What is the SHOOT FOR LOOT?

Wildland firefighters represent the diversity of the land they protect. They are federal, state and local firefighters, private sector firefighters, interface firefighters, and volunteers from rural communities and towns across the United States. Many are long-time career professionals, some much newer to the job. They're ordinary people doing an extraordinary job, a community of committed individuals who work and train to protect our private and public lands.

The Wildland Firefighter Foundation mission is to help families of firefighters killed in the line of duty and to assist injured Firefighters and their families. The Foundation gets families where they need to go when these men and women are injured or even worse killed in the line of duty. The Foundation provides INSTANT support to any Wildland Firefighter and their family, regardless of agency and association.

The Foundation is an advocate for the families of fallen Firefighters, they help keep the lights on, they provide for mental health care, and help Firefighters navigate the complex paperwork processes that come with severe line of duty injuries. 89% off all donations makes it to the Firefighter and their families.

The SHOOT FOR LOOT is a fundraiser benefitting the Wildland Firefighter Foundation. The Shoot for Loot is a fun, challenging, family-oriented event. Safety is our top priority. The events are developed for shooters of all abilities. We have food, porta potties and an EMT at the event. It is ran by a team of Volunteers. We have thousands of dollars' worth of prizes. You don't have to stay all day. Come shoot the events you want, collect your entries and then come to the Elks Lodge by 5 PM to see if you've won. See our website for more info. https://sites.google.com/view/shootforloot/home

After the Shoot, the event continues at the Elks Lodge 1554 here in Dillon. We have some incredible one of-a-kind items in our Live Auction. We have unique custom Cerakoted pistols and TITO's Vodka VIP Baskets to give to the people whom Purchase VIP tables. A few of these beauties are worth more than the purchase price of the VIP table. The Banquet is catered by the BRANDING IRON, 3 dinner options PRIME RIB, STUFFED CHICKEN, and VEGETARIAN. Purchasing Reserved tickets and or Tables are also an option with benefits and is encouraged. See our ad in the Dillonite Daily.

Finally, our Guest Speaker is Daniel Lyon, Daniel was the survivor from of the Twisp River Fatality Fire of 2015, which took the lives of 3 courageous young men. Come have dinner, raise some money for the Foundation and hear Daniel's story.

SECRETARY OF STATE ANNOUNCES NEW ONLINE LIEN FILING SYSTEM

Montana Secretary of State Corey Stapleton is pleased to announce that his office is modernizing the software used for filing liens. New software has now been implemented to assist the customers who file Uniform Commercial Code liens, Effective Financing Statements, Title 71's, and all other liens and searches that stakeholders utilize.

"Constant improvement is our goal, and this new software has been in the making for over a year," Stapleton said. "We have taken thousands of calls from the business community, using each interaction as an opportunity to learn and improve. We've listened to the feedback and have launched our new software which will be more intuitive, easier to use, and will include menus to guide our users to filing error-free liens."

Stapleton also announced that notary and business registry services will also be implemented into this software in the near future.

CANOEING WITH WARDENS

By "Swede" Troedsson

I retired in Dillon, MT, from the Forest Service in 1994. Not too long thereafter, I was approached by local Game Warden Mike Mehn with a request that I take him on a canoe trip in the Chain of Lakes to enforce fishing regulations., These lakes are located on the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest, on the north side of the Centennial Valley. What followed was day and overnight canoe trips with four different wardens. I was happy to do this on a volunteer basis.

On August 8th, 1998, Mike and I set camp in a secluded area just south of Hidden Lake. The plan was that the next day we would check fishermen on Hidden, Goose and Otter Lakes.

Dinner that night started with "G&T' drinks, followed by a garden salad, charcoal broiled catfish filets that had been marinated in white wine and soy sauce, and sprinkled with lemon pepper. This was accompanied by steamed corn on the cob, and steamed broccoli slathered with hollandaise sauce. All of this was washed down with cold beer. Dessert was strawberry shortcake with whipped cream. The evening was concluded with coffee. The coffee was made by pouring hot water over coffee grounds in a filter in a holder mounted a mason jar. Mike states: "---boy we ate good."

Breakfast the next morning was blueberry hotcakes covered with warm maple syrup that had butter melted in it. In addition to the hotcakes I served bacon, eggs, and mason jar coffee.

All the fishermen checked on Hidden Lake were legal. We then portaged my 14 foot Kevlar canoe (34 lbs) to Goose Lake, about one mile north of Hidden Lake.

