JAYCEE AUXILIARY AWARDS
Outstanding Woman and Outstanding Young Woman

This young woman was nominated due to her passion for helping others, willingness to give back to the community, and her ability to lead by example.

She was born into a small close-knit family with loving parents and two older siblings.

At a young age it was apparent this nominee was a natural born leader.

She was a high school athlete who graduated with many honors. She also excelled in academics while attending university and had deep involvement in her sorority house. After receiving a bachelor's degree, she then obtained an MBA at a very young age.

She's a dedicated Dillon Jaycee and has held many offices during her time as a member. She's been the chair and cochair of several events including the demolition derby, JC rodeo queen, the smoker, Labor Day concert, and all around rodeo Arena signs.

Due to her work on the new flagpole at the vigilante Stadium in 2017 she was awarded the project of the year award and also awarded director of the year in 2018.

Along with her work with the Jaycees this young woman is also an active member in the south west counties farm bureau where she was appointed to the board in 2013. Along with serving as the women's leadership committee chair her other roles include membership chair, young farmers and ranchers chair, And secretary/treasurer.

As a result of her volunteer work with Farm Bureau, Becky was recently interviewed by Montana parent about what it's like to work and raise your children on a ranch

Because of her consistent dedication to the Dillon community we would like to present 2019's outstanding young woman award to Becky Stuart.

All of the nominations we received for the 2019 Outstanding Woman included the words "mentor, determined, committed, encouraging, creative, inspiration,.. etc."

This nominee is the embodiment of creativity and referred to by many as a ray of sunshine. She has brought a light to town with her various artistic endeavors.

She's been deeply involved in the Dillon community from the moment she moved here. Her recent work at the humane society has proven to be successful as she's navigated new ideas for marketing strategies to promote the animals within the shelter and the positive changes at the shelter itself.

She is never afraid to help a neighbor or the youth of our community. Assisting many with the promotion and creation of their works of art. The dArt program in Dillon was created with the purpose of beautifying Dillon and to encourage local artists to pursue their passions. Promotion of community projects and artists is a passion for her and always offers her assurance with a generous heart.

The Dillon Flying Service owned by her and her husband is no exception to this as they are notably warm and inviting to many visitors to our community and leave lasting impressions on them all.

These are just a few of the reasons Clare Bailey's nomination really stood out. You cannot look too far in Dillon without seeing something she has personally beautified whether you know it is her personal work or not.

Trick or Treat at Hesper's

By: Bryce Angell

'Twas Halloween and four of us were out to trick or treat.
My older cousin drove us, and we only had one seat.
He'd paid a hundred dollars for a 55 old Jeep. So, we packed in tighter than a bunch of stupid, woolly sheep.
We stopped at every farmhouse. We'd climb out and stretch our legs.
One farmer's wife had chickens, so she gave us hard boiled eggs.
Our sacks were full of popcorn balls; wax papered homemade fudge.
Our bounty snugged up in our laps. There wasn't room to budge.
My cousin said, "It's getting late. You've filled your appetite.
But first let's stop at Hesper's for a Halloween fright night."
The children's gossip was that Hesper was a murderer.
A lone hitchhiker met his fate while Hesper's passenger.
My cousin said, "Just walk on in and show a little grit.
Besides, if you get murdered, then we'll have more room to sit."
So, we made a plan of action, but it wasn't worth a lick. 'Cuz we drew four straws and wouldn't ya know I pulled the shortest stick.
My childish brain was dreading, "Would I be ol' Hesper's gore?
I'd rather take off running than to knock on Hesper's door."
I tapped on Hesper's door, and wondered, "Will I be dead meat?"
Then Hesper stood there face to face. I squeaked out, "Trick or treat."
Old Hesper's eyes looked cold, but did I see a hint of smile?
He said, "I haven't seen a trick or treater for a while.
"And I haven't got no candy." Then his face got mighty still.
He reached into his wallet, pulled a brand-new dollar bill.
Back then I didn't have a doggone penny to my name. But the dollar bill meant more than cash. It changed old Hesper's fame.
When I ponder 'bout the dollar I received on Halloween.
I kindly think of Hesper. The old man sure wasn't mean.
That Halloween I learned a lesson. Be careful what you hear.
Sometimes it's just a story and there ain't no need to fear.

Assistant Athletic Director

The University of Montana Western Director of Athletics Bill Wilson has announced the hiring of Matt Peterson as Assistant Athletic Director.

A Pullman, Wash. Native, Peterson recently earned his Master's Degree in Athletic Administration from Gonzaga University in May of 2019. He also earned his undergraduate degree in Sport Management and Public Relations from Gonzaga.

"We are excited to have Matt join the Bulldog athletic department," UMW Athletic Director Bill Wilson said. "Matt really took advantage of many opportunities to gain experience in athletics administration during his undergraduate and graduate education. We look forward to him sharing those experiences at UMW."

While an undergraduate at Gonzaga University he competed on the Men's Varsity Rowing team. While at Gonzaga University, Peterson also worked in the athletic ticketing department during the 2017-2018 year. He worked with the Men's and Women's Basketball programs assisting with ticket sales and distribution.

Prior to attending Gonzaga, Peterson attended and played baseball at Columbia Basin College where he received his Associate of Arts Degree and the Northwestern Athletic Conference Leadership Award in 2015.

During the summer of 2015, Peterson worked with the Cougar Athletic Foundation at Washington State University. During his internship, he assisted in facilitating the athletic department's major fundraising events.

Peterson also has experience working in the National Football League. He served as an intern in the Football Operations Department with the Washington Redskins during the 2016, 2017, and 2018 Training Camps in Richmond, Virginia. Peterson recently completed an internship with the Seattle Seahawks, working in their Football Operations and Team Travel Departments for the 2019 Training Camp at the Virginia Mason Athletic Center in Renton, Washington.
