Southwest Montana Veteran's Home Update #38

By Mike Lawson

Greetings once again, to you the Veterans/Communities/ Counties of SW MT, who are the chief organizers and supporters of the SW MT Veterans Home.

Site Superintendent Mike Ascheman and I had a good visit on the forward moving progress of our Veteran's Home. The weather was cold in the morning for a few of the days and than warmed up where the carpenter crews could work. The roofers were really affected until it warmed up, as warmer temps allowed them to get the bundles of shingles broke apart ,without breaking the shingles. Not many of the guys were sick this week which was a plus but Mike did say that if their sick, it's better they stay home and get well. No sense in getting everyone sick.

SW MT Vet Home Construction Update:

Community Center; This building is seeing heavy-duty construction movement on a number of fronts. To begin with, the County Inspections went very well, which opened the doors to continue the next phases of work to move forward. The Engineers/ Architects made the adjustments for the electricians to be able to move forward with the wiring. The exterior walls are being insulated and than sheet rocked. The interior walls will be sheet rocked on one side so the sound insulation can be put between the studs, against the inside of that sheeted side. This will be followed by the un-sheeted side being sheet rocked . The whole purpose of this operation, will than be a wall that sound won't come through. The Electricians will be getting they're wiring done, ahead of this stage. The Sheet-Metal workers are hanging duct-work and working on the heating system. All the metal door frames should be installed at this time. There were a few, that were wrong and sent back, being replaced by the correct new ones. The Lid sheet rock seams, have been fire taped,

On the outside of the Community Center, the peel and stick 3M Air Barrier rolls of material have been applied to all sides of this building. All the exterior windows have been put in, except for the Big Store Front/Picture Windows, which are scheduled to be installed this week, on Thursday or Friday. Next week the big outside/inside entrance door glass is expected to be installed. The foam installation exterior wall board, will be installed this week which allow the exterior siding crew, from S&H Aluminum out of Great Falls, to start the siding on the first of March. This will really bring a whole new finished look to this building

Cottage #1; This building is in the wings and ready for a big influx of workers to"man-it up" as we say in the construction world . Both Site Superintend Mike Ascheman and GF John Kotka are ready to move on, in getting the progressive steps of construction done here. These steps are very similar as to what the Community Center, has had done. The" Lid" and the insulation blown in above it, the mechanical/electrical/plumbing/insulation/sheet rock/ windows/3M peel&stick/etc. as well a small amount of framing will be happening from this week on. Look for a more detailed update next week.

Cottage #2; Not much going on here until Cottage #1 is to the point of the work crews being able to move there after most of they're work is done in #1. The roofers are finishing up the roof shingles.

Cottage #3; Exciting to see what's been done here, within the last few weeks. All the walls are raised/tipped up, all the roof trusses are rolled into place and the roof sheeting is mostly nailed down, on top of these trusses. The soffit around the roof edges is being worked on and the roofers will soon be roofing, if weather permits it. The big push will be in getting it dried in so the other craft workers can get started on what they need to do.

Cottage #4; Mike said GF John Kotka, plans to have a couple of framers building wall, and within the next two or weeks have them standing, ready for trusses. They keep the snow shoveled off the floor which will make things much easier when they can get people working there.

Cottage #5; Pretty much on hold, other than shoveling the snow off the floor.

Liaison Mark Gollinger is keeping on top of things both at the Vet Home Site and all that's happening with the state of Montana, concerning our Vet Home. One thing he mentioned is the Contract Bids deadline for submittal, to operate our Vet Home, has been extended to the middle of March, instead the beginning of March. The Foundation's SW MT VET HOME LOGO Contest has been advertised and is waiting for some of you folks or your kids to enter with a Logo to be judged and chosen. So far, Mark said, no one has submitted any applications so please ,please, consider doing this. The address is https://dphhs.gov/Portals/85/sltc/documents/SWMVH/SWMVH-Logo DesignContest.pdf. Remember our Foundation Meeting will be at the new American Legion Hall on Winn Ave. in Butte at 1:00 PM

A Cowboy Evening

Bryce Angell

I watched the final curtain call. I knew that I'd been blessed. I'd spent a perfect evening of country at its best.

