UMW Alumna Works to Create Opportunities for Montana Students

Kelly Cresswell, Executive Director at Reach Higher Montana, Vice President of the Student Assistance Foundation and UMW alumna.

University of Montana Western graduate, Kelly Cresswell, Executive Director at Reach Higher Montana and Vice President of the Student Assistance Foundation, has been leading the way for higher education opportunities for Montana students since 2004.

Graduating from the University of Montana Western in 1997 with a BLS in Administration and Communication, Cresswell went on to receive her master's degree in Philanthropy and Development from St. Mary's University in Minnesota in 2008.

Cresswell joined the Student Assistance Foundation in 2004 and was promoted to the position of vice president of Foundation Activities in 2005. The organization restructured in 2016, resulting in the formation of Reach Higher Montana as a public benefits division within the Montana Higher Education Student Assistance Corporation (MHESAC). Previously, Cresswell worked in a variety of roles with the Montana Department of Labor and Industry.

Reach Higher Montana's mission is to help Montana students strategically pursue education opportunities through a variety of programs, grants and strategic partnerships. As Executive Director, Cresswell is responsible for directing Reach Higher Montana's philanthropic giving, programs, fundraising and community outreach activities.

"Everything about the job is rewarding. When students we've worked with find their paths and succeed, that's the ultimate reward. I also find it very rewarding when Reach Higher Montana can partner with others to help more Montana students pursue their passion through additional education," Cresswell said.

In her role as an ambassador in the community, Cresswell serves on the Leadership Montana Board of Governors, the Helena Area Chamber of Commerce and the board of the Rotary Club of Helena. Cresswell previously served on the boards of directors for the Career Training Institute, the Montana Chamber of Commerce and served as the chair of the Montana Chamber of Commerce Foundation Board. In addition, she served as chair of the Montana ACT State Council and she is a founding member and past chair of the Montana College Access Network. Cresswell is an alumna of Leadership Montana (Class of 2006). She was recognized in 2014 with the Montana College Access Network's College Access Professional Award, received the Governor's Award for Excellence in Performance, was named the Outstanding Young Montanan by the Jaycees in 2006 and was recognized by the "Helena Independent Record" as one of 20 young leaders in Helena in 2005.

Cresswell credits a lot of her success to the experience she gained while attending UMW. At the time she attended, Montana Western offered a distance education program that brought professors from Dillon to meet with students from Helena in Boulder. This allowed her to both work and attend college full time which paid off when she pursued graduate school.

"My experience at Montana Western had already taught me that I could balance school and work, so I was ready to go when the opportunity for graduate school presented itself," Cresswell explained.

Reach Higher Montana and the Montana University System have partnered on ReachHigherMontana.org, a student-facing website for college access and career planning in Montana, with the addition of a central application for Montana University System schools to the site in the fall of 2020. They are also part of the Montana Youth Apprenticeship Partnership, which is creating youth apprenticeship models in healthcare and information technology. This will allow high school students to work in their chosen field while continuing their education, and ideally, complete the program with at least an associate's degree and significant progress on their career path.

To find out more about Reach Higher Montana and all of services that they provide for Montana students, visit the Reach Higher Montana website.

Deadline Approaching for National Missing Children's Day Poster Contest

Montana 5th graders encouraged to participate in 2020 'Bringing Our Missing Children Home' poster contest

The Montana Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Office of Public Instruction (OPI) remind Montana fifth grade students and teachers the deadline to participate in the "Bringing Our Missing Children Home" poster contest is rapidly approaching.

"This contest serves as a good reminder for all of us to talk to our children and grandchildren about their personal safety in a variety of situations, whether they're out in their communities or online," Attorney General Tim Fox said.

"Montana's treasures are our students and it is the responsibility of parents, schools, and communities to ensure that our children are safe," said Superintendent of Public Instruction Elsie Arntzen. "The Missing Children Poster Contest is an opportunity to get students involved in raising awareness. As a former fifth grade teacher for 23 years, I encourage all Montana fifth grade classrooms to join the Department of Justice and the Office of Public Instruction in participating in this year's poster contest."

The student winning the state contest will attend an award ceremony with Attorney General Tim Fox and Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction Elsie Arntzen in Helena and receive a $100 cash prize. The winning Montana poster will then be submitted to the national contest. The national poster contest winner, along with his/her parents and teacher, will be awarded a trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the National Missing Children's Day ceremony on May 20, 2020.

Posters must be original, handcrafted artwork; 8 ½ x 14 inches in size, with the words "Bringing Our Missing Children Home" appearing on the poster. Posters with digitally produced images, collages, cut-outs, and stamping will not be accepted. Poster artwork will be judged on originality, creativity, use of color and materials, and reflection of contest theme.

A written poster contest student application form must be submitted along with each poster. The application will be judged on the level of understanding of the subject, clarity, and grammar appropriate for the fifth grade. The application form is available here.

