Woman charged with negligent homicide in Butte arrested in Maine

Audria Nickerson, 30, who is charged with negligent homicide in the death of her five-month-old daughter in Butte, was arrested Saturday night in the small town of Strong, Maine.

An arrest warrant with a bond amount of $250,000 was issued Dec. 12 for Nickerson and distributed nationwide.

Nickerson was found Sept. 25 slumped over her infant daughter in her car near the Butte-Silver Bow Police Department.

Nickerson had methamphetamine in her system, according to law enforcement.

Butte-Silver Bow Sheriff Ed Lester said Monday that U.S. marshals and Franklin County officers in Maine took Nickerson into custody without incident.

Lester said Nickerson will make her first court appearance in Franklin County sometime Monday, and the extradition process will begin.

Local Author Signing books at The Bookstore

Dillon author, Rene Oram will be signing copies of her books, Amber's Journey and Jake at The Bookstore on Saturday, December 21st. Rene is Montana native, raised in Anaconda and has called Dillon home for the past 19 years. Along with writing she also enjoys knitting, quilting and painting (acrylic) wildlife on wood.

Amber's Journey is a love story. Amber sets out across country in a covered wagon with her family. Ambushed by the Cherokee tribe, she is left all alone when she just witnessed the tragic brutal deaths of her parents. Through fate and circumstance, she meets and falls in love with Joe. He's handsome and suave, her savior, a gentleman. With Amber, so very young and naive, they face a journey that holds many trials and tribulations.

Jake is a humorous story. Jake is an old man, and his only friend is his dog, Sure Foot. He is telling all of us his life story and the many jobs he had through his life, and he can't understand why he can't hang onto one for any length of time. He tells how he started out with nothing and ended up a very rich man even though he ended up a lonely old man. Jake has a witty, charming way of speaking that just makes you laugh out loud at his sense of humor. If you have a sense of humor, you will truly appreciate this book.

Attorney General Fox Announces Successful Prosecution of Medicaid Provider Fraud Case

Attorney General Tim Fox announced that a Seeley Lake chiropractor who recently pleaded guilty to defrauding Montana's Medicaid program will pay $100,000 in restitution.

On September 25, 2019, the Montana Attorney General's Office charged Dr. Andrew Lance Bohlman, 48, in Missoula County District Court with one count of Medicaid Fraud by common scheme, a felony.

"We all have an interest in making sure taxpayer dollars are spent as they should be," said Attorney General Tim Fox. "I commend our Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, our Division of Criminal Investigation, and Assistant Attorney General Mike Gee for protecting Montana's public resources and securing a sentence tailored to both punish and rehabilitate this health care provider."

On October 15, 2019, the defendant entered a guilty plea before Missoula County District Court Judge Jason Marks. After a pre-sentence investigation was conducted, the defendant was sentenced on December 2, 2019 to six years at the Montana State Prison, deferred, and placed on supervised probation. Bohlman was also ordered to pay $100,000 in restitution to the Montana Medicaid Program in addition to other court ordered fees.

The investigation by the Montana Department of Justice's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (MFCU) began after Blue Cross Blue Shield made a referral in September 2016 to MFCU as well as the Surveillance and Utilization Review Section at the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services. Both state agencies began simultaneous investigations. Data review and interviews with patients and their parents revealed that from at least January 2012 to January 2016, Bohlman billed Medicaid almost exclusively for two types of chiropractic treatments on almost every single patient on every single visit. Both of the services have high-paying reimbursement rates.

Not only were some patients seeing Bohlman for ailments other than those related to their backs, but he was also billing for treatments that occurred when the patients weren't there, were no longer patients, or prior to ever meeting them. Additionally, when asked by MFCU investigators to provide treatment documentation, Bohlman was only able to submit 51 valid and accurate medical records for over 1,700 dates of service.

On December 8, 2016, Medicaid payments to Bohlman were suspended as a result of DPHHS's confidence that his billings were fraudulent. By that point, Bohlman had received at least $100,000 worth of public assistance monies based on the Medicaid claims he submitted.

Fox added, "The Montana Department of Justice will continue to seek out abuse of our public programs, and vigorously prosecute those who defraud the system. I encourage anyone who suspects Medicaid provider fraud to call our hotline at 1-(800)-376-1115."

RED HAT SOCIETY NEWS

On Wednesday, December 18, Mary Staples and Irene Nesgoda co-hosted the Christmas gift exchange activity at the Bicentennial Apartments for the Red Hat Belles. The tables were beautifully decorated with a Christmas theme. Each lady received a large Christmas oven mitt with candies inside from Mary and Irene, so that all the ladies would have a door prize.

Alyce Wassail gave her report on the donations collected for the Beaverhead Animal Shelter and then took up another donation for this worthwhile cause.

After lunch and a great deal of socialization, it was time for the gifts. Each gift had been given a number as it was put on the table. The ladies drew numbers for these gifts. Irene and Mary played Santa Claus, matching each ladies' number with the number on the gift. It was a fun time and everyone seemed pleased with their gift.

We want to thank the Bicentennial for the use of their Day Room. A special thank you to our co hostesses, Irene and Mary. They not only decorated the tables beautifully, but they furnished us with delicious hors d'oeuvres, beverages and dessert as well.

