There will be a gathering of friends at Barrett Park on Saturday, Sept. 28, at 2 p.m.

3rd Annual Big Sky Behavioral Health Summit

This regional mental health conference is designed for mental health providers, primary care providers, educators, law enforcement officials, and other community stakeholders. This year's event features a keynote address by U.S. Army Veteran, Retired California Highway Patrol Sergeant, and Suicide Prevention expert, Kevin Briggs.

On October 3-4, 2019, the Beaverhead County Mental Health Local Advisory Council (LAC), in cooperation with the Madison County LAC, will be hosting the 3rd Annual Big Sky Behavioral Health Summit. The focus of this year's summit will be growing your trauma responsive tool box and will once again include a nationally-renowned panel of presenters. The summit consists of two full days of presentation including interactive tool kit workshops and a lunch and learn panel discussion on day two.

Trauma responsive care is a community-based approach to childcare that involves a broad understanding of the impact of toxic stress and trauma on the brains of children. It is believed that such an approach can help to more effectively treat and avoid severe mental health issues, lower school suspensions, enhance resilience, avoid future medical issues, and reduce the rates of suicide and criminal behavior.

Perhaps the highlight of the event will be the keynote address to be delivered by Kevin Briggs. Sgt. Briggs retired from the CHP in November 2013 to promote Crisis Management, Leadership Skills, and Suicide Intervention/ Prevention worldwide. He continues speaking and teaching at conferences and law enforcement events, as well as consulting and advising major corporations. The summit will also include nationally renowned Ijeoma Achara from her Chicago-based Achara Consulting and Bucknell University Professor Judith Grisel who is the author of recent New York Times Best Seller Never Enough: The Neuroscience and Experience of Addiction.

In addition to Brigg, Achara and Grisel, the summit welcomes a slate of Montana behavioral health experts who will present a variety interactive workshops designed for attendees to collect tools they may use when they are face-to-face with clients who have experienced trauma. Of note is a presentation about community suicide prevention efforts by Montana State Suicide Prevention Coordinator Karl Rosston. Also from Montana the summit will feature One Montana Mental Health Education Outreach Director Dr. William R. Bryan, Montana State University professors Dr. Benjamin Oosterhoff and Dr. Mark Schure. Also featured will be Tumbleweed Runaway Program's Domestic Victims of Human Trafficking Program Coordinator Georgia Cady.

Summit programming will resonate with a broad range of professionals, including mental health providers, addiction care providers, primary care providers, all medical staff, law enforcement officials, and public service/elected officials. All are welcome and we encourage community members to attend who would like to become more trauma informed and enhance their insight regarding mental health issues.

The cost of the two-day summit is $150 and 13.0 Idaho and Montana CE's will be available at no extra cost. 13.0 OPI Renewal Units will also be available for Montana teachers at no extra cost. Additionally, one undergraduate EDU credit will be available through the Montana Western School of Outreach at an additional cost of $115. Registration and payment for the single credit will take place on site the morning of day one check-in. Summit registration and information, including the summit schedule, can be found at: https://www.eventbrite.com/e/big-sky-behavioral-health-summit-tickets-59786765826. Time: 4 pm

Beaverhead Trails Coalition is partnering with the Dillon Library on October 26th to raise funds for both our organizations and organize a fun event for the community.

If you are in town, help us be successful by participating to the 5k or the 1 mile run, or volunteer for the event and help us recruit more people.

5k Cost
$20 Under 12
$35 12-Adult

1-Mile Cost
$10 All Ages

More information and registration on the event webpage: https://runsignup.com/Race/MT/Dillon/DillonZombieChase

We will need a lot of volunteers:

* 2-3 Volunteers to host an aid-station table (we need 5 aid stations along the course = 10-15 volunteers total for this task). Each aid station will have a table, a tent/canopy, water jugs or lemonade, and a first aid kit (let us know if you can provide any of the material). If you can host a table, please bring your organization's banner. Each organization hosting a table will be counted as a sponsor (name on T-shirt).

* 10 Safety volunteers to make sure runners and traffic don't impede on each other (some streets will be closed to traffic, the race crosses the railroad twice, high-visibility vest needed).

* A few volunteers could come early and help dress-up/put make up on the zombies (College kids).

* If you really want, you can always volunteer to be a zombie yourself... :-)

THOMAS CO. JEWELRY ROBBERY

A male individual was arrested in Watertown South Dakota in relation to similar jewelry store thefts as we had here in Dillon at The Thomas Co. Jewelers. He is currently being held on $50,000 cash bond in their jail.

Officer Ternes and Detectives from several cities in Montana have been working closely comparing similar thefts. Officer Ternes, Horrocks, and Pedersen all worked on the case and have involved the Montana crime lab in an attempt to either prove, or exonerate the suspect held in South Dakota.

I am confident in the officers' investigation and believe the individual held in South Dakota is a viable suspect. We will keep the community informed of our progress.

I must commend officers for following up on all leads and not giving up on the investigation. They reached out to several other agencies to see if they had similar cases and were diligent in their efforts. Without their initiative the current suspect would have never been tied to the Montana cases.
