Craig Martin Rehm

April 17, 1955 – December 15, 2019

Craig passed away at home among friends and family in the early morning hours of December 15, 2019. He was born to Gilbert and Josephine (Rykowski) Rehm in Colfax, WA. Craig spent his childhood growing up on various ranches which his parents managed in Washington, Nevada, Idaho, and Montana, but always maintained Dillon as his home.

Craig graduated from Sand Point high school and attended Montana State University, graduating with a degree in Ag Education in 1977. After a stint as AG News Director at KMON in Great Falls, he began his banking career at First National Bank in Miles City, MT in 1980. There he met the love of his life Darla Espinosa. Craig and Darla were married on August 14, 1982 and started their family with the birth of Travis in 1990 and Trevor in 1992. He continued his education at Colorado State University receiving a Master's in Business Marking in 1991. His career in banking took him throughout Montana spending time in Miles City, Great Falls, Fort Benton, and Dillon. In 2002, Craig and his family came back to Dillon where he established Beaverhead Bank, which later merged with Stockman Bank. He finished his working years as a Financial Advisor for D.A. Davidson, retiring in 2017.

Craig enjoyed all things outdoors but held particular interest in fishing, hunting, hiking, and shooting. Craig had a large network of friends and loved to organize gatherings for all occasions and always made sure a great time was had by all. Craig will be remembered for his generous spirt, honesty, and sense of humor.

Craig was proceeded in death by his parents Gib and Jo, and numerous aunts and uncles. He is survived by his wife Darla, his sons Travis and Trevor, their Fiancé Kelsey Stoner and girlfriend Andrea Walt, respectively, his sister Kimberly, Backwoods Bunch, and numerous aunts and cousins.

Memorial services will be announced at a future date (summer 2020). In lieu of flowers, donations to Dillon Rotary Club or your favorite charity would be appreciated.

FWP Region 3 headquarters to change phone numbers

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks' Region 3 headquarters will be updating its phone system this week, which will change all landline phone numbers at the Bozeman office and wildlife lab.

The new system will be installed throughout the day on Thursday, Dec. 19, and people calling the Bozeman office on that day may experience some interruptions. New phone numbers are expected to be operational by Friday. Employees in the Bozeman office will not be notified of voicemails on the old numbers after the change.

The new main phone number for the Bozeman office will be 406-577-7900.

Only landline phone numbers for FWP's office and wildlife lab in Bozeman are affected; phone numbers for the Butte and Helena area resource offices will not change. The employee phone directory available at fwp.mt.gov will be updated soon after the change.

The region's current bison hunting hotline will remain operational for the duration of the state's bison hunting season, which ends Feb. 15, 2020. FWP will announce a new bison hunting hotline prior to the 2020 bison hunting season.

Another Year Gone By:

By: MJ

December, the month for Christmas celebration is upon us once again. Seems like the year went by swiftly. Christmas may be a time of joy, a time for laughter, sharing, or a time to feel sorry for ourselves, a time for anger, depression, tears…

Are you one of us that looks forward to January so we can retreat like a cat, into a circle of quiet? Are you one that gets caught up in the cultural message of consumerism, where love is measured by how much money you spend on stuff? Maybe you get your personal journal or calendar where you chronicled a list of blessings and find a quiet place to reflect on all the blessing.

The season may be a time of spiritual focus, celebration with family, a feast made up of mouth-watering lusciousness. Combined with all of above your season may be filled with family drama, financial difficulties, grief, mental and physical exhaustion.

Note: Beware of costly advertisements that depletes your savings by taking money out of your pocket and enriching the income of others. Often a "special card with beautiful words" that say exactly what you are thinking is all that is needed. A card can be read over and over and often is. Mail your card via snail mail/post office. You may want to just knock on your neighbor's door to see how they are, share your specialty homemade treats, make a phone call… The choice is yours and whatever you do may often mean more then a quick gift you might pick up that gets thrown out.

Giving your time and sharing togetherness is the greatest gift you can give to anyone and this also will enrich your holiday two-fold.

VFW Announces Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen Winners

At the monthly meeting of Bill Carroll VFW Post 9040 on December 11, Post Commander Steve Esquibel presented certificates and prize money to local winners of the annual Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen contests. Sarah Welborn, a senior at Beaverhead County High School was the winner of the local Voice of Democracy contest. The Voice of Democracy contest is an audio/essay contest open to all high school students in the country. Annually the VFW awards almost $2 million to students entering this contest. The National winner receives a $30,000 scholarship and an all expenses paid trip to Washington DC.

