UNITED WAY ANNUAL MEETING POSTPONED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors for United Way of Beaverhead County, originally slated for Wednesday, April 22nd, 2020, is postponed indefinitely until the COVID-19 situation stabilizes to a point where groups can begin meeting face to face once again.

The UWBC Board felt strongly that the Annual Meeting is more effective in-person, as it is the time for members of the public to make comments, and for potential board members to get a feel for the organization. Thus, the Board would rather not conduct the Annual Meeting in an online format.

Once Montana and Beaverhead County has been determined safe to meet in groups again, the Annual Meeting will be rescheduled and advertised.

Please plan to attend the re-scheduled Annual Meeting and hear about all the good work happening through United Way and its partner agencies in Beaverhead County.

For more information, call the United Way office at (406) 683-4269.

Richard D. Marshall

May 16, 1926 - April 12, 2020

Richard D. Marshall passed away at home Easter morning April 12, 2020 with his wife, Valerie by his side. Dick was born in Twin Bridges on May 16, 1926 to Frank Marshall and Norabel Robbins. The family lived in Twin Bridges on the family ranch and at age four moved to a ranch on Jackson Creek, east of Bozeman, where he grew up. He attended Malmberg Elementary School and graduated from Gallatin County High School. He enlisted and served in the United States Army Air Force as a Corporal from 1944-1946.

Upon returning from the service he attended Montana State University on the G.I. bill and earned a degree in Agricultural Economics. He married Lenore Jean Wilson June, 15, 1952. Dick worked as a ranch manager in Montana and Wyoming, and Lenore as a teacher. They raised two children, Ellen Gail Marshall and James Wilson Marshall. The couple retired and moved back to the family ranch in 1984.

Lenore passed away in 1993, and Dick later married his present wife, Valerie Lake, and gained another daughter, Julie Noel Leavitt. Dick and Valerie enjoyed 27 years together, and they had fun raising Julie in the valley.

Dick loved being involved in the community. He held leadership positions in the Twin Bridges Rotary Club, the American Legion, and the VFW. He was a board member of the Twin Bridges Cemetery, the Big Hole Watershed Committee, and the Twin Bridges Historical Society Museum of which he was a founder. Dick was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

On several occasions Dick said, "You have to do what makes you happy," and that is how he lived his life. Dick enjoyed hours of games with his friends and family, working on the ranch, tending to his animals, watching birds, learning about family history, taking drives, and packing into the Bob Marshall with his cousin, Delos Robbins, and relatives. All who knew Dick knew of his quiet strength, his cheery smile, and his quick wit. According to Dick, his greatest accomplishment was raising three kids.

Dick was preceded in death by his parents; Lenore; parents-in-law, Alma and Eric Wilson; brother-in-law, Richard Kovash; Uncles Tom and Jim Marshall; nephew, Brendan Reints; niece, Amy Lake.

He is survived by his wife, Valerie of Twin Bridges; parents-in-law Harvey and Boots Lake of Dillon; children, Ellen (Steve Rose) of Twin Bridges, James (Tammy) of Worland, Wyoming, and Julie of Twin Bridges; grandchildren, Matthew Baird (Marisol), Elizabeth Hetland (Travis), Brandon Stone (Amy), Kate Vail (Jeff), Carrie Rose, and Vince Rose (Kristen); eight great-grandchildren, Joshua, Beau, Caleb, Liam, Wesley, Evelyn, Norah, and Wheeler; cousin, Hope Mommer; brothers and sisters-in-law, Marlene Kovash, Ronnie Lake (Nancy), Shelly McDonald (Jerry), Nolan Lake (Erin), Robin Reints (William), and Harvey Lake Jr. (Patty); and numerous nieces and nephews.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, a private burial has taken place at the Twin Bridges Cemetery. Memorials may be sent to the Twin Bridges Historical Association at P.O. Box 227 Twin Bridges, MT 59754.

Bannack State Park is closed to adhere to social distancing directive

Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks is temporarily closing Bannack State Park due to social distancing concerns and to limit the possible spread of COVID-19.

Gov. Steve Bullock has issued statewide stay-at home and social distancing directives to limit the spread of COVID-19. Given the nature of Bannack State Park and the desire to tour the many buildings that comprise the town site, FWP felt it would be impossible to adhere to the directives and still allow tours. The park will be closed until at least April 24, when the directives are set to expire.

Bannack State Park has more than 100 historic buildings lining Main Street of the town site, the majority of which are accessible by the public. These buildings create a health and safety risk for the public and park staff as close human contact inside these structures is often unavoidable.

Be bear aware when recreating outdoors

After a long winter, bears are out and about. And, as COVID-19 quarantines continue, humans are seeking solace and activity in the outdoors. Where bears and humans share the same space, conflicts are bound to occur. Whether you're heading outdoors to hike, fish, hunt or hang out, please be bear aware.

Grizzlies can be found throughout western Montana, not just the Rocky Mountain Front, Bob Marshall Wilderness and the Yellowstone Ecosystem. In recent years, grizzly bear populations have expanded and bears are re-colonizing historic ranges.

GRIZZLY BEAR EUTHANIZED

Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks euthanized a young male grizzly bear on Monday, April 13, after it killed three calves over a period of several days on a ranch east of Ovando in the Blackfoot Valley.

The grizzly killed three calves between Friday, April 10 and Sunday, April 12. The bear was also suspected to have been responsible for another livestock injury in the same area the week before.

Because the bear remained in the area, continuing to pursue livestock, wildlife officials set traps for the bear. FWP bear management specialist, Jamie Jonkel, said that unfortunately once bears repeatedly pursue livestock, this can be a very hard pattern to break.

The rancher is working with the local Blackfoot Challenge watershed group to set up an electric fence to help prevent future livestock depredations.

For more information, please call Vivaca Crowser at 406-542-5518.

Tips for Successful Video/Phone Appearances

- 1) If you are appearing over video the Phone/iPad should remain stationary during court.
- 2) Regardless of appearance method please mute unless talking.
- 3) Be aware of your surroundings for noise. Pen tapping, paper shuffling, typing, etc. is VERY loud.
- 4) Use headphones with a microphone if possible (iPhone headphones work great).
- 5) Make sure to look at your screen to see if your face is visible.
- 6) Triple check with your clients or attorney on any questions you may have if you are appearing from different locations.
- 7) Please COORDINATE a test run for your first time with the Clerk's office in the county your case is scheduled. DO NOT randomly call in to the Beaverhead County virtual meeting room. There is a great chance you will interrupt another hearing. IF YOUR SERVICE IS BAD YOU MAY NOT BE ABLE TO APPEAR.
- 8) Check your email as your hearing nears. If the prior hearings are running late, the Clerk's office will email you updates.
- 9) During hearings please wait until called upon (absent objections) by the Judge to speak. This allows for a clear record and avoids confusion as to who is talking.
- 10) Coordinate at least a day in advance with the Clerk of Court regarding any proposed exhibits.
- 11) PAY ATTENTION to the schedule as the hearings are staggered once the final schedule is determined. The Clerks are working EXTREMELY hard to determine what is being heard and then finding spots for each hearing. See #7.
- 12) Don't hesitate to ask questions to either the Clerk of Court or Court Administrator. Flexibility is possible with the schedule if we have advance notice.