That night in the assembly hall, where cowboys would perform, I felt an air of country charm. The welcome there was warm.

When all at once our country's flag was marched up to the stage. We stood and took our hats off; even those of younger age.

We gave respect to our great flag and showed our true alliance. Then all proclaimed those famous words. The Pledge of Allegiance.

The program could have ended there. I'd felt my feelings swell. But the entertainers made the night. They sang and spoke so well.

Some of the cowboys played guitar and sang a song or two. And some recited poetry of cowboys they'd once knew.

The emcees handed down their jokes and sang a cowboy song. They both knew how to run a show and moved it right along.

The cowboys and the cowgirls all had honed their talents well. They knew what they were doing and it wasn't hard to tell.

And when the night was over I reflected on the show. The cowboy way is still alive, much more than most would know.

I must confess how proud this cowboy program made me feel. We live here in this country where our freedoms are for real.

We enjoyed a country evening and we showed our flag respect. And no one in the room was there to keep us all in-check.

Let's remember just how blessed we are to live in this great land. And yes, the cowboy still exists, from his indelible brand.

So next year when this cowboy program comes back into town. Let's see if we can fill the seats. Don't let those cowboys down!

Pancakes Suppers in Dillon

Katie Bump

Once upon a February, while I pondered, cold and hungry,
Over a refrigerator yawning, full of long-forgotten food,
While I plotted, feeling faintly, suddenly came voices saintly,
Voices of Saint James and Rose's - Saints of Dillon come to call me.
"'Tis a miracle," I marveled, "Saints with pancakes I can't ignore."
Not only this, but something more.

Two saints with pancakes on their menu, both with parish halls their venue,
Two sep'rate causes seeking revenue. "Which saintly cause befits my mood?"
James' party supports education, through Youth Challenge's Foundation,
Rose celebrates the Wood Bank's dedication…
"How can I choose and not be rude?"
As I ruminated on this quandary, came the answer, as it should,
"Eat the pancakes, do some good."

Much I dithered on this subject, seeking still an answer perfect,
And upon my couch a-dreaming, dreamt of pancakes
and something more.
For we cannot help agreeing, that as breathing human beings,
We seek to help our friend and neighbor, and youth in school we can't ignore.
So the saintly voices call us, "Come eat pancakes, bring your wallets,
There will be pancakes galore."

"This is not a competition, this is just the best condition,
With two saints in juxt'position, with noble cause and open door.
You can't go wrong, you'll do some good, give a gift, education or wood,
Both good causes, contributor." And then I saw pancakes galore,
And feasting friends, and syrup flowing, and generous hearts all glowing,
For the pancakes, and so much more.

On Tuesday February 25, everyone is invited to a pancake supper from 5:30 to 7 pm. Now in its' 12th year, this fundraiser for the Wood Bank has moved to a larger space, the Saint Rose Family Center at 202 South Atlantic in Dillon. The Wood Chucks and Chicks will be flipping pancakes and serving up eggs, sausage and ham, and fruit. There is no charge for the meal, but donations will be accepted to benefit the Beaverhead Community Wood Bank Ministry, an all-volunteer charity which provides firewood for households in need in Beaverhead County. Donations will buy fuel and maintain wood bank equipment. So far this winter, the Wood Bank has delivered over 100 cords of wood to help warm 44 households in Beaverhead County.

For more information you can reach Wood Bank president Rick Hartz at 406-683-4506.

Sagebrush & Snowdrifts 4-H Honey Sales

During the month of February, the Sagebrush & Snowdrifts 4-H is selling Beaverhead Honey as a club fund raiser. Beaverhead Honey Co.'s traditional Raw, Unfiltered Honey and their new product, Creamy Honey are both available from Sagebrush & Snowdrifts members.

Our club is offering four (4) different bundles of Raw, Unfiltered and Creamy Honey, and can customize any bundle by adding-on the ever-popular 12- ounce honey bears and 24 ounce squeeze bottles.

To purchase premium-quality Beaverhead Honey, or for more information, please contact any Sagebrush & Snowdrifts 4-H member or Theo Van Deren at 683-9510.
