Tips to prevent sewer backups during the COVID-19 era

The news is full of stories that show toilet paper shortages throughout the country, including shortages in the State of Montana. As a result, people may choose to use other products that aren't meant to be flushed, such as baby wipes, paper napkins, or paper towels.

If you are running short on toilet paper and opt to use paper towels or wipes of any kind – even those marked “flushable” – please DO NOT FLUSH! You may think flushing a single paper towel or wipe each trip to the bathroom is not a big deal, but those flushes add up. Items other than toilet paper can clog the sewer. This can endanger public health and the environment. It can also cause damage to the sewage system and sewage treatment plant and damage your home or property. This damage is costly to you and the city. Remember, service lines from your house to the sewer main are your responsibility. Instead of flushing paper towels or wipes, they must be thrown in the trash.

To keep your home clean and healthy, remove the trash regularly and place it in a secure garbage bin outside.

CITY BUS

THANK YOU

A couple of weekends ago while walking at the hospital, I accidentally lost my medical insurance card. I did not realize it was missing until I arrived back home. I immediately returned to the hospital and retraced my steps to locate the card, but I was unsuccessful. The following Monday morning, Summer from Barrett Hospital called me to let me know that someone had left the medical card on her desk over the weekend. You can only imagine my relief when I learned that the card had been located!

I would like to take this time to thank the honest Good Samaritan who located and turned in my insurance card to the hospital. Thank you also to Summer for tracking down my phone number and contacting me as to the card's recovery. I am forever grateful to you both!

The Empty Chair

Bryce Angell

The cowboys huddled 'round the fire, moved in close to the flame.

The empty chair among them stood for more than just a name.
Each year the cowboy took his chair and joined in with the pack.

Now his favorite chair's left empty. He ain't never comin' back.
'Cuz one misstep had sent him to our God's eternity.

A step from life to heaven was the cowboy's guarantee.

So, the cowboys gave him tribute. Everyone had words to say.

One cowboy said, "To me he's bigger than a ton of hay."

And then one quiet cowboy who would never speak at all, said,

"I guess he was my best of friend. To me he's ten feet tall."

"He showed me how to saddle up. I didn't know a thing."

I'd never sat a horse. He put me proud, under his wing."

He said, "I'm slow at learnin'. Takes me more than just a while."

But my friend gave me his precious time and served me with a smile.

"His smile was so contagious, and it came deep from his heart."

His presence always gave my soul a positive jump start."

And then he said, "The empty chair our friend once occupied, still keeps his presence close to us, no matter that he died."

Another cowboy piped right up for all of us to know.

He said, "Our friend was genuine. Didn't like a lot of show."

"He'd pitch in at the kitchen. Seemed to have the knack to cook."

Then he'd stay and wash the dishes, never gave a second look."

He said, "I watched him walk the camp and find two dirty plates."

Then I heard him say, "A litterbug won't find the pearly gates."

That got a laugh from all the men. They knew the cowboy well.

One cowboy said, "He found my plate. Looks like I'm going to hell!"

And then the night grew quiet. They had no more left to share.

'Cuz all the cowboys knew, one day, they'd leave an empty chair.

Public Health Update

As of today, March 23, 2020 at 0950, there are 34 confirmed cases in Montana. Gallatin County has been hit the hardest with 10 of the positive cases. The last identified cases in Gallatin County have been through community spread. This means the individuals did not get COVID-19 from travel...they became exposed to unknown cases in the community.

Beaverhead County has tested 28 individuals with 23 of those people testing negative for COVID-19. we have 5 pending tests. We continue to test only those who follow agreed upon criteria and must have COVID-19 symptoms. We are unable to test those who are not symptomatic because of limited availability of tests and testing supplies.

There are positive cases identified in counties that surround us so its just a matter of time before we have positive cases in the county. It is imperative that people continue to self-isolate and practice social distancing (6 feet apart). According to Matt Kelley, Gallatin County Health Officer, the biggest enemy of public health is complacency about the virus. All businesses, this includes hair saloons must remain closed. All non-essential services should be closed to the public. I have heard complaints from the public worried that some businesses are not complying to the Governor's Directive. Public Health implores everyone to please take personal responsibility to help contain the spread of this virus. Everyone has their role in this action, its likely to get worse before it gets better and we need to remain strong and resilient to fight this infection. Please help your neighbors who may need extra help. Many of you are already taking this on and we applaud you!