Montana has participated in the annual national "Bringing Our Missing Children Home" poster contest since 2009. The 2019 state contest winner was Quinn Berkram from Edgerton Elementary in Kalispell. To view her poster, visit https://dojmt.gov/missing-persons/.

Posters and student application forms must be received by March 2, 2020. Send them to:

THANK YOU!

I would like to thank the wonderful young men from the Youth Challenge Program that stopped to help me Sunday (February 23) afternoon when I tripped and fell on the sidewalk. They were marching by and immediately stopped and helped me, called 911 and stayed by me until a fine Policeman (Jared Rumsey) came and took me to the Emergency Room. I also want to thank all those that helped me in the ER. I will forever be grateful for the care given to me. This community is just the BEST!

With sincere gratitude ~ Nancy Oestreich

FWP seeking comments on proposed temporary FAS closures

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking public comment on proposals that would temporarily close two fishing access sites for road construction.

One proposal would close the Ennis Fishing Access Site, located a half mile south of Ennis on the Madison River, during a seven-day, early-season construction window between April 1 and May 15. Another proposal would close the Mallard's Rest Fishing Access Site, about 13 miles south of Livingston on the Yellowstone River, for three weeks between May 1 and June 15.

As there are no access alternatives to these sites, and for public safety, a full closure in both sites is required during road construction. FWP will work to notify the public in advance of these closures.

Comments on these proposals can be submitted in several ways:

By email: jpape@mt.gov
By phone: 406-577-7873
By writing:
Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks
Attn: Jay Pape
1400 S. 19th Ave.
Bozeman, MT 59718

The deadline for comments is April 3.

Montana Joins Multi-State Investigation of E-Cigarette Maker JUUL

JUUL has 60-70% share of the nation's e-cigarette market

Attorney General Tim Fox announced today Montana has joined a bipartisan, multistate investigation of JUUL Labs. The 39-state coalition is investigating JUUL's marketing and sales practices, including its targeting of youth, claims regarding nicotine content, and statements regarding risks, safety, and effectiveness as a smoking cessation device.

"E-cigarettes are often marketed to kids as harmless, with an emphasis on appealing flavors that mask their addictive nicotine content. As a result, e-cigarette use has reached epidemic levels among Montana's young people," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "Our rate of youth vaping is six times that of adults, and last year, nearly 42 percent of Montana's high school seniors reported they used a vapor product. JUUL has a 60-70% share of the country's e-cigarette market, and this bipartisan, multistate investigation is an important step toward protecting the health of an entire generation of Americans," Fox added.

E-cigarettes, the use of which is often referred to as "vaping," are battery-operated products designed to deliver nicotine to the user by heating liquid nicotine, derived from tobacco plants, along with flavors and other chemicals, into a vapor that the user inhales. Often e-cigarettes feature fruit and candy flavors, and the marketing has included cartoon characters and other imagery clearly targeted at a younger audience.

While traditional cigarette use has plummeted among Montana's youth, vaping is skyrocketing. According to the 2019 Montana Youth Risk Survey, 30.2% of the state's young people reported using e-cigarettes; more than the national average of their peers at 27%. Survey results indicate 58% of Montana's high school students have ever used a vapor product; 30.2% currently use a vapor product; and 12.7% have used a vapor product 20 out of the last 30 days. By comparison, 1.5% of the state's high schoolers have smoked 20 out of the last 30 days. The survey shows an increase in students currently vaping up from 22.5% in 2017 to 30.2% in 2019, and an increase in vaping 20 of the last 30 days from 3.7% in 2017 to 12.7% in 2019.

No electronic (liquid) cigarette has yet been approved by the FDA. In the 2015 Legislative Session, Fox brought a bill to prohibit their sale to minors. SB 66 was sponsored by Sen. Diane Sands of Missoula and signed by the governor on April 28, 2015. The law took effect on January 1, 2016.

Llamas

By "Swede" Troedsson

For nine years in a row during the 1980s, I was a Forest Service aerial observer during the opening weekend of the General Hunting Season. I would coordinate with personnel on the ground monitoring hunter activities in the Gravelly and Snowcrest Mountain Ranges. This area is located south of Virginia City, MT. My main responsibility was to detect and report violations of our off-road motorized travel restrictions.

Montana Game Warden Jim DeBoer participated in our activities, as well as enforcing state big game hunting regulations. He carried one of our portable radios in order to coordinate with us, and so we could contact him when we discovered a hunting violation.

One opening day a Madison Ranger District officer asked me to check activity in Eureka Basin, which is on the south end of the Gravelly Mountains.

After flying over and checking the Basin, I informed the officer that the only activity I observed was two hunters hunting with llamas.

Jim came on the air and said that persons of any religious persuasion were permitted to hunt in the area.