Matthew Reinhardt, a seventh grade student at the Wisdom Rural School was the winner of the Patriot's Pen contest. The Patriot's Pen program requires entrants to prepare a 300-400 word essay on a patriotic topic selected by the VFW national Commander. Nationally, the VFW awards students entering the Patriot's Pen contest over $900,000 in winnings. The National winner of the Patriot's Pen program receives a $5,000 award and an all expenses paid trip to Washington DC.

The topic for this year's Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen contests was "What Makes American Great". Both Sarah and Matthew's entries have been forwarded to the VFW District 4 Headquarters, where they will compete with entrees from other Posts in Southwestern Montana. If they win at that level, their entrees will compete with those from the entire State of Montana. Good luck to both Sarah and Matthew.

Two Old Friends

Bryce Angell

I placed the saddle on his back, then pulled the cinch up tight. Old Cyruss turned and looked at me. He knew we'd be all right.
I'd seen that look a thousand times. We'd earned each other's trust. And at my age a gentle horse, for dang sure is a must.
Old Cyruss ain't no young one. I'd say prob'ly twenty-two. In human years we're 'bout the same. They say a rest is due.
I wonder if old Cyruss feels the stiffness from his age? The way my crooked fingers feel from rheumatism's rage.
It seems like only yesterday, when I went off to work. The old men called me youngster and that drove me plumb berserk.
But now I look at Cyruss. He and I have both grown old. And no one calls me youngster. It's the wrinkles, I've been told.
And Cyruss doesn't seem to have that spring left in his step. It's obvious the two of us have up and lost our pep.
Some cowboys say that when a horse has lost his usefulness, "Just take him to the sale. It's not a sign of selfishness."
I can't imagine any other fellow on my horse. The bond between a horse and rider shares a mighty force.
Old Cyruss has been good to me and I've been good to him. The chance of selling Cyruss, well I'd say it's mighty slim.
Most trainers tell you that a horse should never be a friend. I guess I broke that rule, 'cuz he's my friend right to the end.
And soon enough we'll turn him out to pasture for a time. I'll feed and keep him company and hope that God is kind.
And when I get so doggone old and need someone to care. I hope I'm treated kindly 'til I meet old Cyrus there

Natural Horsemanship instructor. The Challenge will consist of a ranch trail course. The colts that are a part of the class are quarter horses donated from ranches in Montana and across the Northwestern United States.

The Colt Sale, held on March 28, will feature the sale of the donated colts from the Sales Preparation Class that competed the previous day with their student. The sale preview will start at 10:00 a.m., followed by a luncheon from 11:30 a.m. – 12:45 p.m., sponsored by Karl Tyler's Beaverhead Motors, with the sale to commence at 1:00 p.m. Buyers from all over the United States travel to see the colts in the Montana Western Colt Challenge and Sale. All proceeds are reinvested in the program in order to provide scholarships to Natural Horsemanship majors at the University of Montana Western.

The Equine Studies Department at the University of Montana Western offers the nation's only Bachelor of Science degree in Natural Horsemanship with options in management, psychology, science and instruction, and was ranked among the "Best Equestrian Colleges" by ThoughtCo. com, an online education resource.

The Montana Center for Horsemanship is the first and only equine center in the United States that is devoted expressly to promoting 'Natural Horsemanship.' With its stables, arenas, riding areas, and instructors, the center serves as the primary facility and progressive teaching resource for Montana Western's Natural Horsemanship BS curriculum.

The MCH teaches the 'La Cense Method,' which was developed under William Kriegel, owner of La Cense Montana and Haras de la Cense in France. Mr. Kriegel is also co-founder of MCH, and he has been involved in Natural Horsemanship for many years. The La Cense Method is a progressive, step-by-step process that blends the best of traditional horsemanship training with the art of training and riding horses—all in a manner that works with a horse's behavior, instincts, and personality. Taking a positive and respectful approach, the La Cense Method gradually builds trust, and frees the horses to be confident in all they are asked to perform.

For more information about the Colt Challenge and Sale, please contact Head Natural Horsemanship Instructor Eric Hoffmann by email at eric.hoffmann@umwestern.edu or call 406-925-1499.