Again, we continue to appeal to our community to follow these actions:

1. Continue social distancing of 6 feet from others. Unless you are a family/friends living together, this includes activities such as riding in a car, playing at a playground, walking, etc. Don't shake hands or hug, do a elbow bump to greet people if you feel the need.
2. Continue to disinfect hard surfaces (door knobs, light switches, key boards, mouse, remote controls, cell phone, etc.) frequently with a disinfective wipe. If you don't have any, you can easily make your own by mixing 1 tbsp. of household bleach for every one gallon of water. Using hot or cold water can minimize the effectiveness of the bleach mixture. Instead, use room-temperature water to keep chlorine loss to a minimum. Also, you can cut up small pieces of clean cloth and have them soak in the bleach solution so all you have to do is grab one and clean. Remember to use rubber gloves.

- Most importantly, if you are sick, stay home. This virus is most often spread through respiratory droplets. Wash your hands (you don't have to have hand sanitizer!) frequently and cover your mouth with a tissue or cough and sneeze into your elbow. If you feel you need to see a healthcare provider, please call. Do not go to the clinic. You will be triaged over the phone to determine what actions to take next.

The hospital and public health are getting inundated with calls from the public. We want to acknowledge everyone but we ask unless the call is urgent, please refrain from calling the staff. We want to assure everyone that we are doing our best with the available resources to keep our community safe. We can't do this alone, again, please heed all the recommendations that have been stated. We can and will get through this together.

Sue Hansen RN, Director
Beaverhead County Public Health

Due to recent developments surrounding the spread of Covid-19, the Community Support Center has moved to providing remote advocacy. Our office will be closed to foot traffic, but we continue to be available 24/7 via our hotline at 1-800-253-9811 and Mon-Fri 9am-5pm through our office line at 406-683-6106. Whenever possible, we are providing services remotely, but are still available to meet clients in-person in emergencies, including but not limited to medical or law enforcement accompaniment, as well as court accompaniments, or individuals seeking emergency safe shelter. We are not an alternative to law enforcement. If you are in immediate danger, please call 911.

Again, if you need assistance, CSC staff and trained volunteers can be reached 24/7 via our Crisis Hotline at 1-800-253-9811 and Mon-Fri 9am-5pm through our office line at 406-683-6106.

BEAVERHEAD COUNTY EMERGENCY DECLARATION DECLARATION NO. 2020-01

WHEREAS, a World Health Organization declared pandemic from COVID-19 has occurred or is anticipated within the County of Beaverhead on or about March 23, 2020.

WHEREAS, Beaverhead County has determined proactive implementation of mitigation measure may slow the spread of the COVI-19 virus and is in the best interest of Beaverhead County; and,

WHEREAS, because Beaverhead County will commit resources toward efforts to mitigate the impact of COVID-19 on Beaverhead County Residents, and will take all possible action in effort to combat and to alleviate the outbreak, County resources may not adequately cover the costs.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the County Commissioner Chair that an emergency is hereby declared pursuant to Section 10-3-402 MCA and all provisions of the County Emergency Management Plan are in effect.

Filed with the County Clerk and Recorder,
County Assessor and the Montana Disaster and Emergency Services Division in Helena.

Declared by the Chair of the Board of County Commissioners this 23rd day of March, 2020.

C. Thomas Rice, Chairman

Beaverhead County Commissioner and Chairman Tom Rice declared an emergency for the county Monday, to allow its disaster emergency services personnel the flexibility they need to respond to the new coronavirus.

Rice issued the emergency declaration at the recommendation of Disaster Emergency Services (DES) Coordinator Tom Wagenknecht, as a precautionary measure. Having the declaration in place gives the county added authority to seek federal and state emergency funding if necessary.

Montana code allows counties with an emergency declaration to seek an emergency levy of up to two mills in a year. That must be approved unanimously by the commission; Rice stressed the commissioners are not asking for an emergency levy with the declaration. If they do, it would be discussed and voted on in a public meeting.
