Joseph F. Carroll, 97

Joe Carroll passed on December 21, 2019. He was born on October 2, 1922 to William and Louise Carroll. His mother passed shortly after he was born. His Aunt Mayme Madden Purdy along with her daughter Mary Louise took care of him.

On June 9, 1926 Bill and Mayme married. Joe attended school in Dillon and spent summers on the Carroll ranch in the Big Hole. He graduated from BCHS in 1940. He was attending Montana State College when the bombing of Pearl Harbor occurred.

He enlisted in the Army Air Corps and trained as a flight engineer and top turret gunner, graduating near the top of his class, which automatically assigned him to the 379th Bomb Group which was based near Kimbolton, England. He completed 36 missions and received 7 air medals.

In 1947, he married Genevieve "Judy" Browning. They had seven children who survive him. They divorced in 1978. Later he married Edna Collins. They divorced. While working on a ranch in Idaho, he met Helen McNelly. They were a couple in Pocatello until her passing in 2013.

While living in Pocatello, he wrote his war memoir, "A While in the Wild Blue", in collaboration with his son Bill. While living in Idaho, he became active in Alcoholics Anonymous. After her passing, he returned to Dillon.

In 2017, he was the recipient of the French Legion of Honor Medal. He was also honored with a bronze plaque at the Southwest Montana Veterans Memorial Park. He loved to read, write letters, play card games, carve wood, and tell stories.

He is survived by seven children: William Peter (Dana), Marie Theresa (George Holt), Patrick John (Carol), Michael Thomas, Shawn, Maureen (Lee Halpin) and Charles; grandchildren: Keely, Caitlin (Ian Lyon), Colleen (Braden Leonard), Erin, Lindsay, Grady Holt (Stacey Terrill) and step grandson Austin Diaz. One great-grandson, Marshal Holt and a step great-granddaughter Elizabeth Terrill. He is also survived by his sister Ann (Gile Mitchell), a niece and four nephews. A grandson, John Joseph Winterrowd preceded him in death.

Miles City Woman Pleads Guilty to Elder Exploitation

DOJ's Division of Criminal Investigation Provided Audit that Lead to Successful Prosecution

Attorney General Tim Fox announced that a Miles City woman who recently pleaded guilty to exploitation of an older person received a suspended sentence and was ordered to pay more than $94,000 in restitution to her victim's estate.

Del Linda Frost, 60, of Miles City was arraigned on charges of theft of property by embezzlement and the exploitation of an older person, both felonies, on January 3, 2019 in Montana's 16th Judicial District Court. At a change of plea hearing on October 28, 2019, Frost pleaded guilty to exploitation of Arthur Yamada, now deceased, in Custer County between March 10, 2014 and March 14, 2018. At a sentencing hearing on December 16, 2019, Judge Michael Hayworth ordered Frost to pay $94,075 in restitution and sentenced her to ten years in Montana State Prison, suspended.

"This case was especially troublesome, given that the defendant worked in a law office and should have had the best interests of Mr. Yamada in mind when she was appointed as his conservator," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "Instead of acting conscientiously, Ms. Frost viewed Mr. Yamada as a tempting target and began embezzling his life savings almost immediately. Financial exploitation of seniors is a serious crime; one we must all guard against. I commend the nursing home business manager who alerted authorities when she suspected something was wrong, as well as my Division of Criminal Investigation's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit and the Custer County Attorney's Office for their diligent work on this case," Fox added.

Frost was appointed temporary full conservator of Yamada on March 10, 2014; she became his permanent co-conservator on January 22, 2016. On August 23, 2017, the business manager of the nursing home where Yamada lived informed Miles City police that an $8,400 check from Yamada written by Frost had bounced. Frost wrote two more checks totaling $14,382 to the nursing home; those checks also failed to clear. Additionally, Frost wrote several checks from Yamada's checking account for cash, which emptied the account and left Yamada unable to pay for his care. Frost also closed two certificates of deposit totaling almost $40,000. To cover the loss, Frost transferred funds from Yamada's other bank accounts. To explain the checks issued for cash, Frost claimed they were for Yamada's monthly allowance and items for his personal use. Frost was unable to explain why nearly $94,000 was missing, and resigned as Yamada's co-conservator on March 14, 2018. Yamada died on August 2, 2018 at the age of 97.