Fox Statement on Affordable Care Act Ruling

Attorney General Tim Fox issued the following statement regarding the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals ruling striking down the Affordable Care Act's individual mandate:

"The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit did what I asked it to do: hold Obamacare's individual mandate unconstitutional while protecting insurance coverage for the approximately 150,000 Montanans with pre-existing medical conditions. I will continue to fight for Montanans to ensure that the rule of law prevails, as it did today."

In April, Montana and Ohio filed an amicus brief in the case Texas vs. United States, arguing that the Affordable Care Act's individual mandate is unconstitutional but, as a point of law, is severable from the other provisions of the Act such as protections for pre-existing conditions.

Montana's amicus brief is available online here: <https://dojmt.gov/wp-content/uploads/MT-amicus-04012019.pdf>

The Fifth Circuit Court ruling is available online here: <http://www.ca5.uscourts.gov/opinions/pub/19/19-10011-CV0.pdf>

Trump Impeached for Abuse of Power

According to an article in the New York Times, Trump was Impeached for Abuse of Power and Obstruction of Congress Voting nearly along party lines, the House approved two articles of impeachment against President Trump, making him the third president in history to face removal by the Senate.

On a day of constitutional consequence and raging partisan tension, the votes on the two articles of impeachment fell largely along party lines, after a bitter debate that stretched into the evening and reflected the deep polarization gripping American politics in the Trump era.

Only two Democrats opposed the article on abuse of power, which accused Mr. Trump of corruptly using the levers of government to solicit election assistance from Ukraine in the form of investigations to discredit his Democratic political rivals. Republicans were united in opposition. It passed 230 to 197, with Speaker Nancy Pelosi gaveling the vote to a close from the House rostrum.

On the second charge, obstruction of Congress, a third Democrat joined Republicans in opposition. The vote was 229 to 198.

The impeachment votes set the stage for a historic trial beginning early next year in the Senate, which will have final say — 10 months before Mr. Trump faces re-election — on whether to acquit the 45th president or convict and remove him from office. The timing was uncertain, after Ms. Pelosi suggested late Wednesday that she might wait to send the articles to the Senate, holding them out as leverage in a negotiation on the terms of a trial.

Acquittal in the Republican-controlled chamber may be likely, but the proceeding is certain to further aggravate the political and cultural fault lines in the country that Mr. Trump's presidency has brought into dramatic relief. Regardless of the outcome, the impeachment votes in the House put an indelible stain on Mr. Trump's presidency that cannot be wiped from the public consciousness with a barrage of tweets or an angry tirade in front of thousands of his cheering supporters at a campaign rally.

On Wednesday, Democrats characterized his impeachment as an urgent action to stop a corrupt president whose misdeeds had unfolded in plain view from damaging the United States any further.

Far from showing contrition or contemplating resignation, as his predecessors have done in the face of impeachment, Mr. Trump instead offered an indignant defense as the House weighed his fate, raging on Twitter from the White House.

Personal note: If democrats characterized his impeachment as an urgent action why would Ms. Pelosi suggest that she might wait to send the articles to the Senate, holding them out as leverage in a negotiation on the terms of a trial. What - just wait more time and money? So many Americans would like to move on to anything else!!!!!!

Bible Truth... About who the newborn Jesus Christ was

Statement of belief: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God..." (2 Timothy 3:16-17), thus all beliefs in conflict with the scripture, God's holy word, are false.

The virgin birth of Christ was a miraculous event, but the biblical record reveals that a much greater miracle was that the virgin born child was "Immanuel...God with us," Matthew 1:23.

To think that God, the Creator, could live in a human body seems impossible to man's thinking because we are extremely limited in understanding things beyond the scope of human history and experience.

Another thing we know from the Bible that is hard to understand is that Jesus Christ and God are one, but the following scriptures verify this fact:

John 1:1-3, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made." Creation being attributed to God in Genesis 1:1 and to Christ in John 1:1-3 verify that, though men may not understand it completely, Jesus Christ & God are one.

NOTE: Since Christ was the creator and there in the beginning He couldn't have possibly been a created being.

Hebrews 1:3 states that Jesus was, "...the express image [exact expression] of his [God's] person...."

In Colossians 2:9 the Apostle Paul wrote, "For in him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily [in bodily form]."

Colossians 1:14 refers to Jesus as "...the image [likeness, representation] of the invisible God...."

Jesus clarifies the fact that He and the Father are the same in John 14:9, "He that has seen me has seen the Father...."

Philippians 2:6 & 8 declares that Christ, "being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: ...And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross."

Honoring Christ from a Biblical perspective means we must accept Him as both Creator & Savior who took the form of sinful man, died on the cross & rose again to provide the greatest gift any man could receive...the eternal salvation of the soul.

Thank you

A huge thank you to everyone that came together during our time of need in order to lessen our stress load during the upcoming months. We want to personally thank those that put together the benefit for us, Becky McGraw, Jackie Sutton, Jamie Kellogg, Jennifer Wellman and Kiley Martinell. We also want to thank everyone who donated different items for the benefit such as food, drinks, plates, cups, napkins, table cloths, and the live & silent auction items. A huge thank you to everyone who has made monetary donations, small or big, they will all help us out tremendously in the days to come. We are so blessed to live in such of a loving and caring community. From the meals dropped off to the prayers sent, words cannot express how grateful we are for everything. May the Lord's blessings bestow upon each of you in return for all that you have done for us.

Love,
Kandy & Pandy Bernard
