John W Wendt

1947-2020

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, Feb 1 from 1:00-3:00 at Beaverhead Golf Course.

Happy 78th birthday to Dillon's grumpiest old man.

Amazing, your dog, TJ turned 17 (84 in human times) last week which proves that you both will live forever! In 78 years, I have only seen you TWICE without any facial hair (your bald head is a different story - long live the toupee 1974-2002). You are the one man who will stop everything, give his very own shirt off his back and help anyone in need. How many people in Dillon knew the time a Nebraskan family, traveling to Utah Thanksgiving 1986, had their car engine blow up. They were told to come to your repair shop, because everyone in town was closed for Thanksgiving. You went out, towed their car in, and said you would do your best. They got a hotel room to wait and see what magic you could do, believing they would be eating turkey dinner at the Best Western. In under 12 hours, you had taken the motor from your wife's car, installed, tuned up, and had them on the road to Utah Thanksgiving morning. So, on this day, to the man who taught me to be a true chest-thumping-raw-liver-eating-Sasquatch-hunting-hairy-chested-help-others-flag-loving-all-American-manly-man (although my wife and everyone would disagree) a PHENOMINAL birthday. Let the day of the Bald Grumpy Old Man BEGIN!!!!

Mark Oehling Birthday 1/31/42

Lewis and Clark stayed overnight at his cabin.

He was the pilot on the Hendenburg.

He was the iceberg watchman on the Titanic.

He is older than dirt.

From all his friends - 2 of us.

The image above features one of Lokason's most significant pieces titled "Gungnir." After Odin's spear, this was one of the first symbols Lokason wanted to incorporate into her thesis.

Italy and at Montana Western, as well as self-taught skills. The thesis combined experiences from Lokason's life and the mythology of Odin.

"My thesis show was centered around myths where Odin is the 'main character' and his constant quest to gain knowledge. I used these myths to explore personal experiences and emotions," Lokason explained.

Lokason was born in Laguna Beach, Calif., although she has also lived in eight states in a countless number of cities and towns while growing up. She originally came to the University of Montana Western to study in a different degree program, but decided to take an introductory glass blowing class for her mandatory art credit, and quickly learned she wanted to pursue it further.

"The day that the glass program was announced, I went straight to advising and switched my major to a Bachelor of Arts in glass blowing," Lokason said.

During the summer of 2019, Lokason was presented with the opportunity to travel to Italy for an internship to study photo-realistic, layered glass fusing from world-renowned glass artist Miriam Di Fiore.

"Would You Yet Know More?" is based on a myth where Odin removes his own eye and drops it into Mimir's well for a sip of the water.

and later incorporated her photography into her glasswork.

Lokason expressed "My Huginn is full of negative self-thought — the wing of that raven is filled with how I felt and thought about myself on a near-daily basis. It taught me how much I talked negatively to myself, and how I need to start switching those thoughts to be positive. The ribbon in Thoughts' beak was something I embroidered myself, and it says, 'I'm glad I exist.' A positive thought to combat the rest."

"Being able to pull off a show that big in six weeks, that was really rewarding to me. It still is rewarding to me. I did it, and I'm still amazed that I did," Lokason said.

Lokason will graduate in the spring of 2020, and hopes to return to Italy to start her career. She is currently in the process of interviewing for an open position at a scientific glass making studio near Milan.

Southwest Montana Resource Advisory Committee to meet Feb. 14

The Southwest Montana Resource Advisory Committee is scheduled to meet 9 a.m. Feb. 14 at the Beaverhead-Deerlodge National Forest Supervisor's Office.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will include review of 23 project proposals within Beaverhead, Madison, Jefferson and Silver Bow counties. At the conclusion of the meeting, the committee will recommend projects for funding under Title II of the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act of 2000.

"The recommendations of these committees help ensure we are focusing on work that is important to our neighboring communities," said Beaverhead-Deerlodge Forest Supervisor Cheri Ford. "These committees represent a depth of experience we cannot replicate in the agency. We appreciate the voices and the experiences the committee members bring to the table."

Recommended projects, which occur on or directly benefit National Forest System lands, help the Forest Service meet stewardship objectives, restore and improve forest ecosystems and water quality, or improve existing infrastructure. Past projects have included: maintenance of Forest Service roads, trails and infrastructure; replacement of county bridges; control of noxious and exotic weeds; and reestablishment of native species.

Resource Advisory Committees are federally sanctioned groups of people who represent a cross-section of county communities, industries, schools, environmentalists, and local government. Upon selection, committee members serve four-year terms.

The Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act, which was recently reauthorized by Congress through 2022, was enacted to provide transitional assistance to rural counties. Counties receive federal funds based on the percentage of land in federal ownership, timber receipt payments, and per capita income.

The Beaverhead-Deerlodge Forest Supervisor's Office is located at 420 Barrett Street, Dillon, Mont.

For more information, contact Resource Advisory Committee Coordinator Jeanne Dawson by phone at (406) 683-3987 or via email at jeanne.dawson@usda.gov. More information is also available on the Resource Advisory Committee website at <https://go.usa.gov/xdYKq>.

Bible Truth...About God's ownership and man's accountability

Statement of belief: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God..." (2 Timothy 3:16-17), thus all beliefs in conflict with the scripture, God's holy word, are false.

Rejecting or ignoring the Bible ultimately leads to rejecting God, His ownership of man, and man's accountability to God.

"Every faculty you have, your power of thinking or of moving your limbs from moment to moment, is given you by God. If you devoted every moment of your whole life exclusively to His service, you could not give Him anything that was not in a sense His own already." [C.S. Lewis]

Two scriptures confirming Mr. Lewis's statement are here quoted:

Acts 17:28, "For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, for we are also his offspring."

Psalms 89:11, "The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fullness [entire contents] thereof, thou hast founded them."

God warns Israel against making the mistake of thinking that what they had was due to their efforts by reminding them in Deuteronomy 8:18 to "...remember the Lord your God: for it is he that has given you power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he swore to your fathers as it is this day."

The fact is, God created all things & all things belong to Him, including those who reject Him.

Not believing God's word is equivalent to believing lies, which will lead to God's ultimate judgment. Isaiah 28:15, 18 states, "Because you have said, we have made a covenant with death, and with hell we are at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come to us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood we have hid ourselves," (vs. 15). "...Your covenant with death shall be disannulled and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing [abundant] scourge [infliction of punishment] shall pass through, then you shall trodden down by it," (vs. 16).

Jesus states the way to escape this punishment in John 5:24, "...He that hears my word, and believes on him that sent me, has everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death to life."
