Charles Monte Mort

Sept. 30, 1937 - Dec. 16, 2019

"Chuck" as most everyone knew him passed away early Sunday morning at Barrett Hospital with his wife Shirley at his side. He was born in Blythe, CA to Owen D. Mort and Arvetta May Cate, the youngest of three boys. Chuck married Karyl Lynn Wuench in Blythe in 1965 and they had one son Charles Mort Jr. They later divorced. He met Shirley Dingley Kimmey in Chico, CA in 1968. They married in 1969 and he became father to her two sons, Mark and Eric. Eric later had his name changed to Mort. Circumstances took them to a number of places; Dillon, Cheyenne, WY, Mesa, AZ, Lincoln and Marysville, CA and back to Montana. Chuck held jobs in a number of fields some of which include; auto mechanic, heavy equipment operator, member of a section crew on the railroad, millwrite at Stoltz in Dillon and Feather River Forest Products in Marysville, CA. Returning to Montana he studied to become a locksmith in Bozeman. Chuck and Shirley opened Paradise Locksmith Shop in Dillon in Dec. 1995. He sold the business to D.C. Rentals in 2012. Many will remember Chuck as the man who opened their cars when they locked their keys inside.

Chuck was preceded in death by his parents and brothers; George and Owen D. Mort Jr.

He is survived by his wife Shirley of Dillon, Son, Mark and wife Alice of Manhattan, NY, son Eric and wife Olga of Austin, TX, son, Charles Mort Jr. and wife Heidi of McMinnville, OR, grandson, Alex Kimmey and Alex's son Winton of Jacksonville, FL, granddaughters; Christina and Bethany Mort of WA and OR, Kira Mort Wilson of Lethbridge, Canada, Kayla and Tasha Mort of Austin, TX.

Cremation has taken place and no services are planned at this time. Plans are to do a scattering of ashes sometime in late spring or early summer. A guestbook is available online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

President Trump Cut Out

By: MJ

A couple weeks ago I was having lunch with several ladies at a restaurant.

I noticed a life size "cut out" of President Trump. It was positioned in an area that would not have been over whelming or obtrusive. It would have been your choice to sit where you were looking at the "cut out" or sit where it was out of your viewing area. It was a pleasure to see a political statement that was spotless with no personal opinions of ugliness and obscenities wrote all over it. It could have been just what was needed to start a conversation around the table while waiting for food to be served.

Of course, there is always two sides to every coin. On one side of this coin is an entrepreneur making jobs available, paying taxes, providing a service to the public by providing a convenience store with restaurant and more. On the other side of the coin is personal opinions by people who have no vested interest in the business. Beings this business serves the public the public has a choice as to whether they want to patronize the business or not. End choice is always ours to make.

Regardless of your political views it was refreshing to see an ad that was not full of atrocities, hurtful, ugly, demeaning and destructive opinions. It was merely a factual "cut out" of the President of the United States of America.

Note: The First Amendment to the United States Constitution is a part of the United States Bill of Rights that protects freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom of assembly, freedom of the press, and right to petition.

HEAVY LOAD

By "Swede" Troedsson

From 1965 to 1994, I was stationed in the Beaverhead National Forest Supervisor's Office in Dillon. My main duty was assisting Ranger Districts in timber sale preparation and administration.

Late one fall in the 1970s, I was assisting Ray Franks, the Jackson District Assistant Ranger, in laying out a timber sale in Dry Creek. Dry Creek is just north of Big Lake Creek, in the West Big Hole. I happened to mention to the forest game biologist, Mike Rath, that we had seen a lot of fresh elk sign in the proposed sale area. Mike got excited and wanted to take annual leave and return with us to hunt elk in the area.

The next day Mike and I drove from Dillon, picked up Ray at the Jackson Ranger Station, and returned to Dry Creek. We split up. Ray and I working on preparing the sale, and Mike taking off to hunt elk. By mid-afternoon we heard a rifle shot north of us. When we caught up with Mike, he told us that he was squatting, "taking care of business", when a cow elk wandered by him. He grabbed his rifle, and shot the elk.

