Sandra Kay Martin

Sandra Kay Martin was born May 13 1954 in Logan, Utah to Frank and Marion Padrotti. As a child her family moved to Montana. In 1973 Sandy married John Lenegar. They had four children together, Shaun, Crystal, Bobby, and Julie. Sandy loved spending time outdoors with her family camping, fishing and hunting. She enjoyed anything where she could spend time with family.

After moving on in her life, Sandy met her second husband, Bill Martin of Helena.

Together they were inseparable until Bill's untimely death. They loved doing anything outdoors together, traveling and spending time with family.

In her later years, Sandy enjoyed watching NASCAR, and football. She enjoyed anything that would allow her time to be with family.

Sandy fell to sleep in death on December 24, 2019, after battling ovarian cancer for over three years. Her fight is now over and she can rest easy. Her vibrant fiery spirit will be missed, but lives on in our memories. A special thanks goes to St. Peter Healthcare Oncology for making the end of Sandy's life great and for everything they did.

She is preceded in death by Frank (Dad) and Marion (Mom) Padrotti. Bill Martin (Husband) and Bobby John Lenegar (Son).

She leaves behind son Shaun Lenegar, daughters Crystal Lenegar and Julie Long, brothers Terry Padrotti and Frank Padrotti, Sister Pat Maki, and nine grandchildren, several nieces and nephews, and many friends.

A memorial service will be held on January 3, 2020 at 10:30 A.M. at Brundage Funeral Home in Dillon, with a reception to follow at the Beaverhead River Cowboy Church.

htpdillon@qwestoffice.net • (406) 683-9844New Year's Eve Challenge

By: Bryce Angell

My wife gave me a challenge, last year on New Year's Eve, to welcome in a brand new year. I must have been naïve. 'Cuz I usually go to bed the same time chickens do at night. So for me to stay up late at night was really going to bite. I hoped to stay awake by drinking caffeinated drinks; and drove on down to Wal Mart for my favorite smokie links. My wife bought cheese and crackers and we made her onion dip. Was I ready for the evening? I had to get a grip. It was only four more hours that I'd need to stay awake. But my eyes were getting sleepy. How much more could I take? So at nine o'clock I ate the smokies, crackers and the cheese. Then I drank down all the soda pop. Those drinks were just a tease. At ten o'clock my eyelids felt like they should go to sleep. I realized this challenge was a little bit too steep. At eleven sharp I closed my eyes to get a wink or two. It seems those winks turned out to be a little more than few. I thought I heard my wife say, "Hon it's almost twelve o'clock." I swear it felt like dreaming. I was sleeping like a rock. When I woke and looked around the room, I'd somehow climbed in bed. And then I heard my wife exclaim, "Good morning sleepy head." How does a husband live it down? A wife just seems to know. She'd warned me not to close my eyes. Now she's saying, "Told you so." I hope I stop accepting every challenge from my wife. I know I should resist. It always seems to cause me strife. So next year when it's New Year's Eve, it won't be such a shock. There'll be no celebrating and in bed at eight o'clock.

Greeting once again to you, the Veterans/Counties/has the eve work about completed and is ready for the roof covering underlayment put down, followed by the asphalt shingles. Inside work by sub-contractors continues as it's in the dry-in mode. Remember this is the building where all the offices will be and will be the first to be completed. Liaison Mark Gollinger knows where his office will be located and is chomping at the bit for the day he can move in.

Cottage #1: This building is seeing it's roof being completed and the roof sub-contractors putting the roofing underlayment and shingles down. The dry in process is taking place (may be done) where the visqueen plastic sheeting is over the doors and windows. This enables the plumbers and other sub-contractors to work in a dry environment. Good pictures on the Southwest Vet Home Web-site on the up to date progress. SWMVH.MT.gov

Cottage #2; The interior walls/framing continues and the roof trusses will soon be put in place. More will be able to reported on next week.

Cottage #3; Layout and wall framing is taking place on this building. If some of these exterior walls aren't standing when this article comes out, they will be shortly after.

Cottage #4 and #5 are on hold and curing.

Before signing off, I would again stress the importance the SW MT Veteran's Home Foundation is going to play, in making our Resident Veterans lives better while being in our Veteran Home. Working in partnership with the state, the VA and you, who are part of the Foundation, will be a winning combination, for sure. Realize that we need you, to be part of our SW MT Veteran Home Foundation, whether you're a veteran or not.
One lady said recently, "Wouldn't it be a nice thing to have a "Veteran's Mining City Christmas" for the resident veterans, at the SW MT Veteran's Home, during the Christmas Holidays, every year." These kinds of ideas coming from you folks, is what being part of the SW MT VET HOME FOUNDATION is.
Please consider becoming part of us. The Foundation will meet on January 6th at 1:00 PM at the Butte Archives.
