Judy Burns

Longtime Sheridan resident and former Town librarian Judy Burns will be remembered for her outspoken advocacy for children and her helping hands for neighbors and neglected animals.

Mrs. Burns and her late husband, Timothy Stuart (Stu) Burns, the U.S. Forest Service district manager, moved their family to Sheridan from Hamilton on Sept. 7, 1975. She served as librarian creating a summer reading program and bookstore.

While her children, Kathleen and Malcolm, were in school, Mrs. Burns was a parent activist who brought teachers and parents together to help resolve problems in the public schools. Her parent-teacher group was the first united effort to create a community dialogue to benefit schoolchildren.

Mrs. Burns also served as Sheridan Garden Club president. Friends and neighbors admired her gardening skills and often remarked that she had "the most beautiful yard in Sheridan." Her sewing, embroidery and hooked rugs and wall hangings also reflected her love of nature.

During her residence at Sheridan's Home Park, Mrs. Burns was known as the "Go-To Girl" because she was always the first one out the door for social events, church and trips to town. She served for four years as the worship chairman at the Sheridan Methodist Church, a job she loved.

Judy spent her final years at The Legacy in Dillon where she made many dear friends.

She also taught Sunday school and was active in Eastern Star.

She is a graduate of the University of Montana and Billings High School. She and her husband were college sweethearts and were married shortly after graduation. They celebrated 43 years of marriage before he passed away.

Born in Minneapolis, Minnesota Dec. 4, 1934 to Dr. John and Virginia Hynes, she was raised with three brothers, Dennis Hynes of Boulder, Colorado, and Tim Hynes of Denver, Colorado, and the late Brian Hynes from Minneapolis.

Mrs. Burns is also survived by her children, daughter Kathleen Johnson and her husband Eric of Bakersfield, California, and son Malcolm Burns and his wife Diana of Beaverton, Oregon; grandchildren Andrea L'Heureux and her husband Geoff of Beaverton, Oregon, Denise Miller and her husband Ben LeBeau of Bakersfield, California, Gregory Miller of Alder, Montana, and two great grandchildren, Aurora and Timothy of Alder, Montana.

A memorial service will be held at the Episcopal Church in Sheridan Montana on Friday, November 8 at 3:00 p.m. Memorials may be made in Judy's name to the Sheridan Public Library of Sheridan, Montana, the Windows Fund at Christ Episcopal Church in Sheridan, Montana, or the charity of your choice.

Elks National Foundation Cornerstone Grant

The Dillon Elks Lodge wants to say congratulations and thank you to Jennifer Womack. She applied for and received a $500 Elks National Foundation Cornerstone Grant on behalf of the Dillon Elks Lodge #1554 to help with the Community Christmas Dinner.

Jennifer had volunteered for years at the Elks while she was in high school for dinners and Sunday brunch. She applied and was awarded the local Elks scholarship and a 4 year National Elks Scholarship her senior year. Part of that scholarship requires yearly volunteer service to the Elks. Jennifer has done that by serving at the Beaverhead Outdoors Association dinner, making sno-cones at Bannack Days and setting up for fund raising events, to name a few. The Dillon Elks says thanks again Jennifer for your continued support of the Elks.

If you would like to learn more about volunteer opportunities at the Dillon Elks Lodge call Linda or Gerald at 683-5552

General deer, elk hunt begins with winter storm, mixed hunter success

Montana's general hunting season for deer and elk began Saturday, with lower-than-average hunter participation and success in most areas of southwest Montana due to challenging weather and travel conditions.

Wildlife biologists with Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks operated seven check stations in Region 3 over the weekend, checking 2,657 hunters. Biologists use check stations to collect data on hunter participation and success, as well as the species, sex and age class of the animals harvested. All stations saw slightly fewer hunters than the running five-year average for opening weekend, except for Cameron, which checked close to 600 hunters — about 40 hunters above average — between Saturday and Sunday. Overall, hunter success was below average.

"Typically, hunter harvest success is improved by additional snow and winter-like conditions during the hunting season," said Howard Burt, FWP's Region 3 wildlife manager in Bozeman.
