Alicejane Carkeek Fowler, 85

Alicejane passed away on January 22, 2020 at Pioneer Care and Rehabilitation Center in Dillon, Mont. She made the journey in the loving embraces of family and friends.

Alicejane, also known by some as AAj,@ and by others as ACorky,@ was born on June 12, 1934 in Butte, Mont.

to John Carkeek and Mildred McCawley. She had two sisters: Jeanne (Pete) Bigley and Lois (James) Schmitt, who have all preceded her in death. Music was always an essential part of the sisters' lives. Corky played the cello and piano, Lois the violin and Jeanne the piano. Early in their lives Jeanne and Lois played professionally; Corky chose to prepare for a teaching career.

From her beginnings Corky was shy and very private, refusing to go to school. Gradually she learned to accept her classmates. Her zest for life began to blossom as she energetically twirled double batons as head majorette in the Butte High School Marching Band. She expanded her connections with Butte High by playing the cello in the school orchestra. She and her family would share their love of the outdoors by spending many fun-filled hours fishing small streams within driving distance of home B usually on overnights.

After graduation in 1952 she continued to pursue her love of music by attending Montana State University (now U of M) in Missoula with aspirations to teach. She earned her bachelor of music in 1956.

While attending school she met her life-long friend, Frank Fowler. They married in Butte in 1957. Their first adventure took them to Sullivan Lake Ranger Station in Washington. In the following years they bounced around to various U.S. Forest Service assignments in Washington, Idaho and Montana. Many of their early assignments were in back-country areas. Each was a new adventure. Sometimes there was only a generator for electricity and a crank telephone for personal communication and Corky's connection to music was primarily through a phonograph, but she loved it all, and joyfully joined with Frank in raising their family.

Their last move was to Dillon where she taught UM Western students how to teach string instruments in rural schools. She played cello in the Dillon Orchestra and in small ensembles. Also of great satisfaction to her was teaching private lessons. While she usually did not have a large number of students, she never tired of imparting her passion for music or of witnessing the growth students displayed as they struggled to learn to play the cello.

Corky had an abiding appreciation for nature. In her younger years she eagerly pursued hiking and camping and occasionally horseback riding. As the years passed, her attention turned more to bird-watching. She always found time to stop, watch, and listen to her beautiful winged friends.

She is survived by her beloved husband of 62 years, Frank Fowler; son Chris (Rachael) Fowler; daughter Jody (Eddy) Dallaserra; grandchildren Ethan (Rachael) Dallaserra; Kira Dallaserra; Sean Fowler and Great Grandson Logan Dallaserra, as well as her nieces and nephews whom she loved dearly.

A memorial service is planned for January 29 at 1:00 pm at Grace United Methodist Church. A guest book is online at www.brundagefuneral.com.

Memorials may be made to a charity of your choice in Alicejane's name.

Maybelline and Scoot

Bryce Angell

Maybelline was a pretty blonde with four white stocking feet.

And Scoot, an older gelding whose good sense was hard to beat. Well Maybelline and Scoot were down in Goblin Valley way.

The trail was long and winding. They'd be gone most of the day. Maybelline said, "Scoot I'd like to make a small request.

I see it's almost lunch time and these cowboys need a rest."

Then Scoot replied, "I guess you're right. These cowboys like to eat. We'll stop here for an hour; get them off the saddle's seat."

Two cowboys stepped on down and moseyed over to the rocks.

They pulled out fish and crackers from an overstuffed lunch box.

Then Maybelline said, "Scoot do cowboys always eat canned fish?

It's all I've ever seen 'em eat. Must be their favorite dish."

Well Scoot said, "Maybelline a cowboy is a different lot. There's no predicting what they'll eat. Their stomachs must be shot."

"And cowboys must be bashful, quite unlike both you and me.

Each time that Mother Nature calls they go behind a tree."

Then Maybelline said, "Scoot you're right. Sometimes they're quite absurd. But my rider tells a story better'n any song I've heard."

Scoot then smiled. "Well Maybelline does he stretch it just a bit?

I heard my rider say to him, 'I think you're full of @#&*!'"

Both horses gave a belly laugh. The riders looked their way.

Each rider shrugged his shoulders. Said, "That was a funny neigh."

Then Maybelline said, "Scoot those cowboys really have no clue.

'Cuz if they knew just what we said for sure we'd both be glue."

Scoot said, "If we weren't here those dang old cowboys would be lost.

Those cowpokes should appreciate the time our paths were crossed."

Maybelline said, "Scoot those cowboys move just like a snail.

Let's get 'em in the saddle 'cuz it's time to hit the trail."

Then Scoot said, "Maybelline I've sure enjoyed our ride today. We'll get these cowboys back to camp. That's where they keep the hay!"

THANK YOU

Beaverhead Community Food Pantry wants to send out a huge, heartfelt Thank You! to all the local donors who raised $7,291.68 during the Town Pump cash collection for the pantry.

We used nearly 90% of our money last year to buy food and milk for those in need in our community. The Pantry also bought a new walk-in cooler/freezer and replaced two failing exterior doors. The new cooler/freezer will allow us to keep more meat, dairy products, vegetables, and frozen food that are donated for those in need.

The Pantry also wants to thank all businesses and community members who donated at Safeway to Turkey Bucks, or conducted food drives to help ensure that everyone could enjoy a bountiful Thanksgiving and Christmas season.

Thanks, too, to the local businesses that participate in the Pantry's food rescue program throughout the year, including Safeway, Town & County, Rocky Mountain Supply, Pizza Hut, Subway, and Great Harvest.

We are an all-volunteer pantry and we want to thank each and every one of our volunteers.

Thank you,

Beaverhead Community Food Pantry Board
