James F. Conlan

On April 2, 2020, James F. Conlan passed away peacefully at the age of 74. He came into this world September 1, 1945 to Owen and Jenny Conlan. He was the youngest of 4 children.

He attended St. Pats grade school and graduated from Butte High School in 1963. After graduation, he attended Montana Tech University for one year prior to starting his electrical apprenticeship with the Anaconda Company.

In 1972, Jim met the love of his life, Sara Stillwagon. They got married February 23, 1973 and began building their beautiful life of 47 years together.

After retirement, Jim's love of history then led him to a job at the Montana Mining Museum as an underground tour guide. Although he had a passion for history, his biggest passion in life was coaching. He spent many years coaching baseball, football, track, volleyball, basketball, and also battle of the books.

Jim is preceded in death by his son, Joey; parents, siblings, Charlie and Patricia; In-laws, Lee and Angela Stillwagon.

Jim is survived by and will be dearly missed by his loving wife, Sara; Daughter, Angie (Zach) and children, Bryon (Jayme), Tyler (Lauren) and great granddaughter; Son, Jeremy (Keli) and their daughters, Daughter, Debra (Jarret) and their children, Son, Timothy (Conita) and their children, Great grandchildren, Brother, John (Judy) Conlan; Sister-in-law, Donna Conlan; Brother-in-laws and Sister-in-laws, John (Colleen) Stillwagon, Dave (Roxanne) Stillwagon, Steve (Jim) Stillwagon, and Bryon (Lea) Stillwagon; Numerous nieces, nephews, and special friends.

Private family viewing has taken place. In Jimmer's honor, we will have a celebration of life later this summer.

FIGHT CHILDHOOD HUNGER WEEK

Food insecurity is a huge problem throughout the country, BUT especially in Montana. Did you know that 18.56% of children live in food insecure households, which means 18.56% of Montana's kids are starting out life without all the things they need to help them grow and succeed?

That's more than 1 out of every 6 kids in Montana and in some parts of Montana, it's more than 1 in 4.

You can help me in two ways:

1. Donate money to our Local Dillon Community Food Pantry.

Monetary donations can be mailed to:

Dillon Community Food Pantry
131 E Helena St., Dillon, MT 59725 OR
P.O. BOX 1356, Dillon, MT 59725

Any amount will do! Please consider donating! If you have questions regarding the Food Pantry please call 660-4500

2. Join in on the FUN for "Wear ORANGE Wednesday" day which is Wednesday, April 15th. Orange represents child hunger awareness. How can you participate? It's EASY, dress in something orange, even dress up your pet! And take a picture and post it on social media platforms such as Instagram, Twitter, or Facebook using the hashtag #wearorangewednesday

COVID-19 Impact - Headwaters RC&D Region Small Businesses

Headwaters RC&D SBDC is conducting an impact survey for small business owners so that as a region we can see the overall impact that the COVID-19 pandemic has had on small businesses. We are hoping to get this survey out to all our small business owners as soon as possible.

The results will be shared with elected officials and with all of you. The survey is anonymous.

We appreciate your continued support to help get accurate information out to our small business community. I would like the initial due date to be Friday April 17, 2020.

Here is the link:

Nathaniel Freeman's online summer course from UMW will feature an exploration of methods for creating 2D visual designs using both traditional and digital media. Image credit: "Lily" by Zac Freeman.

The online course session begins on May 18 and concludes on July 24. Summer courses, delivered through remote instruction, provide an exciting opportunity for students to take courses in their degree paths or explore an elective, while allowing them to still pursue job opportunities or family and community needs wherever they are located.

Below are some examples of the courses being offered this summer, provided by members of the Montana Western faculty:

on the visual organization of two-dimensional elements as a means of expression. Topics include shape, color, space, form, unity, balance, scale, proportion, texture, visual hierarchy, word/image relationships, typography, symbol design, and problem-solving. Students investigate a variety of 2D image-making techniques (both traditional and digital media) while developing a verbal and visual vocabulary to discuss art and design in both contemporary and historical contexts.

EDEC 215: Cultural Diversity in Early Childhood Education, taught by Dr. Jen Gilliard

EDEC 215 online is a course that inspires transformation. At the completion of this course, early childhood teacher candidates consistently say they feel inspired and prepared to meet the needs of diverse learners. The course activities take students on a journey of personal awareness and discovery as they develop both their cultural humility and cultural competence. As students become aware of the unique cultural lens through which they see all learners, they explore hidden privileges, hidden oppression, and unique histories and cultures of diverse populations. Culturally responsive curriculum and instruction are studied, analyzed, and embraced. Students interview early childhood professionals via video chat to gain insight into techniques that support optimal learning opportunities for each learner.

