Gloria Olive Seyler 1924-2020

Gloria Seyler, 95, passed away on February 2, 2020 at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare. She was born on September 24, 1924, in Salt Lake City, Utah, the daughter of James and Hannah McLaughlin.

Gloria attended school in Melrose and Bannack in her younger years and later graduated from Twin Bridges High School, class of 1943. Following graduation, she married Budd Seyler on July 17, 1943 and they settled in the town of Twin Bridges. They soon moved out of town to work with Budd's parents, William and Beatrice Seyler, on the family ranch. Gloria was a member of Eastern Star and Royal Neighbors of America.

Gloria loved gardening and especially growing flowers. Noted for her beautiful sweet peas, a visit to her home always began with a walk and talk while looking at the flowers in her yard. She also loved music and reading and could bake the very best apple and cherry pies. Most of all, Gloria deeply loved her family.

Gloria is survived by her sons Glenn and Gerald, daughter Joan (Norm) Wicks, daughter Susan (Scott) Jones, brother Joe (Carol) McLaughlin, and sister-in-law Hope Mommer; grandchildren Stacy (Mike) Woodhouse, Kim (Josh) Ehrlich, Terri (Zack) Medina, Coley Jones, and Brooke (Jake) Riggs; great grandchildren Sunny, Colin and Trevor Woodhouse, Presten, Hartlie and Seyler Ehrlich, Emeri and Cruz Medina, and Cypress Riggs. She also has many beloved nieces, nephews.

Gloria was preceded in death by her husband, Budd, and her parents. She was also preceded in death by brothers Jimmy, Carl and Don McLaughlin and sister, Norma Steiner.

Visitation for Gloria will be held from 12-1 pm, followed by services at 1 pm at Brundage Funeral Home on Monday, February 10 in Dillon, MT. Graveside services will be at the Twin Bridges Cemetery following the service.

Gifts in Gloria's memory may be made to the Twin Bridges Alumni Association scholarship fund (PO Box 142, Twin Bridges, MT 59754) or the Twin Bridges Historical Museum. A guest book is online at www.brundagefuneralhome.com.

Attorney General Fox Files Lawsuit Against State's Largest Opioid Distributors

*Alleges McKesson Corporation, Cardinal Health, Inc., broke the law by failing to monitor number of opioid pills
distributed in Montana*

Attorney General Tim Fox announced today he has filed a lawsuit against the McKesson Corporation and Cardinal Health, Inc., two leading distributors of narcotic opioids, for their alleged role in the opioid crisis.

"Opioids have had a particularly acute impact on rural areas throughout the country, including Montana. As the two largest wholesale opioid distributors in the state, McKesson and Cardinal played a key role in fueling this devastating epidemic," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "The increased volume of opioid prescribing and distribution correlates directly to skyrocketing addiction, overdose, and death; black markets for diverted prescription opioids; and an associated rise in heroin and fentanyl abuse by individuals who can no longer legally acquire or afford prescription opioids. It's time to hold these companies accountable for their reckless behavior, which put profits ahead of public safety and fed our current wave of addiction and diversion, killing hundreds of Montanans," Fox added.

Wholesale distributors buy prescription drugs, including narcotics, from manufacturers at enormous volumes and sell them to pharmacies. This allows pharmacies to quickly obtain a full range of prescription drugs from a single source, without having to manage relationships with multiple manufacturers. By law, distributors must stop shipments of suspiciously large or increasingly frequent orders and report them to state and federal authorities. Today's lawsuit, filed in Lewis and Clark County District Court, details how both companies failed to alert authorities of suspicious opioid btpdillon@qwestoffice.net • (406) 683-9844prescription orders they shipped into Montana between 2006 and 2014.

Opioid epidemic's toll on Montana:

- From 2006 through 2011, Montana consistently ranked in the top 25 states for opioid sales on a grams per capita basis.
- In 2014, the last year for which such data is available, Montana's opioid sales ranking, per capita, rose to 17th among the 52 states and territories. Montana consistently ranked in the top 10 states per capita for distribution of morphine and hydromorphone (e.g., Dilaudid and Exalgo), and a fentanyl sales ranking that peaked at 7th in the nation.
- Montana's opioid epidemic has caused more than 700 overdose deaths since 2000. From 2011-2013 alone, prescription drug overdoses were responsible for at least 369 deaths and more than 7,200 hospital inpatient admissions and emergency department visits.
- Opioids are the most common substance associated with drug poisoning deaths in Montana. Prescription drug abuse here is 15 times more deadly than methamphetamines, heroin, and cocaine combined.