The investigation by the Montana Department of Justice's Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) began on October 17, 2017, when the Miles City Police Department requested assistance from DCI's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit. "The Custer County Attorney's Office and I thank Auditor Cody Strietzel and Supervising Agent Debrah Fosket of DCI's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit for their detailed audit report," said Deputy Custer County Attorney Shawn Quinlan. "Their audit of Mr. Yamada's finances demonstrated that Ms. Frost issued checks for 'cash' in the amount of $94,075 from Mr. Yamada's financial institutions that was unaccounted for, which ultimately allowed us to charge and successfully prosecute this exploitation case," Quinlan added.

Background:

In 1995, the Montana Legislature created the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, which became operational the following year. The MFCU is dedicated to investigating Medicaid patients' quality of care and ensuring public funds go only to those health care providers who provide legitimate services.

Medicaid is a jointly funded, federal-state health insurance program for low-income people. It covers children, the aged, blind, and/or disabled and other people who are eligible to receive federally assisted income maintenance payments. Medicaid provider fraud occurs when a Medicaid provider knowingly makes, or causes to be made, a false or misleading statement or representation for use in obtaining reimbursement from the Medicaid program. A "provider" refers to doctors, hospitals, dentists, clinics, counselors, or any other entity that Medicaid pays to serve its members

DODGING CRANES
By "Swede" Troedsson

During the period 1975 - 1990, my duties on the Beaverhead National Forest (BNF) included supervising the forest aviation program. This assignment included administering the contract with the Dillon Flying Service, who provided aircraft and pilots for fire detection flights, transportation of our personnel to assignments on fires, and administrative flights for resource specialists, and Rangers.

I thought it would be desirable to have access to some airfields approved for our use along the south rim of our forest. These could be used for aircraft support to fires, rescue, or other administrative activities in the area.

In the late 1970's I requested that a Forest Service pilot fly down from Missoula to inspect airports located in the Centennial Valley, Horse Prairie, the Red Rock Lakes National Wildlife Refuge (NWR), and Raynolds Pass, just north of Henry's Lake, and adjacent to Highway 87.

Pilot Bob Nicol flew down in a Cessna 206 with a STOL (Short Takeoff Or Landing) kit to inspect the airports. The airport on the north side of the Centennial Valley, near Metzel Cr., was owned by Byron Martinell, and was approved for our use. (It was later used during a back country rescue. This was mentioned in the story Primate Pills). The airport in Horse Prairie was owned by John Morse, and was approved for our use, as were the airports near Raynolds Pass, and on the NWR.

The airport on the south side of the Centennial Valley was owned by Sam Brenneman, a rancher, and former pilot and aircraft owner. The runway was bordered on both sides by marsh and scrub land, and appeared to be smooth, with adequate length. As we flared to land, about a dozen sand hill cranes jumped out of their nests in panic, and crossed back and forth in front of us. We threaded our way through them, almost colliding with one. After landing, we exited the aircraft. We could hear a cacophony of crane calls from their nests adjacent to the runway. Hitting one of those BIG birds may have ended our flying that day.

Our departure was the shortest takeoff possible! This airport WAS NOT approved for our use.

The Beaverhead Community Food Pantry sends a huge

Thank You!!!

to all of the businesses and citizens who donated to our local Food Pantry. Your generosity helped us bring in enough donations to maximize the equally generous Town Pump donation, which matches your contributions, dollar for dollar.

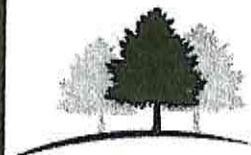

Thanks to all the donations we received during 2019 we were able to purchase a new walk-in cooler/freezer which was truly needed.

We are grateful to all who donated and those that donate and collect food throughout the year for our Pantry.

We truly appreciate each and every one of you.