HSTR 274: World History, taught by Dr. Bill Janus

In light of the recent COVID-19 pandemic, HSTR 274, World History, has been specially redesigned to solely examine the many ways in which plague, smallpox, cholera, and influenza have shaped human history across the globe. In particular, the class will explore disease ecology, Western Imperialism and disease history, the role of epidemiology in the mobilization of public health resources to confront epidemics, and the social processes by which groups become stigmatized during disease outbreaks. This history of quarantine, contagious disease, viruses, infections, and epidemics will offer important context for the current coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

EDU 491J: Theory and Practice in Education, taught by Dr. Estee Aiken

This course is part of UMW's unique, fully online certificate program that allows individuals with bachelor's degrees to become teachers. In this introductory course, students explore the foundations

Attorney General Fox Urging Federal Government to Include Businesses with Gambling Revenue in Pandemic Relief

Montana Attorney General Tim Fox is urging the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) to modify hastily adopted rules that excluded more than 1,000 Montana small businesses from relief under the Paycheck Protection Program in the recently enacted federal CARES Act.

Fox, whose agency regulates legal gambling licensees in Montana, has been in conversation with the White House as well as regional and national SBA leaders urging them to modify rules that currently exclude from the Paycheck Protection Program any business that earns more than one-third of its revenue from gaming. The Paycheck Protection Program has approximately $350 billion in loans available for businesses impacted by COVID-19 closures. The loans would enable the businesses to continue paying their employees during the shutdown.

There are currently 1,324 licensed gambling operators in the State of Montana. They have been closed and their approximately 15,000 employees unable to work since the governor's closure order in March.

"I have also been advised that large Nevada casinos were able to secure rulemaking that made their businesses in Nevada eligible for CARES Act relief programs," Fox told the White House and SBA. "Please confirm if this is true. If it is true, I am sure that the SBA will understand widespread belief that creating such a disparity in the rules to favor large casinos over small main-street businesses is both unfair and unconscionable during these trying times."

"I am deeply concerned about the impact of the COVID-19 crisis on all of America, and particularly the Montana small businesses that dutifully complied with our governor's closure order," Fox added. "Restaurants, bars, taverns, and casinos are the economic foundation of many communities in our state. They not only contribute substantially to our economy, but they also meaningfully contribute to their communities in additional ways."

In addition to multiple conversations, Fox sent a letter on April 3 outlining his concerns. It is available online: <https://dojmt.gov/wp-content/uploads/AG-to-SBA-04032020.pdf>

UMW Women's Basketball Signs Gabby Weber

University of Montana Western head women's basketball coach Lindsay Woolley has announced the signing of Belgrade High School star Gabby Weber to a NAIA National Letter of Intent.

Weber, a 5-7 guard from Belgrade, Mont., is a four-time all-conference selection and was named all-state as a sophomore. She averaged 8.2 points a game in the final eight games this past season including averaging 16.5 points in two games of the Eastern AA Divisional. Weber missed 25 games during her junior and senior seasons due to a rare vascular disease that nearly cost her right foot. After two surgeries and hours of physical therapy, she recovered faster than expected to play the final eight games of her senior year.

"Gabby has a such a unique and well-documented story," Woolley said. "We couldn't be more excited she has chosen to join the Bulldog family. She fits our program perfectly because she's the definition of a 'gym rat'. I can't wait to watch the rest of her career unfold from up close."

She is the daughter of Bruce and Crystal Weber. She plans on majoring in health and human performance at Montana Western.

Men's basketball Signs Los Allen

University of Montana Western head men's basketball coach Mike Larsen has announced the signing Carlos "Los" Allen to a NAIA National Letter of Intent.

Allen, a 6-4 shooting guard from Atlanta, Ga, is a 2019 graduate of Clark High school in Nevada. He transfers to UMW after spending a season at College of the Sequoias. As a Giant, he played in 29 games and started eight, shooting 41.7 percent from the floor and 38.1 percent from 3-point range. He averaged 5.8 points, 3.9 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 0.8 steals a game.

"We are extremely excited about Los," Larsen said. "He will bring length and athleticism to our wing position. Los will be a major part of our program for the next three years."

The 4.0 GPA student is the son of Cheri and Leonard Benjamin and plans on majoring in business at Montana Western.