On the way to Goose Lake, we heard some people approaching us. Mike handed me the canoe and hid in nearby brush. I took over portaging the canoe, and met two couples headed for Hidden Lake. Playing dumb, (easy for a Swede) I asked them if this was the way to Cliff Lake, two miles north of us. They said it was, and said they were staying at the Cliff Lake Resort. They looked at each other, shook their heads in disbelief, and continued on to Hidden Lake.

As we approached Goose Lake, we observed what appeared to be an outfitter's camp at the outlet. Six horses were picketed close to the camp. Two men were leaving camp, headed for Otter Lake, about ¼ mile north of us. Commercial outfitting in this area was prohibited by the Forest Service.

On our approach to Otter Lake, we observed the two fishermen we had seen leaving camp. They were fishing on the east side of the lake. A man and boy were on the west side of the lake. The man dashed in to some brush, to hide a fish pole I suspect. Mike approached the two men. They were from Pennsylvania, and had the proper fishing licenses. They explained that they had "booked" with the man on the other side of the lake. The man was a real estate realtor from Ogden, UT. He had borrowed the horses from his Dad who owned a ranch near Henry's Lake, ID. They had ridden the horses into Montana, and rode across the Centennial Valley to Goose Lake.

I asked the men if they would like their picture taken with a Montana Game Warden. I offered to send them cop

Mike then interviewed the outfitter, and found out he was not licensed to outfit in Montana. (Also, I suspect, he did not have a Forest Service Special Use Permit). Mike told the outfitter he would visit further with him in his camp. I suggested to Mike that he follow the outfitter, and I would portage the canoe back to Goose Lake.

When I arrived at Goose Lake, Mike was in a serious discussion with the illegal outfitter. Mike ordered the outfitter to break camp the next day and return to Idaho. I took photos of the camp and horses before we headed back to Hidden Lake.

On our way back to Hidden Lake Mike was portaging the canoe. Half way back we encountered the two women we had run into earlier. One of the women noticed the warden patch on Mike's sleeve. She said: "Oh, I forgot the truck keys.", and started running back to Hidden Lake. Mike handed me the canoe and quickly followed after her. He found two California men fishing without licenses. The woman had not reached them in time to warn them. He cited both men for " fishing without".

On our way out to our vehicle, I mentioned to Mike that I suspected the outfitter crossed into Montana without a livestock inspection.

When I returned to Dillon, I gave copies of the six photos I had taken to Mike, the Montana Livestock Inspector in Dillon, and to the Forest Service Law Enforcement Officer in Ennis.

The Livestock Inspector took the photos to Idaho, where he met up with the Idaho Livestock Inspector. It appears the illegal outfitter had ridden back into Idaho without a livestock inspection.

I suspect the illegal outfitter didn't make much money on that trip. I wonder if he was an Idaho licensed outfitter? Oh, by the way, I did send the Pennsylvania fishermen copies of the photo taken of them standing alongside Mike. They never thanked me. (Neither fisherman was cited for having booked with an unlicensed Montana outfitter).

3D Mammography detects threats like no other

When it comes to breast cancer, early detection is essential. In fact, early detection saves lives. That's why we are so passionate about our 3D mammography capabilities at Barrett. And while it might be tempting to choose thermography instead of a mammogram, the FDA warns that thermography should be used only as an adjunct to mammography. The American Cancer Society has stated that thermography is not an effective screening tool for finding breast cancer early.

3D mammography has been proven to detect breast cancer sooner and better. With 3D mammography, callbacks are reduced by 40% and detection is improved up to 50%. Trust the experts at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare. We are here for you and your health.

Talk to your provider about scheduling your mammogram at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare, call 406-683-1188.

Photovoice for PFLAG Dillon "Coming Out Day"

Photovoice Dillon is a project that invites community members to share their stories of "Coming Out"; reasons they are unable to "Come Out"; or, of how/when they "Came out" as an Ally. This project is open to the public and community members who identify as LGBTQ, Ally, and/or family members. All are encouraged to participate in making this project a success. Each Photovoice participant is asked to share their story in a simple one paragraph (minimum 3 sentences, maximum 5 sentences) about your "Coming Out Day" story. Folks who do not wish to have their photo taken because the story needs to remain anonymous are invited to pick from different images that represent their story. Once the project is completed PFLAG Dillon will host an art show, details will be announced at a later date.

Photovoice Dillon (PVD) is a project that believes your voice matters. PVD's aim is to build a fairer and equitable community through photography and story. There will be food, drinks, and live music provided (free) to all who attend and several raffle items from Patagonia and Sweetwater Coffee will be for sale at the event for $5 per ticket or 5 tickets for $20.
