Notice of Passing

Carl Joseph Meine passed away January 16, 2020 at the University Medical Center in Salt Lake City, Utah with his family at his side. He had requested there be no services. A full obituary will follow.

Mary Jane (Wilson) Doner, 72

Mary Jane (Wilson) Doner, 72, of Dillon, Montana, passed away January 18, 2020 while surrounded by family in her home after an extended battle with cancer. She was born in Hanover, New Hampshire to Dr. Paul Edwin Wilson and Jane Kathryn Ibey Wilson (Thomas). The family moved to Dillon, Montana and Mary attended local schools graduating from Beaverhead County High School in 1965. In 1970 Mary married Donald Francis Doner. In their 32 years of marriage they had five boys Daniel, Matthew, Steven, Brian and Brett. Mary worked various jobs around Dillon, but her biggest accomplishment was raising her five boys. Mary enjoyed spending time with her family camping and fishing in the mountains around Dillon and attending the many sporting events her children were playing across the state. Mary also enjoyed spending time with her sister Catherine and brother-in-law Fred Eaton, and life-long friends Lou Salmonsens and Joanne Ferris doing crafts, cross-stitch, gardening and looking for treasures at yard sales. Later in life she enjoyed spending her time with her nine grandchildren Jory, Gwendolyn, Isabelle, Chandler, Shane, Wyatt, Reece, Braden, and Quinn.

Mary is preceded in death by her parents, her husband Donald Doner, step-father Lloyd Thomas, and her brother-in-law Fred Eaton.

Survived by her sons, sister Catherine "Kitty" Eaton of Dillon, daughter-in-law's Talea and Brooke, grandchildren, niece Kathy Barbato of Beaumont, TX, cousins Sylvia, Jackie, David Roberts of Dillon, and Susan Roberts of West Linn, OR. Lifelong friends Joanne Ferris of Elko, NV and Lou Salmonsens of Dillon.

A special thanks goes to the staff of Barrett Hospital & Healthcare Hospice and Dr. Karen Weed for making the end of Mary's life comfortable. She was very fond of Cindy, Nancy and Marie, along with the entire team.

Services will be held at Brundage Funeral Home on January 23, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. A remembrance reception will be held immediately following the service at the Dillon Elks Lodge.

In lieu of flowers please send donations to Barrett Hospital & Healthcare Hospice.

Kimberly Jean Adams

September 14, 1956 to January 16, 2020

Kimberly Jean Adams beloved wife, mother, grandmother & friend. Her precious soul left our lives way too soon but will forever be with us in our minds and our hearts.

Kim was born on September 14, 1956 to Bill & Lois Keseley in Van Nuys, California. Following graduation from high school, Kim began working in a local preschool. Kim later devoted 26 years of her life working for Homeowners Marketing where she met the love of her life, Arthur L. Adams. Kim and Art married in December, 1984. Kim was a wonderful Mom to their daughter Danielle and eagerly took on the role of Mom to stepdaughter Tonya and stepson Kelly.

Upon retiring from her career in marketing, Kim and Art moved to Dillon. Her heart was complete once moving to Dillon, MT. She loved everyone she met in the community. Dillon was truly her home.

Kim and Art purchased the Klondike in February of 2006. They loved owning the restaurant and together they facilitated many community events and fundraisers. Kim's favorite events were the Labor Day golf tournaments with proceeds donated to the Dillon Volunteer Fire Department.

After the sale of the Klondike in February of 2011, Kim worked for Allen Landscaping. Yet, Kim really found her niche with the people of the community when she began checking at Safeway. While employed at Safeway, Kim received many accolades from her long list of dedicated customers, as well as written recognition from Safeway's

Kim was the life of the party and was truly loved by everyone she met. She enjoyed playing cribbage, watching her beloved Los Angeles Kings play hockey and playing on her computer. She enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and loved her kitty cats Mia & Dillon.

Kim fought with courage the debilitating disease, A.L.S. (Lou Gherigs) and was surrounded by her close family when she passed away on January 16, 2020. Kim will be missed by everyone and those who knew her will always remember her beautiful smile. She had a great attitude and a wonderful sense of humor. One of her favorite sayings was, "Quit your WABing".

Kim is survived by her husband Art Adams, daughter Danielle Dansie (Ty), grandchildren Ailsyn and Gotham, daughter Tonya Tolon (Destine), granddaughter Ellyanah, son Kelly Adams (Lori), sister Denise Mitchell (Doug), nephews Dean and Daniel Mitchell (Natalie), great niece Grace, great nephew Luke, niece Amy Tennes, great niece Ava, brother-in-law Jerry Tennes, and sister-in-law Victoria Tomaryn (Peter). She is preceded in death by her parents Bill and Lois Keseley, grandson Shane Jr, sister Cindy, and nephew Andrew.

