UMW 2020 Regents Teaching Scholars Announced

Congratulations to Dr. Bethany Blankenship and Dr. Rob Thomas on their selection by the Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education (OCHE) as Regents Teaching Scholars. They will lead faculty learning communities during spring 2020.

Dr. Bethany Blankenship, Professor of English at Montana Western.

To highlight the centrality of teaching excellence to student success, the Office of the Commissioner of Higher Education is launching the Regents Teaching Scholars, an annual program recognizing teachers who have made exemplary contributions to teaching and learning at Montana University System campuses. Each year, a cohort of selected Scholars will build and facilitate faculty learning communities focused on a selected theme. The inaugural cohort of Scholars will facilitate faculty learning communities (FLCs) during Spring semester 2020.

FLCs are designed to give small groups of faculty members (typically 6-10) at the same institution the opportunity to engage in sustained, meaningful conversations or scholarship about teaching and learning with supportive colleagues from across campus. Members will meet regularly throughout the length of the program as they explore areas of interest, leading to innovative changes in their teaching practice.

As higher education seeks innovative ways to make the college classroom relevant and transformational for students' intellectual pursuits, future careers, and civic lives, George Kuh's ten "High Impact Practices" continue to be useful pedagogical tools. To support innovative work in enhancing students' first experiences in college, the Montana University System is pleased to announce that this year's theme for the Regents Teaching Scholars program will focus on High Impact Practices (first year seminars; common intellectual

Dillon Middle School news

Dillon Middle School news for the week of December 16 through 20, 2019. We would like to thank our sponsor, THE BOOKSTORE. Thank you for supporting the DMS news. If you need some great ideas for your holiday giving, THE BOOKSTORE has them.

The lunch menu for the week is as follows. Monday we will enjoy spaghetti and meat sauce served with French bread. Tuesday, sub sandwiches will be served with trimmings. Wednesday, we will enjoy chili dogs served with potatoes and fruit. Thursday, Turkey will be served with mashed potatoes and gravy and a dinner roll.

On Friday, December 20th, we will have early release at noon for our winter break. A grab and go breakfast will be served. School will resume Thursday, January 2, 2020.

Last Thursday, the DMS choir and band under the direction of Mr. Neil Lemieux, band director at DMS, provided a wonderful holiday concert. The concert was well attended by parents and staff as well as many community members. Wonderful job band and choir students.

Last week and this week, students are competing to become this year's ninja warrior. During PE classes, students are showing off their speed, strength, agility and mental abilities as they run through Mr. Williams' ninja warrior course. The top ten girls and the top ten boys will compete after the first of the year for the title of this year's top ninja warrior.

Students, keep those canned goods coming. We are almost done with our annual food drive and we are aiming for more than 2000 pounds of food. This week, we have several incentives. For the most cans brought in by December 18th, that class will get to go to lunch early on Thursday.

Also on Thursday, December 19th, will be a hat day for all students who bring in at least 3 units. Finally, on Thursday, each unit brought in on that day, will be doubled for the overall weight. For example a student who brings in one pound of food will get credit for 2 pounds.

Math Counts is starting up soon. If you're interested in participating, please see Mr. Zier. Practices are yet to be determined but will be during lunch until the competition in February.

Last week, 7th grade girls interested in playing basketball met with Coach Nordahl. If you missed this meeting and want to play, please see the coach. This week, 8th grade girls wanting to play
