Joseph William Champine

Joseph William Champine passed away peacefully surrounded by his family on Saturday January 4, 2020.

Joe was born December 16, 1930 in Campbell Nebraska. His family moved to Montana, where Joe went to the first grade of school in Dillon. They moved to Darby, where Joe graduated from high school in 1948, and two brothers and two sisters were born during the previous fourteen years. Joe worked at a sawmill for the next year and, at the outbreak of the Korean War, joined the Navy Reserve and went on active duty as a Seabee surveyor assigned to ComServLant at Norfolk, VA. After two years active duty, Joe returned to Billings, MT, where he met and married Leona Schneider in 1954. There were four daughters and a son born of that union over the next 14 years. In 1953, he began a career in farm/ construction equipment manufacturing & wholesale distribution which would take him from Montana to the Canadian Provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, and Ontario; and then to Kansas over the next 24 years. There he joined Midwest Machine Shop. In 1980 he moved to Dillon to work with his brother, Jack, at C & C Farm & Ranch Supply in the aftermath of a fatal crash of an ANG jet striking a grain elevator in downtown Dillon. Joe became active in C & C in 1983 and remained active until C & C was purchased by Lakeland Feed in July 2010. Leona and Joe divorced in 1987. He later married Sharon Schleicher and enjoyed his extended family. They built a library of wonderful memories camping across the Northwest, down the Columbia River, multiple trips to the Oregon Coast, Arizona, Colorado, Idaho and New Mexico. Tours including the Bahamas, Ozarks, New England, Alaska and the Caribbean. They looked forward to October and the annual Sun Valley Jazz Festival, with its excellent musicians and shows, as well as the beautiful fall scenery. He also enjoyed a 'Capella chorus and quartet music, especially Barbershop Harmony, where he directed choruses and sang in quartets over 25 years.

Joe was a humble, kind and gentle man with a cheerful disposition, always caring and considerate of others, who never criticized or complained. He was wise and witty, finding humorously colorful ways to describe an event or situation.

How Joe loved the outdoors! He enjoyed early mornings and looked forward to the chance of seeing the northern light displays before dawn in the spring and being escorted down the country roads by bluebirds and robins at sunrise. He enjoyed fishing, hunting and camping in remote areas. He was a keen observer of nature, and never failed to find beauty in it. He relished being surrounded by woods, wildlife and his beloved mountains. No doubt he and this earth were equally enriched by each other's company.

An endlessly patient father, loving husband, and a treasured friend to many, Joe believed in the goodness of people and always assumed the best about them. He also gave generously to his community, volunteering his time and many talents to friends, his church and those less fortunate. He was a member of Grace United Methodist Church and held various positions there. Joe lived life to the fullest and made this world a better place. He will be missed by all blessed to know him and his memory will be forever cherished.

We wish to thank many of the Barrett medical staff, especially Dr. Burke Hansen and Suzie Burgess, who not only took such good care of him as a patient, but also treated him as a dear friend.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents, brothers Jack (Myrna), James (Gloria) Champine, Allen Johnson, and sister Carol Johnson.

He is survived by his wife of 31 years, Sharon; daughters Merrie Dreyer (Ralph), Diane McLennaghan (Don), Jeri Champine (Bill Kramer), Patricia Champine, son Michael Champine (Corrin); as well as step children Dawn Atchley (Stan) and Charles Miller (Rachel); siblings, Janice Cyr, (John, deceased), Melody Ireland (Henry), Barbara Johnson, Ann Marlow, and numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews. There is a guestbook available online at www.brunstagefuneralhome.com.

There is a celebration of life scheduled for January 11th, 2020 at 11 AM at the Methodist Church in Dillon.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society or Beaverhead Animal Shelter.

30 E. Bannack 683-3548Prayer for the President

By: Bryce Angell

When I was young my grandma taught me, "Always say your prayers."

She said, "God lives in heaven and for sure he really cares."

She told me, "Pray for sinners." Grandma's eyes looked straight at me.

And then she said, "Please pray for men who strive to keep us free."

For fifty years I've pondered on those words that Grandma gave.

Was she talking 'bout the soldiers who are lying in their grave?

I wonder if she meant to pray for those who make the laws?

And ask for truest guidance separate from their human flaws.

But one thing was for certain. She said, "Pray for those in need."

I think our US President could use a prayer, indeed.

So, Grandma if you're listening, I'm heeding what you asked.

I'll pray the US President can stand to meet the task.

I pray that he can shake those doggone vermin, so to speak.

Who'd rather see him outright fail and make our country weak.

It seems to me our congress spites our President so much. And hates him more than love for country. They're all so out of touch.

The actors and celebrities who number more than few.