Our family would like to thank all the staff at Barrett Hospital and Hospice for their compassion, love, support, and care until the very end. We especially want to thank Deb Hursh. Kim LOVED her and she has been our rock through everything.

There will be a mass at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church on January 27, 2020 at 12:10pm with reception to follow directly after.

In lieu of follows, please donate to the ALS Foundation to help find a cure.

Montana Western Students Perform "He Said and She Said"

The University of Montana Western's Fine Arts Department is pleased to present its fifth show in the 2019-20 Bank of Commerce Performing Arts Series. Performances of "He Said and She Said," a one act comedy written in 1921 by Alice Gerstenberg, will be held at UMW in the Small Auditorium (Main Hall 314) Jan. 30- Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m.

According to student director Cole Irwin, "He Said and She Said" is about Enid Haldeman, who invites two friends, the manipulative Mrs. Packard and society girl Diana Chesbrough, to dine with her and her husband Felix. However, upon arriving, Mrs. Packard has a piece of gossip for Enid about Diana that threatens to ruin the night.

Throughout the production, clever word play is used, as characters rarely finish their thoughts or say exactly what they mean, making other characters assume the worst and even relay distorted messages. The play is set in 1914 and is a cautionary tale focusing on the problems that rumors can create.

"I am proud of the actors and their portrayal of the characters, and I could not have hoped for more dedication from them," said Irwin.

In addition to "He Said and She Said," several one act plays will be performed each night. Montana Western students in the "Introduction to Directing and Play Production" class direct the shows under the supervision of Marcus Todd, Assistant Professor and Technical Director.

"We have great young students and directors coming up, and we are excited to see what they are going to bring to the stage from what they are learning in class. It's really about them," said Todd.

Additional support for this play and all of the 2019-20 theatre productions was provided by ASUMW/Student Senate. Tickets are available at the door and are $10 for adults, $5 for seniors and free for Montana Western students.

For more information, please contact student Production Assistant Brandon Hunter at brandon.hunter@umwestern.edu, or Professor of Fine Arts and Education, Judy Ulrich, by calling 406-683-7422.

Sagebrush & Snowdrifts News

Secret Petersen, Club Reporter

The Sagebrush & Snowdrifts 4-H Club had a meeting January 4th, at the 4-H Building. We had three new members join our club since the last meeting. Members on the Christmas baskets committee reported that they delivered two baskets of food and gifts to the Women's Resource for two families in the community. Members shared what they did for Christmas.

Mrs. Sitz checked the project sign-up list with each member to make sure each member was signed up for the projects they chose for this year. Members can sign-up or drop projects until June.

Awards were given out to members that were in 4-H last year.

We discussed the upcoming Livestock Nutrition Seminar. We decided to host this event on February 27th, at 5 P.M., at the 4-H building. All clubs are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served. After the meeting we played a game and had treats. Our next meeting will be February 27th at the 4-H building, at 7:00 P.M.

Cowboy or Country

Bryce Angell

He tipped his hat and calmly smiled. Said, "How ya doin' Ma'am?"

She blushed then stood there looking sweeter than strawberry jam. What is it 'bout a cowboy some say, "Takes your breath away!"

My wife says, "Wranglers keeps a cowboy looking good all day." If you're cowboy are you country? Seems to me they're not the same.

I was raised a country boy surrounded by a cowboy name.

I sat in my own saddle when I'd turned to five years old.

A gift from my dear father, it was Grandpa's I'd been told.

I've saddle up more horses than I ever care to count. And bucked off, kicked, then stomped down by a brand-new ornery mount.

I've packed a string of horses many times through Yellowstone.

I rode from dawn to dusk then stayed the night there all alone.

At eighteen years my father told me, "Learn to shoe a horse."

So, I picked up on the old-time skill. I've never felt remorse,

Even though I feel arthritic pain from bending way too low.

s this the life a cowboy wears? This country boy should know.

I don't know how to throw a rope. I haven't rodeoed.

Is that what makes a cowboy or at least what I've been told?

The dictionary says a cowboy chases cows all day. I've never herded cows but scared the horses through our hay.

Cowboys like to have some fun and country boys as well. Our preacher warned us, "Keep it down. You might end up in Hell."

When comparing similarities of country and cowboys.

We share a lot in common. And we all have grown up toys.

Well, maybe country boy and cowboy are a bit the same.

So, please forgive me when I claim the cowboy for a name.
