The Bookstore Celebrates 35 years

The Bookstore located at 26 North Idaho street was established in 1984 by Art and Pat Blade. 35 years in the book business at the same location. Debbie Sporich was a loyal customer of the Bookstore and an acquaintance of the Blades. She and Pat worked together in Soroptimists and other civic organizations. Debbie approached Pat about selling the store. She was told NO....in fact she was told no 3 times. Pat (laughingly) over the years has told people that it was a "hostile" take over, that the store was not for sale and yet somehow in 1992 Debbie ended up behind the counter.

They went to lunch at the Bannack House and their business agreement was written on a large red napkin. It was decided that on June 1st of 1991 Debbie would come on board as a manager for a minimum of 6 months with no guarantee that they would sell and no guarantee at the end of that period that Debbie would actually want to own the store. That 6-months was filled with learning and cemented in Debbie's mind that this was exactly where she was meant to be. Sporich's husband Bill worried that no profit would ever be seen because Debbie would most likely bring home all the books....

In the first 3 weeks of that arrangement it was evident that it was a perfect match for Sporich. Debbie readily admits that at the age of 32 she knew nothing about running a business. What she did know was books. She was reading by the age of 4, takes a book to the movie theater and finishes on average 5 books per week. After the sale Pat continued to work at The Bookstore helping out as needed. She was not only a mentor but also a safety net helping the new owner maneuver the day to day operations of running a store. Debbie refers to that time as her stint in the "Pat Blade School of Business". There were a lot of lessons learned (many by trial and error) The first author event that Debbie helped with was for local author and historian Lee Graves. The date was set, the invitations were sent but the book was delayed. They were stopped for an inspection by customs and the day of the event was nerve wracking. The publisher promised that the books would arrive.....they had been put on a small plane and delivered to Helena then trucked to Dillon arriving mere minutes before the start of the event. People were lined up on the sidewalk and when Debbie asked Pat what do we do if the books aren't here

-- she said "We serve more wine!!!" On March 1, 1992 The Bookstore changed hands and Debbie with her husband, Bill signed on the bottom line. (and the rest as they say is history)

The Bookstore and Cathy Weber's Art Studio share the space on Idaho street. Both rented from the Blades and after years of renting they teamed up and purchased the building in June of 1999. Ten years ago during the Bookstore's 25th Anniversary celebration that mortgage was burned at Oktoberfest. It has been a great adventure and without our customers we would not have the success that we do. We are so thankful for all the support we receive and we can't wait to see what the next 35 years have in store for us at The Bookstore. Please join us Saturday, October 19th during the Fall Festival. We will be celebrating the anniversary of The Bookstore, Debbie's 60th birthday (all day) and the release of Carl Davis's book Six Hundred Generations from 1:00-3:00. Stop by for a piece of cake, a hug, share some memories and sign up to win prizes. We thank everyone for their friendship and support without you there would be no Bookstore. Call 683-6807 if you have any questions.

RED HAT SOCIETY NEWS

The Red Hat Belles held their October activity at Papa T's on Tuesday, October 15th. Co-hostesses were Phyllis Davenport and "Pete" Tarleton. Due to the recent passing of her sister, "Pete" did not attend the activity but had helped get everything ready for the event. Thankfully, Mary Staple stepped up to assist Phyllis in decorating tables etc. The tables were decorated with a Fall theme consisting of scarecrows and many autumn leaves. When it came time to give out door prizes, the ladies were instructed to check their candy favors which were on an autumn leaf and to look under the leaf. Two of the leaves around the table would say "WINNER". The two ladies finding these "WINNER" leaves were Trudy Carlin and Diana Carroll and they received door prizes of gift cards. Congratulations, Trudy and Diana.

Darlene Rose, Trudy Carlin and Jannie Falconer volunteered to co-host our November activity. Thank you Darlene, Trudy and Jannie.

Thank you to the staff of Papa T's for their fine service and food. A special thank you to Phyllis and Mary and our condolences to "Pete" on her loss.