We assisted Mike in dressing out and quartering the elk. It was a little over a mile to the truck. After lashing a front quarter to a Kelty pack frame, we took turns packing each one to the truck. By the time we got the second quarter to the truck, daylight was fading fast. Desperate to beat the dark, we returned to the kill site and lashed BOTH hind quarters onto the pack frame. Mike and I could only walk about 500 yards with the heavy load before we had to switch off. We placed the load on Ray. Ray went about 50 yards and collapsed. Ray, a 120 lb. pin butt, was pinned to the ground by the load. We picked up the load off Ray, and Mike and I completed the pack out.

When we returned to the ranger station, we weighed the last load on a spring scale in the warehouse. It weighed 117 lbs.! My thighs were sore for several days afterward.

Shortly thereafter, I wrote a letter to the Kelty company requesting some parts for the pack frame. In the letter I mentioned our elk pack out, and stated that their pack frame held up a lot better than we did.

The Kelty company replied, thanking me for my letter, and included, free of charge, the parts I had requested. I wonder if my letter ended up being posted on the company bulletin board.

Southwest Montana Veteran's Home. #28

By Mike Lawson

Greetings, our Vet Home Site was one busy place this past week. There were as many as 17 carpenters working there at one time. They were broken into crews working on the Community Building, Cottage #1, Cottage #2 and even Cottage #3. I talked with Construction Site Superintendent Mike Ascherman to get the inside scoop on what actually was worked on. This information is as Follows;

Community Center Building: The roofing underpayment is on and the asphalt shingles are being installed.

The painters were too have finished spraying the fireproof painting, on the inside of the building. Plumbers were doing rough-in plumbing as the interior framing is pretty much done. The "Portico", which is a structure consisting of a roof supported by columns and attached to our 'Community Center' building, has the big laminated roof support beams in place.

Cottage #1: All roof trusses have been installed and some of the fire treated plywood has been laid/nailed on the north and west roof surface sides. Most of the interior framing is completed and the dry-in is close. The plumbers are starting their rough-in plumbing.

Cottage #2: Most of the exterior walls are standing and the rest should be up this week.

Cottage #3: Good news in that the carpenters are starting to lay out the walls. Cottage #4: On hold and curing. Cottage #5: On hold and curing.

Talked with our Liaison, Mark Gollinger. He traveled to the Veterans Rest Home in Glendive, Mt., and gained some valuable insights. One of the important things he saw there, was the importance of the volunteers of the Veteran's Foundation. The quality of the Veteran's lives at that Vet Home was improved by the activities these Foundation Volunteers provided on a continuous basis. Some of these are as follows; (1) TV's for all the veteran's rooms (2) Paid for Cable TV (3) supported/provided recreational activities, (4) Visitation. The Veteran Foundation there, have some donors who contribute on an annual/ monthly basis and are able to provide enhancements for a greater quality of life for the Veteran's living there.

The SW MT Veteran's Foundation is a reality. It's registered with the State Of Montana as a non-profit organization and has the following in place or in the process of getting put in place: (1) Registered with the MT. Secretary of State and Mt. Dept of Revenue (2) Has a Federal EIN (3) In the process of getting a 501 C3. (4) Has a Slate of Officers/Trustees & registered members.

Thank you

A huge thank you to everyone that came together during our time of need in order to lessen our stress load during the upcoming months. We want to personally thank those that put together the benefit for us, Becky McGraw, Jackie Sutton, Jamie Kellogg, Jennifer Wellman and Kiley Martineil. We also want to thank everyone who donated different items for the benefit such as food, drinks, plates, cups, napkins, table cloths, and the live & silent auction items. A huge thank you to everyone who has made monetary donations, small or big, they will all help us out tremendously in the days to come. We are so blessed to live in such of a loving and caring community. From the meals dropped off to the prayers sent, words cannot express how grateful we are for everything. May the Lord's blessings bestow upon each of you in return for all that you have done for us.

Love,

Randy & Penny Bernard
