Clifford Marion Shipp

The Risk of Love is Loss, and the price of loss is grief - But the pain of grief is only a shadow when compared with the pain of never risking love. (Hilary Stanton Zunin)

Clifford Marion Shipp departed this life on 18 December, 2019. The oldest son of Virgil and Inez Shipp, Clifford was born on 21 February, 1930 in Mineola, Texas. After graduating from high school in Orange, Texas, Clifford attended North Texas State University earning both a Bachelor's and Master's degree in 1952. Clifford served his country in the United States Air Force during the Korean War attaining the rank of CW2, leading the United States Air Force Band and establishing a life-long friendship with a now renowned composer by the name of John Williams. After returning to civilian life Clifford went on to earn a PhD at North Texas State University in 1960.

In 1962 Clifford transitioned to Fulton, Missouri where he accepted an appointment as Professor of Music at William Woods College where he remained for 21 years serving in various positions including Academic Dean and Executive Vice President.

In 1967 Clifford married the love of his life, Mary Jane McCoy. The couple shared a love of music, travel and the outdoors. Over the course of their 52 years of marriage, Clifford and Jane raised their children, taking the family on many camping and fishing trips across the United States, established a love (and talent) for gardening and continued to share the musical talents they both embraced.

Following his tenure at William Woods College, Clifford transitioned to St. Louis Conservatory and Schools for the Arts in 1983 to lead the institution as President. Clifford remained in St Louis for six years, at which time he accepted an appointment as Dean of the College of Arts and Architecture and later Executive Director, Montana State University Foundation in Bozeman, Montana. In 1998 Clifford retired and devoted his early retirement years to growing hundreds of peonies at the home in Bozeman.

In 2003, Clifford and Jane moved to Dillon, Montana where he supported Jane in her ministry as Rector of St. James Episcopal Church, frequently playing the piano during services. Even when age and later, dementia began to limit his activities and abilities, he continued to find peace and joy playing the piano. In May, 2016, Clifford moved to the Legacy in Dillon, Montana and to the delight of many of the residents, shared his musical talent on a regular basis.

Over the last three years of his life, dementia took much from Clifford, but what remained constant was his love for Jane, his children and his Faith.

In addition to his wife Jane, Clifford is survived by his son Joseph Michael (Lesa) of Joint Base Andrews, MD, daughter Elizabeth (Katrina) of Johnson City, TN, grandchildren Ben (Amanda), Emily Nelson (Dane), Kloe Midkiff (Austin) and Guthrie (Ashlee) and eight great grandchildren (with another on the way!). Clifford is also survived by his younger brother John (Betty), their two children Paul and Adrienne Rhoads (Colin) and their two children as well as a cousin Jonathan W. Shipp of Payson, AZ.

The family would like to thank the Staff of the Legacy for their compassionate care of Clifford during his final years; their love for him was obvious. Heartfelt gratitude is also extended to Barrett Hospital Hospice for the comfort and care provided during his last months and days.

A service of the Burial of the Dead and Holy Eucharist will be celebrated on January 21, 2020, at 1:30 PM, at St. James Episcopal Church, Dillon, Montana.

Southwest Veterans Home Update □29

By Mike Lawson

Greetings once again to you, the Veterans/Counties/Communities who are the six counties in SW Montana who are represented as the organizers and chief supporters of the "SW MT Veterans Home".

The Christmas Season is upon us with all the company parties, family get togethers, etc., etc.. This week of Christmas will see the the "Markovich Construction Crew", working on our Vet Home, work for 1 & 1/2 days before Christmas, with the rest of the week off to be with family and friends. With New Years Day being on Wednesday, the following week will see the Crew working 2 days before and 2 days after New Years Day. Then the work will go full force with the new year coming in. Remember that September 30th is the completion date for our "SW MT VET HOME", and there's a lot of work to do between now and then.

Talked with Construction Superintendent Mike Ascherman about this weeks work before Christmas. They had some of the crew members off sick, which always slows things down, but it was still impressive what got done. It breaks down like this:

Community Center Building; "The Portico" had the roof trusses installed and then prepared for the eve work which will be followed by the roof plywood sheeting. The main roof is seeing a sub-contractor, continuing to install the asphalt shingles. This is really giving a finished look to this building. The inside will continue to get the different construction phases worked on as this will be the first building to be completed.

Cottage #1; The roof and eaves are continuing to be worked on and are near completion. The roof underlayment and shingles will follow. The inside will, like the Community Center, continue to go through the construction phases to bring this building to completion.

Cottage #2; This building has seen all the exterior walls erected except for one corner. Interior walls are being being erected. Lots of work involved with this the wall framing process. Mike expects to see the roof trusses installed either the first or second week in January. The excitement continues to build as we see each phase come together.

Cottage #3; the floors are being laid and walls being put together to be erected in the next week or two. As the work advances on the other buildings, more of the carpenters will be moved over to this building.

