Evelyn Jane Meine Carr

"Jackie" Evelyn was born September 22, 1923 to Henry Mueller Meine and Frances Marie Boetticher. She was the oldest of four children, brothers Hank, Bob, and Jack who all preceded her in death.

Evelyn passed at her home in Medford, Oregon January 31, 2020. Evelyn was raised on the family ranch 10 miles north of Dillon. She attended grade school at the Nelson School, a one room school house, the same school her father attended. She graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1941 and attended Butte Business College.

She went to work at Boeing Aircraft Company in Seattle during World War II. Evelyn was also nicknamed "Jackie" in high school, while dating her future husband Johnnie Carr. On June 15, 1943 they were married at the Catholic Church in Seattle, Washington. Johnnie joined the Marine Corp and while attending officer training at Quantico, Jackie moved to Arlington, Virginia. She worked at the Pentagon in the War Department as a secretary. "She was an exceptional typist."

When Johnnie was transferred to Camp Pendleton, Jackie moved to Oceanside, Calif. Their first daughter, Janet Irene was born March 20, 1945 in Oceanside. When Johnnie was sent overseas Jackie and Janet returned to Dillon, MT until the war ended then Johnnie, Jackie, and Janet returned to Seattle where he worked for Boeing.

When Johnnie's father became ill they returned to Dillon to help run and later take over City Fuel Company. Johnnie and Jackie built a new home and lived in Dillon for the next 20 years. They had two more daughters, Joan Marilyn in 1949 and Jennifer Marlene 1958. In 1950 Johnnie moved a couple old buildings from Ermont Mine to a piece of property he had purchased near Elkhorn Hotsprings. They remodeled and added on to them to make a nice summer home.

When natural gas came to Dillon, the family decided to get out of the fuel business. Jackie and Johnnie purchased the Knight's Inn Motel in Medford, Oregon and moved in January 1967 along with Joan and Jennifer. Jackie was the secretary for the Motel. Daughter Janet married John Connoles in 1966 in Dillon and moved into their home in Dillon. Johnnie and Jackie and girls returned to Elkhorn yearly to spend time at their cabin in the summer. John and Jackie also bought another motel in Kingman, Arizona, but had someone run it until they decided to retire from the motel business. After selling both motels they were able to travel and see some beautiful country around the world like Rome, Japan, Hawaii and Alaska.

They enjoyed 68 wonderful years of marriage before his death on September 26, 2011. Jackie had a great love for music. She was a fantastic piano player and played nearly every day. She even entertained her youngest great grandson, Tyler age 6. She would always play for anyone who stopped in to visit her. She could never walk by a piano wherever she would go, she would have to sit down and play.

She and Johnnie belonged to a dance club in Montana and Oregon. They danced to some really great "Live" bands like "Glenn Miller" at Columbia Gardens in Butte, MT. For her 96 birthday September 22, 2019 Joan was able to get tickets and sit in the third row by the stage of The Mother Lode Theatre in Butte and watch the Glenn Miller Orchestra play. "Best Birthday Ever", Mom said.

Patched Up Corral

by Bryce Angell

The campfire was a welcome sight. We'd ridden most the day. We led the horses to the corral, then tossed in bales of hay. The corral had seen some better years. We thought it looked worn out. I'll bet the corral had stories you could ramble on about. The posts were all of juniper. They'd lasted many years. But the poles were torn and broken from those wild and angry steers. As cowboys do, we always brought a roll of baler twine. The string served many purposes from rope to fishing line. We tied the corral together and were proud of what we built. One cowboy said, "It sure looks like my Grandma's patched up quilt." We wolfed down spuds and gravy, climbed in bags and hit the light. Then woke up to the sounds of hell! I'd say around midnight. A half a dozen cowboys stumbled out with pistols drawn. One cowboy stood there freezing, only whitey-tidies on. The racket came from in the corral. 'Twas pandemonium! The horses were so loud that it could crack your cranium! We shined our lights out in the corral. A steer was in the midst. He'd jumped the fence and scared the horses half out of their wits. The steer was chowing down the hay. He meant to cause no strife. But for sure was not about to leave the best meal of his life. We settled down the horses, then we tied each to a tree. The time was nearly two o'clock or maybe even three. The steer was gone by daylight. He had caused his share of grief. I said, "If he comes back again I'm turning him to beef!" Now the old corral was empty. It was tied and torn about. Guess I'd never seen a corral that couldn't keep a critter out.

Iola 'Olie' Else Inducted into Montana
Cowboy Hall of Fame

The Montana Cowboy Hall of Fame (MCHF) inducted its newest members during the annual Circle the Wagons event and held in Great Falls, Mont., Feb. 7-8, 2020, including retired Montana Western rodeo coach, Iola 'Olie' Else.

The MCHF and WHC was founded in 2003 by the Montana State Legislature as a nonprofit organization. The goal of the organization is to preserve and pass forward the Montana cowboy way of life, the state's American Indian cultures, and the collective Montana Western Heritage.

Else was born in Salmon, Idaho and grew up in Tendoy where her parents ran the Tendoy Store. She attended school there through sixth grade and then went to Leadore for junior high and high school. Else graduated from Leadore High School in 1969 and went to Western Montana College (now the University of Montana Western) that fall. She competed in barrel racing, breakaway, team roping, and goat tying. She was Homecoming Queen in 1971, runner up for Miss

Western in 1971, and Miss Rodeo Idaho in 1973, going on to compete for Miss Rodeo America. She was a member of the Central Board and student government, Spurs (a service organization), a Resident Assistant and manned the college
