Ann Reynolds, 75

Ann Reynolds, 75 years old, born July 10, 1944 in Whitehall, Montana, spent her last day with the same humor she exhibited all her life. Her caring, humor and spirit is proven by the many, many friends she left behind and by the family who now mourn her passing.

Pony, Montana is where her spirit thrived. A place that fed her energy for canning, hand-quilting, doll collecting and travel, all intended as gifts, as sharing, her way of demonstrating that she cared for family, cherished friendships and thought kindly of those she did not know well.

Ann is preceded by her first husband, Dennis DeFrance, Jan Philips, JoAnne Philips and parents Fred and Helen Philips.

She is survived by husband Harvey Reynolds, Dillon, brother Joe Philips (Debbie Philips), Pony, daughter Lisa DeFrance (Steve Creson), Salt Lake City, sons, Travis Reynolds (Melinda) & Gary DeFrance (Leanne), Harrison, Montana. And by Inez Reynolds, Grandmother, Joe Reynolds & Dave Reynolds (Mary Pat), brothers-in-law, and six grandchildren, Taya, Derik, Aaron, Fern, Riley, Madison, numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. All beneficiaries of her generosity and love.

One of Ann's bigger accomplishments is her more than two decades driving the seniors' bus for the city of Dillon. Through her dedication and grant writing she was able to help the program grow and become sustainable. Every year each senior was given an assortment of homemade jellies.

Probably her biggest joy was sharing in the accomplishments of her grandchildren—she took them on trips, never missed a ball game, recital, concert, or academic accomplishment.

Since retiring in 2013 she and her husband traveled the West and Southwest visiting friends they'd made over the years. "As long as you've got your health you have to do things, I'm not gonna be bored, I can tell you that." She will be missed.

Burial and funeral are Monday, October 7, 10.30 am.

Take Me Home - The Music of John Denver

The Dillon Concert Association presents Take Me Home

— The Music of John Denver on Tuesday, October 15, 2019. This show will be held at UM-Western Beier Auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Jim Curry sings a tribute to the music in a way that has to be seen and heard to understand the pure honesty of his amazing performance. His looks and voice are simply a pleasant coincidence that captures the true essence of John Denver's music. Curry's heartfelt delivery rolls out into the crowd as multi-platinum hits such as "Rocky Mountain High," "Annie's Song," and "Calypso" fill the room.

This live performance is supported by season sponsors John A. and Elizabeth Garry and Gary and Kerstin Lorenzen. The event sponsor is Ruby Harvey. Co-sponsors are McIsaac Appraisals, Sandy Jennings, and Steve Armiger.

Dillon Concert Association membership grants admission into all 2019-20 performances. Single event tickets will be sold at the door: adults $20; college $10; student/youth $6.

For further information contact Laurie Hagenbarth, President of the Concert Association, at 683-5050.

Zitzer, and Cory Birkenbuel held their first event in May 2018, which featured a full and half marathon that explored the Dillon area. The marathon was established to fund a scholarship for student cross country athletes and continues to be an annual event.

Marathon founder and UMW men's and women's cross country coach, Dylan Zitzer, says that they wanted to create an event for the community while also supporting student-athletes. "We wanted to provide a resource for student-athletes while also creating an event that not only supports UMW but supports the community as a whole."

Zitzer grew up in Dillon before attending Concordia University where he competed in cross country and track and field. He returned to Dillon where he became the cross country program's first head coach. A native Montanan, Zitzer wanted this scholarship to help Montana students.

"We wanted to focus on Montana students first, and find someone that could use the scholarship to their full potential," said Zitzer.

The Beaverhead Marathon Scholarship's first recipient was awarded to Shelby Walls. Walls is a freshman majoring in elementary education from Belgrade, Mont. where she attended high school at Manhattan Christian. Coming from a small-town setting, Walls was naturally drawn to the University of Montana Western.

"I grew up in a small town, so the transition of coming to Montana Western fit perfectly. With the small class sizes and the Experience One block program, I knew this was a place where I could succeed," said Walls. "I feel very grateful for this opportunity and hope to make the most of it while I'm here."

The scholarship will award cross country student-athletes $500 each year, and Coach Zitzer hopes to add at least two more as funds are raised over the coming years. Beaverhead Marathon's latest event will take place Oct. 19, 2019, with the second annual "Run the Boo" 10K, 5K, and 1-mile kids race.

Registration costs for "Run the Boo" are $39 for the 10K, $29 for the 5K, and free for children under the age of 10. To register, visit beaverheadmarathon.com. A free T-shirt will be provided to those who register online.

For more information, please visit the Beaverhead Marathon Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/RunTheBeav/> or email beaverheadmarathon@gmail.com. Contributions to the scholarship fund can be made at www.umwfoundation.org or by calling 406-683-7305

Congratulations to our lunchtime tennis champions. Kyler Engellent and Carter Curnow battled furiously against Kee Christiansen and Landon Peterson....but came up short. Great job Kee and Landon for becoming this years' DMS tennis champions. Thanks Mr. Williams and Mr. McGowan for a fun lunch time competition.

Congratulations to our Football and Volleyball teams. Wins were pulled off against Butte East by both teams. This week in volleyball, the B teams will host Whitehall and games will begin at 4:00 PM. Then on Thursday, volleyball will travel to Butte East. The bus leaves at 3:00 PM and the B teams begin play at 4:30 PM.

In football, the teams travel to Butte Central tomorrow. The bus leaves at 2:00 PM and play begins at 4:00 PM. Then on Thursday, the teams travel to Butte East. The bus leaves at 2:00 PM and play begins at 3:30 PM.

Hey DMS Students, get "AMPED". Mr. Williams has an amazing new program where you get rewarded for exercising. Have you noticed all the awesome music in the halls before school? That's part of it. So, get out and get walking and get rewarded for getting in better shape.