Our SW MT VET Liaison Mark Gollinger is working on the unseen aspect of our Vet Home.

This is getting the pieces of the puzzle together for the eventual operation by the contractor who is awarded the bid to run it. The key thing he is addressing are REP'S (Requests for Proposals) which involves the money items that are needed to go into each of the buildings once the construction is completed. Included in this is furniture, equipment of various kinds, and the list goes on. Once these REPs are approved by the state, then they become ready for procurement and will be part of the "Contractor Bid Package" to operate this Veteran Facility. He hopes to have this process completed within in the next few weeks. He also works on many other aspects of our vet home to potentially make it the best Vet Home ever. When they become a reality, he'll give us the green light to know what they are. Glad this retired Navy Senior Master Chief is our Liaison and has the Veteran's best interests at heart.

I made a mistake and need to correct the website address, that I gave you last week. It is as follows; SWMVH.MT.gov

The Viewing Hooch has had a lot of use this past week, which is great. Stop by and visit.

I'll end with wishing you all a very Merry Christmas. Take care and enjoy the holidays.

State health officials launch public health campaign to raise awareness of rising STD rates

State health officials report the upward trend over the past several years of sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) in Montana are now reaching record highs.

For example, gonorrhea rates have been increasing over the past seven years, and are now projected to reach nearly 1,500 cases in 2019. DPHHS STD/ HIV program manager Dana Fejes said the gonorrhea numbers haven't been this high in 40 years. Other STDs like syphilis and chlamydia has also been increasing, despite the availability of free prevention supplies and information on safe sex. Cascade and Yellowstone County have been impacted the most by gonorrhea and syphilis in 2019.

"This is very concerning," Fejes said. "And the reason we're concerned is because of the serious health consequences that can occur to an individual with an STD if left untreated. Some people are at greater risks for complications, such as those who have a suppressed immune system and pregnant women. Sometimes, there are no symptoms and the infection is spread to others unknowingly."

In addition, people with an STD may be at an increased risk of getting HIV. This is because the same behaviors and circumstances that may put someone at risk for getting an STD also puts them at greater risk for getting HIV. Having unprotected sex, with multiple or anonymous partners, increases the likelihood that someone might get infected.

Fejes notes the increase is not unique to Montana. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), syphilis and gonorrhea reports are the highest nationwide since 1991.

Public health officials said social media is also playing a role. Social media platforms and anonymous sex have further complicated the ability to reach partners to get them tested and treated. This is a necessary step to stop further infections. To keep up with the increase of online dating, local and state partners are reaching out on social media to urge sexually active persons to get tested for STDs and stay safe.

Local disease trends are posted on the DPHHS website at STDFree.mt.gov to remind everyone that STDs are not a thing of the past. The new public health campaign was created to raise awareness about the rising STDs in Montana. Free awareness materials are being provided to various local STD and through HIV outreach contractors.

Fejes reminds everyone that STDs are entirely preventable and even though some activities can pose greater risks, there are things that everyone can do to stay healthy:

1. Talk to your health care provider about STD testing. Take charge of your own health, get tested and treated correctly. Find free or low-cost testing locations at GetTested.MT.gov
 2. Learn about STDs and how to avoid them at STDFree.MT.gov.
 3. The most reliable way to avoid infection is to not have sex.
 4. Reduce your number of partners and talk about sexual health with your partners.
 5. Use protection correctly every time. Synthetic non-latex condoms can be used for those who have latex allergies.
 6. Visit your local STD clinics, outreach workers or health departments to learn more, grab some free stuff and get the conversation started with friends.
 7. Visit DPHHS on Facebook, like and share our Public Health in the 406 #GetTestedMT messages.
- It only takes simple steps to stop STDs from spreading. Many local resources are available with little to no cost.

Christmas Eve with Grandma

By: Bryce Angell

Each Christmas Eve our grandma's home was filled with family. We all knew what the next day was and waited anxiously.

The house smelled like a juniper, her Christmas tree of choice. She would always hug and kiss us. How I loved to hear her voice.

Grandma hung her Christmas stockings high up on a wire. She said, "The mantle is too warm. They might just catch on fire."

We opened presents, feasted, and then we sang a Christmas song. The special night was here that we had waited all year long.

Grandma told us Santa Claus would soon be on his way. Rudolph and the other reindeer pulled the toy-filled sleigh.

Then Grandma said, "Do you know why we have a Christmas day? It's the birthday of our Savior, who was born so far away."

She talked about the little child and of his humble birth. Then told us how the angels sang of love and peace on earth.

I loved to hear my grandma tell the story every year. I know why there is Christmas 'cuz she made it very clear.

Those Christmas Eves were years ago. I've grandkids of my own. But I'll cherish all those memories, no matter how I've grown.

We buy our children Christmas gifts, but really of what worth? Maybe we should ask their grandma, "Teach them of His birth."

From our family we send wishes for a Christmas of good cheer. Let's resolve to make the next twelve months the very best New Year.