The defendants dominate Montana's wholesale drug distribution market. McKesson and Cardinal alone were responsible for approximately 63-68% of the opioids shipped into Montana from 2006 to 2014. In that timeframe, McKesson supplied more than 48% and Cardinal supplied more than 15% of the opioid dosage units to Montana. Together they distributed the equivalent, at 10 mg per pill, of over 432 million opioid pills into Montana between 2006 and 2014. That's more than 400 estimated 10 mg opioid pills for every man, woman, and child in the state.

Justice have addressed the epidemic of opioid-based painkiller abuse and addiction and its devastating effect on public health and safety in communities in Montana, starting with the Resolve Montana Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention campaign in 2014. Under Resolve Montana, the number of prescription drug disposal drop box locations were expanded across Montana to include pharmacies and hospitals. In 2017, Resolve Montana expanded into a new initiative, Aid Montana: Addressing the Impact of Drugs, in order to comprehensively approach the state's substance abuse crisis by including alcohol and illegal drug use.

alleging the company engaged in deceptive promotion of its addictive and dangerous painkiller OxyContin to increase sales. In February of 2018, Fox filed a motion for a preliminary injunction in Montana District Court, asking the court to halt Purdue's product marketing campaign in the state. Several months later, in an apparent effort to delay the case and avoid answering Montana's motion for a preliminary injunction, Purdue moved the case to federal court. In August 2018, Montana achieved an important victory when a federal judge in Ohio remanded the lawsuit against Purdue Pharma from federal court and returned it to state court, where Fox's office filed it originally. Purdue subsequently filed bankruptcy, after reaching a settlement in principle with numerous attorneys general valued at approximately $10 billion.

McKesson paid $13.25 million in 2008 and $150 million in 2017 in federal civil penalties for a total of approximately $163 million. Last year, McKesson also agreed to pay West Virginia a settlement of $37 million in relation to its lawsuit. Cardinal paid federal civil penalties of $34 million in 2008 and $44 million in 2016; in 2017, Cardinal also agreed to pay $20 million to resolve West Virginia's civil suit, amounting to a total of $98 million that it has paid to resolve multiple actions.

Friends celebrate I Love to Read Month

The Dillon Friends of the Library is celebrating I love to Read Month with grateful hearts. The Friends sponsor the Dolly Parton Imagination Library and support the Dillon Public Library at all levels. Founded in 2017 this group has experienced major growth and remains busy. Our motto "Every Library Needs a Friend" serves us well. We have many friends that have made sure we have the support needed to keep going.

The Dolly Parton Imagination Library is an international program that provides a free book a month to children from birth to the age of 5. The sponsoring organization pays $25.00 per child per year for the shipping. (please note in order for the child to receive these books through the Dillon Friends of the Library, they must reside in Beaverhead County). At this time there are 120 children in Beaverhead County getting books through this Friends sponsored program.

We haven't done this alone. The United Way gave us the first dollars needed to get registered with the foundation and have continued granting money to help fund this growing program each year. Beaverhead Brewery hosted Pint Night. The Dillon Elks Lodge received a grant and hosted a Dolly Parton Look-alike contest, karaoke and dinner with the proceeds going to the Dolly Parton program in Dillon.

Many individuals gave money to assist with the non-profit filing. We had a Great Harvest bake Day that allowed us to update the lighting in the Library (it is now safe) and to refurbish the beautiful front door at the Library. Festival of Trees awarded us with money that is being used to improve the heating and air conditioning. Steele-Reese gave us funds that allowed us to expand programs for children and teens in our community. Many benefited from the Makerspace activities. We were able to extend Makerspace with a grant from the Jaycees. Town Pump and Pioneer Federal help every year with the summer reading program. Greg Barth at Coffee works dedicated a percentage day for the Friends. Stan Smith and Big Sky Cinema have donated time and theatre space to host programs.

Many private and anonymous donors have stepped forward to help. None of this could happen without the staff at the Dillon Public Library, the City of Dillon, Mayor Klakken, Library Board of Trustees, and the City Council. Membership to Dillon Friends of the Library is $5.00 per year.

Every Library needs a friend and we always have room for more. Thank you to the entire community for being amazing supporters of the Dillon Public Library and the Dillon Friends of the Library. You are what makes this community such a great place to live.

Call 683-4544 or 683-6807 if you are interested in becoming a member or volunteer.

It's about that time of the year to start thinking about power raking your yard.
Schedule it early so your lawn
has a chance to grow more vibrant.
Give us a call now at 925-0672

to get a free quote so we're ready when the snow melts.
Power raking will be done starting in mid March pending weather.
