George Robert Mongar, 81

George Robert Mongar, 81,
Dillon Montana went to meet his loving wives on March out his life. He graduated from high school. He was make people's lives better. He loved to explore mines and the back country of Montana. He loved to go out driving

Mongar, Lenora Rohlfing, Josh Mongar, Andrew Mongar, Hailey Atkinson-Mongar, and multiple grandchildren.

Montana Expands Online Driver License Renewal and Moves Deadlines for Registering Vehicles

At the request of Attorney General Tim Fox, today the governor's office issued a directive temporarily suspending certain requirements for online driver license renewal and extending deadlines for vehicle registration. Issued in response to COVID-19, these changes will help protect the health of Montanans.

"The Motor Vehicle Division provides essential services to the people of Montana," Attorney General Fox said. "The changes we made today will allow Montanans to continue receiving these services, but from the safety of their homes."

Driver Services

During this time, citizens needing a driver's license renewal will be allowed to self-certify their ability to drive instead of requiring forms signed by medical and vision professionals.

Online and mail-in renewals will be good for a maximum of two years and will be offered for the duration of the declared state-of-emergency.

While exam stations will remain open, the Motor Vehicle Division (MVD) asks Montanans to utilize the online or mail-in renewal option if able. Additional options are available for main-in renewals, please see our website, <https://dojmt.gov/driving>.

A few reminders:

All Montana-issued Class D driver licenses that expired on March 1, 2020 until May 30, 2020, remain valid for an additional 90 days after their expiration date. Class D driving tests have been suspended until at least 4/18/2020.

To help with social distancing, customers in our driver license station waiting areas will be limited. Commercial driver licenses and medical cards will be given an extension until 6/30/2020 if the card expired on March 1, 2020 or later.

"We are committed to protecting the health and safety of our customers and staff," said Sarah Garcia, MVD Administrator. "The online and mail-in options give MVD another way to minimize exposure to the public and MVD employees."

Vehicle Services

A 90-day extension will be provided to dealerships to submit paperwork to county offices and vehicle owners to title and register any vehicles transferred after March 16, 2020.

Renewals may be completed online up to 30 days past the month shown on the vehicle's registration tab.

For more information about MVD services go to www.dojmt.gov/driving.

Montana Western to Celebrate Annual Commencement Virtually

University of Montana Western Chancellor, Beth Weatherby, has announced that the University of Montana Western's 123rd Annual Commencement will be celebrated virtually this year.

To the Campus Community,

I am writing to inform you that in the best interest of the health and safety of our students and their families and friends, and our faculty and staff, we have decided to celebrate commencement virtually instead of gathering together on our campus. Please visit www.umwestern.edu on May 9 to celebrate the accomplishments of our inspiring students.

We recognize that this is a huge disappointment for students who have worked so hard and looked forward to this day and for their families who have supported them. Please know that any student who wishes to walk in the 2021 Commencement ceremony is welcome to participate.

Please check your university email every day as we will be sending more instructions to the Class of 2020 in order to prepare for the online recognition of our graduates.

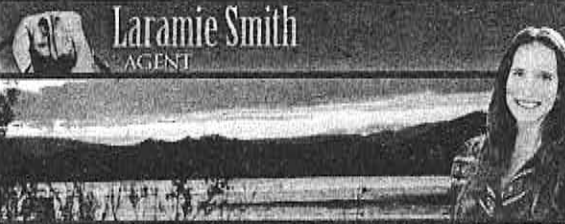

Sincerely,

Chancellor Beth Weatherby

For more information about Commencement, please call 406-683-7214 or email reg_office@umwestern.edu.

The University of Montana Western's 123rd Annual Commencement will be celebrated virtually this year due to the global COVID-19 pandemic.

Cabin fever? Time to get Spaced Out!

There are millions of acres of BLM-managed public lands across Montana, North Dakota and South Dakotas to enjoy as long as you do so responsibly

The health and safety of our staff and visitors remains the number one priority of the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Montana/Dakotas. But there are still opportunities for many of us to enjoy the outdoors, as long as we heed orders, guidance, and advice of local and state officials and the Centers for Disease Control.

