around Tendoy Lake. When he went to check his traps, he had caught a lynx by one foot. A wolverine heard the ruckus, and came down to snack on the lynx. The wolverine also set off a trap, and was caught by one foot, within reach of the lynx. I suspect each critter was blaming the other for its' grief and they decided to duke it out right then and there. When Nels arrived, the lynx was dead, and the wolverine was almost dead. The pelts weren't worth much. There was fur all over the snow.

Bible Truth...About God's hatred for sin

Statement of belief: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God..." (2 Timothy 3:16-17), thus all beliefs in conflict with the scripture, God's holy word, are false.

God's attitude toward sin can only be understood if one understands His definition of sin. That definition is clearly stated in 1 John 3:4b, "...for sin is the transgression [breaking] of the law." "The law" referred to is God's law, which in many cases is much different than the law of man.

An excellent example of how Jesus viewed sin is in John 8:1-11. On this occasion the Jews brought an adulterous woman to Jesus and asked Him if He thought she should be stoned, which was the penalty for this sin under Moses' Law. The goal of these hypocrites wasn't to be sure the woman got the punishment required by the law, but to trap Jesus' into making a mistake so they could accuse Him of some crime. He ignored them at first and stooped down to write something in the dust. When they persisted in questioning Him, He stood and stated, "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her," then stooped down and once again wrote on the ground.

The Jews, being convicted of their wrong attitude, left the scene without taking any more action. Jesus then stood and asked the woman if any man had condemned her. The woman said, "No man, Lord", after which Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more."

Two critical points are made by Jesus in this passage: First, every man is a sinner in need of love and forgiveness, therefore, while standing firmly against the sin, one should be less judgmental toward the sinner. Secondly, God condemns sin and one should trust in Christ as the Savior & Lord as the woman did, after which our sinful lifestyle should be corrected.

God doesn't approve of immoral conduct. Intimate relationships outside the bonds of marriage [between a natural born man and natural born woman] are condemned as seen in Hebrews 13:4. Christian's are accused of having no love if they speak against perverted life-styles, but the fact is, genuine love means they love God, therefore they CANNOT condone what God's word reveals to be sin.