Please teach us Lord to keep aside. Don't listen to their spew.

I pray we all can see the good this President has done.

He's delivered on his promises and doesn't want your gun.

Well Lord I know I've asked a healthy portion of your dime.

But our President could surely use a little of your time.

And Lord I'm just a country boy. Don't understand your ways.

But you've always taken care of me and sure deserve my praise.

Lord could you get a message to the Presidential line.

And let him know we cowboys still believe he's doing fine.

THANK YOU

The family of Joe Carroll wishes to extend their gratitude to Bicentennial Apartments, EMS staff at Barrett Hospital, Brundage Funeral home and Patriot Guard during this difficult time. Thank you for all you did to help our father - Joe Carroll.

THANK YOU

There is an amazing caring lady in this community. She goes above and beyond her duties her job demands. She has helped many families in Dillon and the surrounding area. In 2013 when our Dad, Joe Carroll returned to Dillon, she was right there to do what we needed to be done. As time marched on she became his loving care giver everyday. Our Dad was able to stay at home until his death last month. This amazing lady is Marie C. Holt. Your siblings and their families are very grateful for everything you did for Dad.

Southwest Montana Veterans Home

Update #31

By Mike Lawson

Greeting once again to you the Veterans/Counties/Communities who are the six counties in SW Montana who are represented as the organizers and chief supporters of the SWMT Veterans Home.

It's hard to believe that we are now in the year of 2020. This year is the year, when our long awaited SW Montana Veterans Home will open, with sixty resident veterans making it their new home. A lot of preparation will be taking place this year, to make these veterans lives a very positive experience. Besides the building contractors finishing the construction phase of this veteran facility, the contractor who will operate our facility will have a tremendous amount of by the work/book-work to do, to meet the codes/inspections/ contract obligations/etc., needed before the first veteran resident is admitted. Our SW MT Veteran Home "Liaison" Mark Gollinger is, and will continue to be, right in the middle of this whole process. This "Quality Assurance Process" is comforting, in that we know our veterans will get the very best top notch care.

Checking in with Site Construction Superintendent Mike Ascherman was informative as always. I noticed truckloads of sheetrock being unloaded and covered up to be protected from the weather. He explained that the sheetrock prices were going up by 20% after the first of the year, so it was important to buy before this took place. Keeping costs down and not having to absorb these cost increases is a smart business move. The following breakdowns on the construction progression is as follows:

Community Center; The roofers have all of the main roof shingled. The roof underlayment is in place on the "Portico". Shingle bundles are on that roof and ready to be laid/nailed in place. Still some pick-up framing going on inside and painters spraying fire-resistant paint on the outside. In reference to this fire-resistant paint, Mark Gollinger said he saw a demonstration of a torch being applied to a piece of wood painted with this paint and one not painted with it. The painted one didn't burn where the unpainted one did. Another quality control feature to be appreciated.

It was pointed out to me that what I'm calling "Portico" is a shortened version for the French word "porte-cochere" which according to the Internet, for North America, means a porch where vehicles stop to discharge passengers. Now you're as enlightened as I am.

Cottage #1; Roof and eve framing work is finishing up and will be quickly followed by the roofers putting down the roof underlayment followed by the asphalt shingles. Some pick-up framing continues and the dry-in is taking place with the windows/doors covered by vis-queen plastic.

Cottage #2; This building is seeing the interior walls being erected, the pop-out (bay) windows framing taking place. With all the trusses being on site, the installing of the trusses on top of the walls is scheduled for this week. This will help make this building look more complete, for sure.

Cottage #3; Floor layout consisting of chalk lines being snapped for the walls, is happening. Following this are the wall base-plates being nailed in place along these snapped lines. The exterior walls are the main concentration, as these walls will be the first walls to be stood in place. Mike said that as soon as the framers are done on Cottage #1, they'll be moved to Cottage #3. Things will then, move along pretty fast.

Cottage #4; On hold and curing.
 Cottage #5; On hold and curing.

On another note, the state is taking applications for veterans who are candidates to be admitted to our SW MT Veterans Home. We do have some applications in the "Viewing Hooch". You can also down load one from the SW MT Veteran Home Web-Site. That web-site is SWMVH. Mt.GOV.

The SW MT VET HOME Foundation monthly meeting is at 1:00 at the Butte Archives the first Monday of every month. All are welcome to attend and become a member and we need you, for sure.

The Viewing Hooch is open for you to visit. It even has a TV, compliments of Ron Peterson, and on Saturday, saw some of our veterans playing pinochle while football was on the TV. It's a great place to relax and look out the big windows to see the construction of our Vet Home in progress.

In closing, may this be a great year for you all. Until next time.
