Bulldogs beat Battlin' Bears 54-48

Despite no Bulldogs scoring in the double digits, No. 22 ranked University of Montana Western defeated No. 20 ranked Rocky Mountain College 54-48.

Trailing 12-5 at the end of the first period, the Battlin' Bears initiated a 14-6 run to jump to a 19-18 lead off a pair of free throws from Markaela Francis. It would be the only time the Battlin' Bears would hold the lead for the entirety of the game.

The Bulldogs' Paige Holmes sank a three pointer 30 seconds later to put the Bulldogs back in the driver's seat. While the Battlin' Bears tied the game twice in the third period, they never managed to reclaim a lead.

Rocky shot 32.6 percent from the field and landed 5-of-19 from beyond the arc. The Bulldogs, in comparison, shot a 37.5 field goal percentage and landed 35 percent of their three point attempts.

The Battlin' Bears held a 38-28 edge on the glass while the Bulldogs held a 10-5 advantage in steals.

Francis scored a team-high 16 points with seven rebounds for the Battlin' Bears. Keahi Roy was the only other player to score in the double digits with a 12-point performance. Antuanisha Wright had a team-high eight rebounds.

None of the Bulldogs scored in the double digits, but seven different players managed to score five or more points. Montana Western's bench scored 29 points which included eight points from Natalie Denning. Savanna Bignell also scored eight points while posting a team-high six rebounds, a team-high four assists, and three steals.

Montana Western conquers Rocky 94-80

Led by 27 points from Cedric Boone, University of Montana Western defeated Rocky Mountain College 94-80 Saturday night.

Workshop to Address Domestic and Sexual Violence to be held in Dillon, MT

Community Support Center is sponsoring a full-day workshop for faith leaders, advocates and community members to address how to better support victims of domestic and sexual violence in our community. The program, which will be facilitated by national speakers from the Safe Havens Interfaith Partnership Against Domestic Violence, will focus on strengthening partnerships between community providers and faith communities

Abuse can affect anyone regardless of age, race, class, ethnicity, sexual orientation, first language, or faith. One in 3 women and 1 in 5 men have experienced some form of physical or sexual violence or stalking at the hands of an intimate partner.

What does faith have to do with domestic violence or sexual assault? A study of older adults found that "respondents, especially minorities, often indicated that their 'first stop' would be a member of the clergy if they were to discuss their [abuse] with anyone." However, faith leaders do not always feel prepared to respond. To make matters worse, sometimes abusers use faith as a weapon against a victim. Faith leaders are uniquely placed to reach out to victims and help direct them to services and safety, as long as they have the right knowledge and skills to do so.

Safe Havens Interfaith Partnership Against Domestic Violence has been awarded funding by the Office on Violence Against Women to provide these trainings throughout the United States. For more information about Safe Havens' work, please visit their website at www.interfaithpartners.org/rural.

The training is FREE. Continuing education units (CEUs) for licensed clinical social workers and licensed clinical professional counselors are available.

For more information to register contact Breanna Belgarde.

Shooting 48.39 percent from the field in the first period, Rocky trailed by only three points at 39-36 entering the half. The Battlin' Bears were able to tie the game at 39-39 and 42-42 in the first minute of the second period. The Bulldogs responded, however, with an 11-3 run and held the lead for the rest of the game.

Boone had a big night with a team-high 27 points and seven assists for the Bulldogs. The pair of James Jones and Connor Burkhart each scored 17 points while Max Clark had 12.

Landing 7-of 13 from the floor, Clayton Ladine had 20 points and a team-high six assists. Lukas Vining had 15 points in addition to 11 from Darius Henderson. Maxim Stephens had the night's only double double and the first of his career with 11 points and 11 rebounds.

Rocky finished the night landing 27-of-65 from the floor and shot 32 percent from deep. Montana Western shot a 53.7 field goal percentage including a blistering 53.6 percent from beyond the arc.

The Battlin' Bears held a 36-33 advantage in boards.

Dillon Middle School news

Here's the Dillon Middle School news for the week of January 20th through 24th, 2020.

There is no school today, January 20th, in observance of Martin Luther King's birthday. School will resume tomorrow, January 21st.

The lunch menu for the week is as follows: On Tuesday, chicken alfredo will be served with a biscuit. Wednesday, we will have a local beef hamburger on a school made bun with trimmings. Thursday, we will enjoy chicken Teriyaki with rice. And on Friday, we will have chili served with cinnamon rolls and applesauce.

Congratulations to the winner of our in school spelling bee, Taylor Handlos. Taylor will compete in the county wide spelling bee this spring. Good job, Taylor!!

The Academic Olympics teams have been set for our competition in Bozeman in March. Many of the participants are from our championship teams which won first and second place last year. This year's teams are looking good again with some very strong players on all of the teams. The "A" team consists of: Olivette Copple, Laura Martin, Zoe Graham, Savanna Freitas, and Spencer Sitton. Making up the "B" team are: Quincee Anderson, Micaiah Kizzar, Sean Regan, Ellie Sherwood, Sam Steadman, and Neal Brandon. Rounding out the "C" team are: Madison Brown, Max Davis, Jacob Harvey, Milo Glossa, Brekken Venn, and Dallas Shelton. Congratulations students, and good luck!

Girls' basketball 8th grade pulled off a substantial win over Butte Central last week. Congratulations, ladies. Dillon hosts Anaconda Tuesday, January 21st. 7th grade will be in the DMS gym. 8th grade will be in the new Parkview gym. Games begin at 4:00 PM. This Thursday, January 23rd, 8A will host Butte Central. The game will be in the new Parkview gym at 4:00 pm.

Wrestling begins Monday, February 3rd. The parent meeting will be that same evening at 5:30 PM. Wrestlers, you need to have your physicals, turned in to the office and your paperwork done online in order to participate.

Life can sometimes be hard. What's hard on adults is just as hard, if not more, on kids. Resilience, the ability to adapt to challenges, is the most important tool a parent can give a child. Learn more about resilience by joining the Beaverhead County ACEs Task Force. We're focused on building healthy families in our community.

Free book discussion

Anyone interested in learning how the delivery of health care in the United States affects individuals and their families faced with serious illness, frailty or end-of-life choices is invited to participate in a free book discussion. Tuesday, February 11, at 6:30 at the Dillon Public Library, 121 S. Idaho in Dillon, Jeanette Producers, a licensed clinical social worker, will facilitate the discussion of Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End by Atul Gawande.

According to the U.S. Census Bureau, baby boomers consist of one-fifth of the U.S. population, and Montana's population is slightly ahead of that statistic. With modern medicine and increasing technological advances, health care providers can always attempt more interventions, but should they be done when positive outcomes decrease or negative side effects increase? It is time to have honest dialogue about health care, quality of life, and ask what does the individual patient want? This book helps readers think about those tough decisions and what is important to each person. It is not only written by a New York Times best-selling author, it is also written by a surgeon and from his perspective as a son facing his father's mortality.

The Bookstore has ordered several copies of this book and five copies will also be available at the library. Get a copy now so you can be prepared to participate in the conversation. For more information, contact Jeanette at 406-865-0381 or Lori at the Dillon Public Library at 683-4544.
