Holiday Bash with Trout Unlimited

December 6, 4 - 7PM

Join us at the Patagonia Outlet for a holiday shopping night with our local chapter of Trout Unlimited, live music from Bill Dwyer, festive drinks and tasty treats!

The Trout Unlimited: Chuck Robbins Chapter 656, will be tabling at the store from 4 - 7 PM.

Come and learn more about their current native trout relocation and rehabilitation endeavors in Beaverhead County. Trout Unlimited will have three awesome Patagonia products that you will have a chance to win upon entering their drawing! Additionally, each new member of the Trout Unlimited chapter will receive a gift. We'll also have a fun coloring station for the little ones - bring the family!

Mike Dennison Signing Books during Christmas Stroll

Mike Dennison will be signing his new book, "Inside Montana Politics: A Reporter's View from the Trenches," at The Bookstore, Friday, December 6th. This book is a lively historical and personal look at the major political figures and events he's reported on during his 30-plus-year career as a reporter in Montana. The book leads off with a chapter on one of the biggest political, economic and investigative stories he covered: The fall of Montana Power Co., in the wake of the deregulation debacle of the late 1990s and early 2000s. It also has chapters on U.S. Sens. Conrad Burns, Max Baucus and Jon Tester, Govs. Marc Racicot, Judy Martz and Brian Schweitzer — and a non-political story that he included because he feels it's one of the most compelling stories he's ever told — the conviction and years-later exoneration of a Missoula man wrongly convicted of rape.

He is currently the chief political reporter for the Montana Television Network, which includes nine stations (KXLF in Butte). You can see his work there or online at MTN station websites. He's been a reporter since 1981, almost entirely in Montana, and a full-time political reporter here since 1992, working for the Montana Standard, Billings Gazette, Great Falls Tribune, Helena Independent Record, Missoulian and The Associated Press. Dennison is a 1981 graduate of the University of Montana's journalism school and lives in Helena.

Meet Mike at The Bookstore from 5:00-7:00 during the annual Christmas Stroll. Call 683-6807 if you have any questions or would like to reserve copies of the book.

Christmas Nativity Exhibit - Jackson

The Church of Jesus Christ of Letter-Day Saints Invites you to a Christmas Nativity Exhibit Saturday, December 7th at 2 p.m. at the LDS Church in Jackson, MT.

Come join us to explore beautiful displays of Christmas Nativity sets in dozens of styles heralding the birth of Jesus Christ. Refreshments served. If you have nativity sets you'd like to display, please bring them to the church for set-up an hour before the event.

JAYCEE PARK PICKETS

Jaycee Park Pickets are available for Christmas gift ideas. You can have the picket engraved with your name or the name of a loved one. You can stop by Womack's Printing 126 N. Montana St. and pick up a form. The cost is $50 per picket and can have approximately 25 letters.

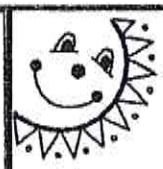

The other option available is to engrave the back of one of the benches in the playground. The cost to have your own personal bench back engraved is $1,000. If you enjoy the park or and would like to be part of keeping up the park, you can donate to Friends of Jaycee Park and bring a check to Womack's Printing, The Bank of Commerce, Erin Hughes, Cindy Wood, Judy Siring at Farmers Union Ins. or Taylor Realty.

FWP to hold open house for proposed addition to Mt. Haggin WMA

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking public input on a proposal to purchase 244 acres of property adjacent to the Mt. Haggin Wildlife Management Area.

FWP will host an open house, where members of the public can ask questions and provide input on the proposal. The meeting will begin at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 11, at the Butte Area Resource Office, 1820 Meadowlark Lane, in Butte.

The parcel, known as the Grassy Mountain addition, would be purchased using funds from Habitat Montana and other partner funds, including a contribution from the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation. It would be added to the Mt. Haggin WMA and managed for its wildlife, fisheries and recreational opportunities. An environmental assessment for the proposal can be viewed online at https://go.usa.gov/xpmZY.

If you have questions on the proposed purchase, please contact FWP's Butte Area Wildlife Biologist Vanna Boccadori at 406-494-2082 or vboccadori@mt.gov.

Montana Law Enforcement Academy Graduates 58 New Officers

The Montana Law Enforcement Academy (MLEA) graduated 58 new officers who will serve various agencies across the state. The Academy is operated by the Montana Department of Justice; it provides basic and advanced training for state, county, city and tribal law enforcement officers throughout the state.

The ceremony took place at the Civic Center in Helena.

In addressing the class, MLEA Administrator Glen Stinar emphasized the importance of resiliency, vision, and communication for law enforcement officers. Stinar said, "Resiliency is the most important gift you can give yourself. It's more than the ability to withstand to stressors of your work environment; it's about having the capacity to understand and accept that the unexpected is part of life and to always be mentally and physically prepared for it. Resiliency is about transparency and honesty in how we perform our duties, and trusting those we work with and for. It's also about believing we are doing what we were always meant to do. If you do these things, your time at work, and away from it, will be more rewarding."

Several of the graduates received awards for their performance during training:

Joel Stewart (Dillon Police Department) received the Joe May Award, which is given to the officer who displays exceptional leadership and motivation. The award is given in honor of the late Joe May, one of the people credited with the conception and creation of the Montana Law Enforcement Academy.

Bible Truth...About the birth of Jesus Christ [part 1]

Statement of belief: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God..." (2 Timothy 3:16-17), thus all beliefs in conflict with the scripture, God's holy word, are false.

History reveals that there was much opposition to the Christmas holiday in early America. The following quote [USA TODAY, 12-23-83] states: "The Puritans, Baptists, Quakers, Presbyterians, Calvinists and other denominations brought this opposition to early New England and strong opposition to the holiday lasted in America until the middle of the 18th century."

Neither the Old nor New Testaments give a date for the birth of Christ. There is no record in the Bible of churches or Christians annually celebrating His birth and almost all the symbols connected with the "Christmas" celebration originate in paganism. Biblical representations of the birth of Christ could be angels, an infant in a manger, wise men [no number given], a star and shepherds. Only two writers in the Bible, Matthew & Luke, record the events leading up to the virgin birth of our Savior. We know from a historical study that the birth of Christ was most likely sometime between March and October. Regarding this the well-known Baptist preacher, Charles Hadden Spurgeon, stated on Dec. 24, 1871: "We venture to assert that if there be any day in the year of which we may be pretty sure that it was not the day on which the Savior was born it is the twenty-fifth of December...regarding not the day, let us, nevertheless, give God thanks for the gift of His Dear Son."

Christ's virgin birth was a miraculous event that is worthy of honor, yet the Bible speaks much more about the death, burial and resurrection of Christ than it does of His birth. In fact, we can't really speak of His birth without referring to His death, burial & resurrection because the very purpose of His birth was to provide the sacrifice for the sins of mankind. By shedding His blood on the cross He provided eternal life "that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life," John 3:15. His resurrection from the dead proved He was the Savior and that believer's would be resurrected in incorruptible bodies, 1 Corinthians 15:51-57.
