percent, Pima Medical Institute's outcome in this program deserves to be acknowledged and celebrated," said Jen Spurlin, Pima Medical Institute Corporate Director of Education. "The hard work and dedication to the students is best demonstrated when students graduate, get credentialed and become employed. The Dillon campus is a wonderful example of that commitment."

Through collaboration with the University of Montana Western, Pima Medical offers in-demand Veterinary Nursing associate degree and Veterinary Assistant certificate programs.

The Dillon campus is located on the University of Montana Western campus, offering a unique experience for students. In the spring of 2017, the Veterinary Nursing associate degree program received American Veterinary Medical Association accreditation, making it the only accredited program in the state of Montana.

Students who enroll in the Pima Medical programs have use of the University of Montana Western's facilities, including dining, recreation, library and many campus activities.

btpdillon@qwestoffice.net • (406) 683-9844Attorney General Fox Joins Bipartisan Coalition in Calling for Fentanyl to Remain a Schedule I Drug

Attorney General Tim Fox was joined in a bipartisan coalition today of all 56 attorneys general in calling for Congress to permanently classify fentanyl-related substances as Schedule I drugs, which are defined as drugs with no currently accepted medical use and a high potential for abuse.

"The FIGHT Fentanyl Act will ensure that law enforcement agencies and courts retain the tools needed to keep those who traffic in this deadly substance off the streets," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "Less than two months from now, a temporary scheduling order that helps federal authorities get fentanyl out of our communities is set to expire. It's imperative that Congress pass this legislation so states can prevent more opioid addictions and deaths," Fox added.

In the letter, the attorneys general urge Congress to pass S. 2701, the Federal Initiative to Guarantee Health by Targeting (FIGHT) Fentanyl Act, a bipartisan bill introduced by U.S. Senators Rob Portman (R-OH) and Joe Manchin (D-WV).

The Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) issued a temporary scheduling order in February 2018 to schedule fentanyl-related substances that has allowed federal law enforcement authorities to bring criminal actions against individuals who manufacture, distribute, or handle fentanyl-related substances. This scheduling order is set to expire on February 6, 2020. The FIGHT Fentanyl Act codifies DEA precedent to schedule fentanyl-related substances.

In the most recent data available from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, there were 72,000 drug-related deaths in the United States in 2017. Roughly 40% involved fentanyl or a fentanyl-related compound.

Attorneys general from every state, territory, and the District of Columbia signed the letter; the National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG) endorsed the legislation as one of its official policy positions. NAAG typically endorses around one dozen policies a year.

Two years ago, as part of Fox's Aid Montana initiative, his office coordinated training in conjunction with NAAG's education branch centered around methamphetamine, heroin, and fentanyl overdose deaths. The course, attended by county attorneys and law enforcement officers from across Montana, was designed to help them investigate and prosecute overdose deaths.

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox is Elected President of the National Association of Attorneys General

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox was elected president of the National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG) during its Capital Forum, Dec. 9-11. Attorney General Fox has selected "Transformational Leadership and Civility" as his presidential initiative.

"I am humbled beyond words that my fellow state, territorial, and District of Columbia attorneys general have chosen me to take the helm of the National Association of Attorneys General for 2020. To my friend and predecessor, Attorney General Jeff Landry of Louisiana, thank you for your hard work and leadership over the past year. As we look to the coming year, there's important work to be done in public safety, consumer protection, upholding the rule of law, and more. I urge my colleagues to take advantage of the opportunities our association offers us to reach across partisan and ideological divides and work together on these issues in a spirit of statesmanship and civility," said Attorney General Fox.

He will host his Presidential Summit in Big Sky, Montana from August 13-14, 2020.

Louisiana Attorney General Jeff Landry closed his term as president with a final panel on his initiative, "Emergency and Crisis Management," which examined the relationship between private and public entities during a disaster.

"It has been an honor to lead the National Association of Attorneys General for the last 18 months. From emergency preparedness to consumer protection to the opioid epidemic, I am proud of the work we have done on pivotal issues that have affect the daily lives of our constituents. I am confident General Fox will expound upon these bipartisan efforts and begin other important endeavors to help the American people in the next year," said Attorney General Jeff Landry.

The National Association of Attorneys General [naag.org] (NAAG) was founded in 1907 to help attorneys general fulfill the responsibilities of their office and to assist in the delivery of high-quality legal services to the states and territorial jurisdictions.

Department's Faculty Senator (2006-2009). She did all of this in addition to serving on multiple department-level standing committees.

Her work might best be summed up by her award as the CASE/Carnegie Foundation 2010 Montana Professor of the Year Award. This award recognized Dr. Norris-Tull's exceptional contributions to the Education Department, Montana Western, the state of Montana, and beyond.

Dr. Mark Krank, Professor Emeritus of Psychology.

Dr. Krank earned his Ph.D. in psychological foundations of learning at the University of Wyoming. Prior to his time at the University of Montana Western, Dr. Krank served as an elementary and middle school principal in Wyoming and acting superintendent and elementary principal at the Omaha Indian Reservation in Nebraska. Because of his leadership experience, Dr. Krank assisted with a number of administrative responsibilities within Academic Support Services during the first part of his career at UMW.

Dr. Krank's greatest achievement at Montana Western was being in the forefront of bringing Experience One – one course at a time block scheduling to the campus. A member of a select faculty vanguard, he fought courageously to persuade concerned faculty, administrators, townspeople, and individuals at the Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education (OCHE), that Experience One was a superior scheduling model that would save the university and pedagogically benefit students.

Dr. Krank accomplished this gracefully and with hard data. Using quantitative research, his disciplined and rigorous analysis of the Experience One Pilot Program is considered one of the most important events in the history of Experience One.

As a teacher, Dr. Krank challenged students with rigorous classes. He demanded that students think critically and communicate as scholars. He encouraged discussion and full student participation in his courses. Dr. Krank continuously improved his classes with innovations that the Experience One program allowed, and he stayed informed of the latest scholarship in his field in order to provide his students with the best education possible.

Dr. Krank has left behind an incredible legacy at Montana Western by building a foundation for vigorous and dynamic programs in History and the Social Sciences.
