Writer's workshop – a class held up at the college library for those wanting to know what it takes to be a writer. Had 3 authors attend: BJ Daniels, Leslie Budewitz and Allen Morris Jones

Fly Tying classes – a popular class that fills up fast. People can sign up and learn by hands-on experience how to tie flies. Have had several times.

Art classes – different classes with different artists have been held for those interested in learning different types of art with hands-on experience.

Makerspace – set up a separate space from library where children of all ages could go to create with many different tools and equipment. Legos, beads, computers, drones, movie making, painting, clay, sewing, tape, cardboard, etc., etc.

Polar Express Christmas movie for kids – has set up an annual event for community to attend the movie at the Depot and where they can wear the pajamas and have cocoa and cookies!

Teenage cook off – has had for the past few years, teams of teens compete against each other to see who has the best team of cooks.

Solar Eclipse Potluck – the year of the Solar Eclipse, the library hosted an enormous potluck with over 500 people attending and sharing potluck and a solar eclipse together.

Poker Run Float – put on a poker run float that came down the river, ending at Barretts Park with a BBQ.

Dolly Parton Imagination Library – started the program where children of Beaverhead County from 0 to 5 can receive a book for free every month.

Fundraisers;

Sing-A-Long – worked with everyone to do musical movies for the past 2 years that the community could

Escape rooms designed by library teenage patrons – worked with teenage and adult patrons to create an escape Room that the public could sign up to try to solve the clues to raise money

Continuing:

Books & Babies and Story Time – has kept these programs continuing after taking over as director. Making sure children from an early age has access to books and being read to.

Christmas Stroll – has continued the tradition, with Santa Claus, Mrs. Claus and now even the Grinch attending. Along with cocoa, cookies, and music!

Summer Reading Program for youth – continuing the program where hundreds of children sign up and have scheduled programs for most of the summer to help keep their active minds and bodies busy. As well as outside of Library activities she is on the ski patrol and EMT training. Along with raising an active family.

"We appreciate folks like Lori that focus their energy in positive ways to make Dillon a great place to raise our children and give back to our elders."

All Welcome!

Please Join US! How can we improve the economy in Dillon?

The Beaverhead Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture is pleased to present Steve Wahrlich from Billings MT. Steve will present and distribute materials on the Tourism Business Improvement District (TBID). A TBID would aid in tourism, promotion and marketing within the City of Dillon. The services provided through the district will benefit local tourism and lodging businesses.

Steve Wahrlich comes to us from Billings MT. Steve declares, "I put butts into beds." He has owned and operated hotels throughout the west since 1974. In 2005 he purchased and continues to operate the Best Western Plus ClockTower Inn in Billings, MT. Steve is also on the Montana Tourism Advisory Council.

THANK YOU

A massive Thank You to the Dillon Community.

Marty and Krystal would like to say thank you to everyone. We are so overwhelmed by the love and support Dillon has shown us. Kody was very loved.

From the cards, donations, food and flowers, we can't thank everyone enough. Hold your loved ones close and we hope you have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

HELP FAMILIES MAKE ENDS MEET
The Community Support Center (formerly the Women's Resource Center) is asking our community for assistance. We are in need of helping our families make ends meet during this holiday season. We are asking you to donate gas and grocery cards of $25 to $50 so that we can pass them on to those who need extra help making their Christmas all the merrier. We are unable to provide this assistance from our budget at this time and have several families that this small gift would benefit. Gift cards can be dropped off at the Community Support Center 236 E. Reeder St. For questions please contact Valerie, the Community Support Center's Victim Services Program Coordinator at 406-683-6106. We truly appreciate your generous spirit.