Did you know that the BLM manages 8.3 million acres of public land across Montana, North Dakota and South Dakota? Take this opportunity to explore new areas and avoid very popular or crowded locations where social distancing may be difficult. Limit any group activities to members of your household and keep your total party to 10 or fewer participants.

To limit group gatherings, we have taken the step of closing some of the small number of campgrounds, picnic areas, and cabins that the BLM operates which are normally open this time of year. The closed sites include areas in Western Montana along the Madison River, in the Helena area, and around Garnet and the Lower Blackfoot River. We will post updated information as it becomes available to our website <http://ow.ly/E58N50z4r0x>.

Other facilities which normally open later in the spring will remain closed until further notice. We have also temporarily halted cleaning and maintenance of facilities like vault toilets to protect the health and safety of our staff.

The work of staff from the BLM Montana/Dakotas support the nation's energy and food security. We provide for sustainable timber harvest, and protection from wildland fire. We are stewards of amazing landscapes and provide for enjoyment of all types of outdoor recreation.

If you'd like to do business with the BLM, please do so by email or phone whenever possible. If you need to come into one of our offices, please contact us first so we can arrange an appointment to help you during normal business hours. Contact information is available on our website.

Providing for recreation opportunities during this time is just one of the many activities staff with the BLM Montana/Dakotas continue to perform each and every day, because they are vitally important to the nation and our neighbors.

The challenge we're all facing is finding a way to maximize our efforts to continue our mission while minimizing your risk. Thanks for adhering to local, state, and federal regulations and guidelines in order to recreate responsibly.

How To Make A Quick and Easy Coronavirus Face Mask Using A Bandana And Two Rubber Bands

This is NOT a medical-grade mask! This is designed for a quick trip to the grocery store or pharmacy ONLY! It will not prevent you from contracting the virus, only staying at home and Social Distancing (6 feet away from others) will lessen your risk. Most of us will have to go out of the house at some point, and covering your most vulnerable transmission points may help.

According to medical professionals, a virus is spread to your body by microscopic droplets entering through your eyes, nose, and mouth. When someone coughs or sneezes near you, say within 5 or 6 feet of you, these tiny droplets can land on your face and enter your body. Everyone expels droplets just by speaking, and the the more enthusiastic the speaker, or the more animated the conversation, the more droplets are expelled, and therefore, exchanged. So, wearing a covering over your nose and mouth not only helps protect you from someone else's droplets, but it also helps protect everyone else from yours. Also, wearing large sunglasses can help.

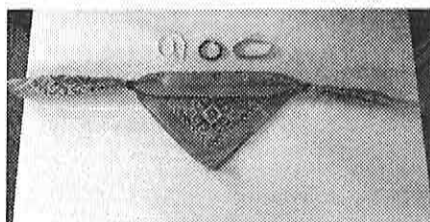

What you will need:

One bandana, approximately 21" square, or a scarf or a piece of cloth

Two rubber bands, or two stretchy hair ties, or two 6" pieces of string

Step one:

Fold the bandana diagonally to form a triangle (the long side of the triangle should be approximately 31", or long enough to tie across your nose and at the back of your neck, like a bank robber. Lay the bandana on a flat surface with the long side at the top and the point at the bottom.

Step two:

Starting at the top along the long side, fold down the about 1 1/2", across the whole length. Grasp the folded top with your thumb and first finger of both hands and flip the whole bandana over so the long side is now on the bottom. Fold the long side up another 1 1/2", like you are folding a fan. Keep folding and flipping the bandana until you have 3 folds along the long side at the bottom, and you have approximately 6" of point at the top. Press down along the folded part with your fingers to "iron" in the folds. Rotate the bandana until the point is pointing down.

Step three:

On one side of the folded part, measure 9" in from the end of the folded part toward the middle on the long side, and secure the folds with rubber band or tie a piece of string tightly around the folds. Repeat on the other side. Make sure you secure the folds tightly or the whole thing will fall apart. Gently pull the folds apart, and tie your finished mask tightly over your nose and mouth at the back of your neck with a knot.

Let us pray that this will be a short term exercise, and that we will be spared the most dire of the consequences.

And PLEASE WASH YOUR HANDS!!
