McCallister Poet signing books at The Bookstore

The Bookstore will be hosting poet, Lee Robison on Saturday, February 8th. He will be reading and signing copies of his book, Have from 1:00-3:00. (with the reading beginning at 1:30) The poems in this collection are a narrative exploration of growth from innocence to experience. It is a collection that examines being and becoming and how men and women seek, and sometimes find, hope and faith in a universe that requites neither.

Many of the poems in this book draw from Robison's experiences growing up on a Montana ranch for their subject matter. In the poem "Native," ranch and farm imagery is contrasted with the imagery of Montana's prehistory to ask to whom does this land belong, and what validates that possession. What is it that make this Valley, this River, these Mountains ours?

In "Requiem for a Rancher" the question becomes what can an old rancher take with him when he dies? And just how much of him remains in the land and the landscape he formed in his lifetime?

Brian Kahn, author of Real Common Sense and host of Montana Public Radio's Home Ground writes "Robison's words span cultures, place and time, ringing deep and true. These poems are rich in often hard sentiment, there is no sugared sentimentality. In Robison's world, human life is hard, sometimes good."

This poet's 'haves' are shared gracefully with images from many places, though especially from Montana's Madison County, and from many inner geographies as well. This fine collection has a place in the universe of poetry and poetic storytelling." — Marcia Melton

Cow Pie Classic Hockey Tournament

How about a little puck action in Dillon, MT? Beaverhead Brewing Company and the Dillon Amateur Hockey Association (DAHA) are co-hosting an open hockey exhibition that is free to the public! This Saturday, February 8th we will hold the first annual Cow Pie Classic Hockey Tournament. We are hoping to use this as a way to get the community involved in the ice rink and to gather more folks to further DAHA's efforts into the future. We would love to see as many folks as possible come out for this event. The Branding Iron will be serving BBQ sandwiches at the rink until around 4:00 and then will head to the Brewery for a no-host post hockey dinner. There will also be cold brews, locally made root beer and of course some hockey swag for purchase! So come on out to Chris Kraft Park Rink around 9:00 and cheer on the local and visiting players!

free book discussion: Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End by Atul Gawande

Anyone interested in learning how the delivery of health care in the United States affects individuals and their families faced with serious illness, frailty or end-of-life choices is invited to participate in a free book discussion. Tuesday, February 11, at 6:30 at the Dillon Public Library, 121 S. Idaho in Dillon, Jeanette Producers, a licensed clinical social worker, will facilitate the discussion of Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End by Atul Gawande.

According to the U.S. Census Bureau, baby boomers consist of one-fifth of the U.S. population, and Montana's population is slightly ahead of that statistic. With modern medicine and increasing technological advances, health care providers can always attempt more interventions, but should they be done when positive outcomes decrease or negative side effects increase? It is time to have honest dialogue about health care, quality of life, and ask what does the individual patient want? This book helps readers think about those tough decisions and what is important to each person. It is not only written by a New York Times best-selling author, it is also written by a surgeon and from his perspective as a son facing his father's mortality.

The Bookstore has ordered several copies of this book and five copies will also be available at the library. Get a copy now so you can be prepared to participate in the conversation. For more information, contact Jeanette at 406-865-0381 or Lori at the Dillon Public Library at 683-4544.

Bible Truth...About God's wrath

Statement of belief: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God..." (2 Timothy 3:16-17), thus all beliefs in conflict with the scripture, God's holy word, are false.

Many religious organizations propagate the idea that because God is a loving God everyone will go to heaven when they die. This means that the sacrificial death and the miraculous resurrection of Jesus Christ were vain & pointless. It means that no-one has to repent of sin or place their faith in Jesus Christ to obtain salvation in order to get to heaven. It means that no matter how wickedly a person lives, he will not suffer any consequences for sin and will be granted residency in heaven.

Consider the following scriptures regarding God's wrath, which is always directed against sin and those who have rejected His love.

His wrath and His love are both seen in Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death [spiritual separation...wrath]; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord [love]."

God's wrath is based on His own righteousness; therefore his wrath is always right, "After your hardness and unrepentant heart treasures [stores] up to yourself wrath against [at] the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God," Romans 2:5.

Because Christ, who committed no sin, offered Himself on the cross as the sacrifice for our sin, we are provided with "the righteousness of God in Him," 2 Corinthians 5:21. This righteousness is granted when we are born again & receive His Spirit, John 3:14-16.

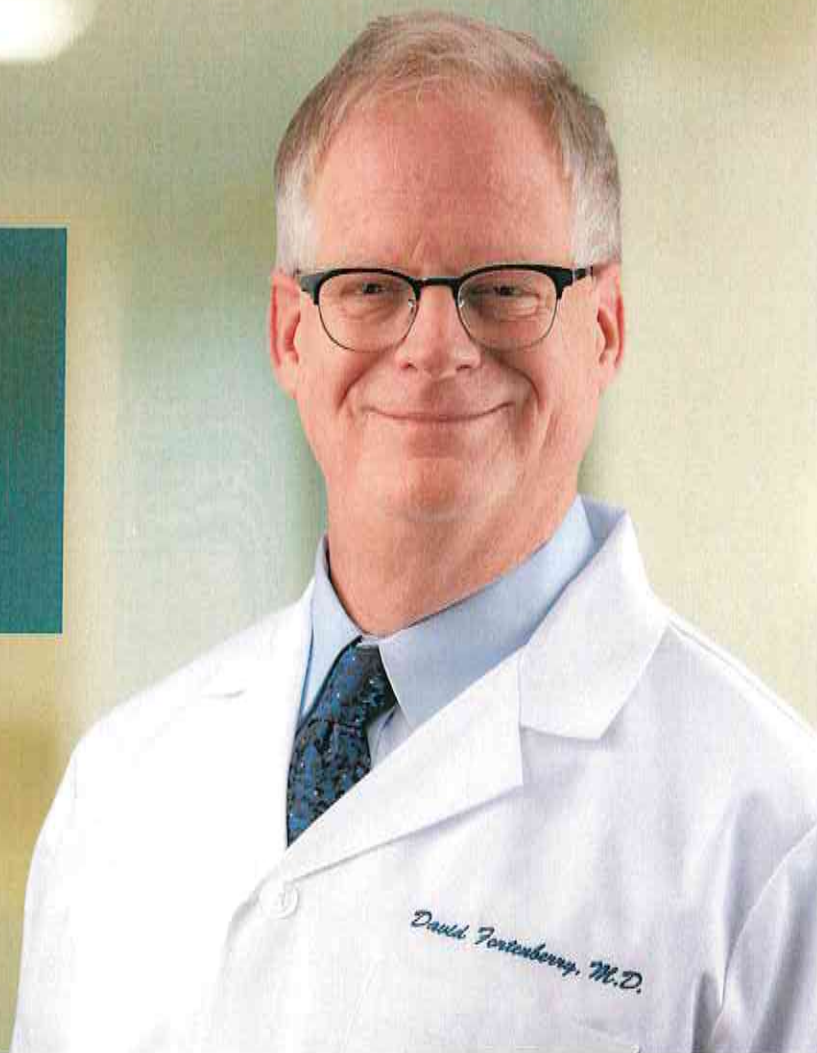

Justification by Jesus' blood is the only way to be delivered from God's eternal wrath, "...being justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him," Romans 5:9.

God's ultimate wrath is seen in Revelation 20:11-15 where unbelievers are judged, "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

God's eternal wrath will be revealed against all who reject His word & His Sons sacrifice for sin. Two choices found in the Bible regarding eternity are seen in John 3:36, "He that believes on the Son has everlasting life: and he that believes not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth [remains] on him."
