Kenneth 'Walton' Peterson, 81

March 15, 1939-April 19, 2020

Kenneth 'Walton' Peterson, 81, went to be with the Lord on April 19, 2020, surrounded by family. Walton was born on March 15, 1939, to Kenneth Peterson and Louise Peterson Johnson. He spent his early years on the Home Ranch in Jackson, MT. In 1946, following the death of his father, he moved to Dillon with his mother and sister Beverly. Walton loved the Big Hole Valley and would spend summers there working on his relatives' ranches. At the age of 8, he bought his first cows and continued to stay in the cattle business until his death, something he was very proud of.

Walton graduated from Beaverhead County High School in 1958. High school sweethearts, he married Phyllis Baril, on August 15, 1958, in Helena, MT. They lived and worked on the Baril family ranch in Sheridan, MT, before buying a ranch in Twin Bridges, in 1968. Walton and Phyllis had four children; Ben, Laura, Jay, and Andy. Walton also worked for the East Bench Irrigation District, eventually retiring from it after many years.

Walton had an infectious laugh. He loved his wife, devoting much time to her care through the years. He loved his family and looked forward to big family gatherings. He always made time for his friends and neighbors, and never passed up a chance to stop in and see how someone was doing. Walton enjoyed the little things in life like heading down to the local coffee shop, going to bull sales, and riding his horse in the mountains checking on his cattle. He loved agriculture and the outdoors, something he passed down to his family. He loved his ranch, and with the help of family and friends, he was able to keep ranching, bringing light to his life even in the difficult years.

Walton was preceded in death by his wife, Phyllis; parents, Kenneth Peterson and Louise Peterson Johnson; stepfather, Lester Johnson; mother and father-in-law, Wilfred and Thelma Baril; brother-in-law, Gary Dedman; daughter-in-law, Patsy Peterson; nephews, Billy Backus and Dan Dedman; and niece, Donna Verhow.

Walton is survived his sister, Beverly (Jim) Backus; his four children, Ben (Bonnie) Peterson, Laura (Jim) Brunzell, Jay (Lea) Peterson, and Andy (Amber Mason) Peterson; his grandchildren, Joshua Peterson, Jared Peterson, David Simonsen, Ryan Backus, Meaghan Peterson, Paul Peterson, Zachary Peterson, Jamie Wren, and Kelly Wait; six great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

A private family graveside service will be held on Friday, April 24. Walton loved gatherings, so a Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

School Closure Updates and Surveys

I want to thank you all for your extraordinary efforts during the school closure and hope that you are all staying healthy. We are excited for the day in which all our students can be back on site to receive their education.

On Wednesday, April 22nd Governor Bullock extended the school closure through Wednesday, May 6th. He announced that in-person instruction could begin on Thursday, May 7th provided CDC guidelines were met. After the Governor's press conference School District #10 administration along with other educational administration in Beaverhead County had a conference call with Beaverhead County Public Health. During that meeting Public Health said they would put out a directive regarding future instruction for our school. When our district receives that directive, we will inform all parents and guardians about what delivery of instruction will look like for the remainder of 2019-2020 school year.

With that said, we would like to solicit your feedback regarding our current instructional model. The attached survey has a few questions regarding workload, quality of assignments, and communication. Our goal is to provide the best education possible for students and need your honest feedback to ensure that academic rigor is valuable and appropriate. The surveys are attached if you are receiving this message via e-mail. If you do not receive an e-mail, the surveys can be found on our District website or Facebook page. There is a survey for both Parkview and the middle school and we ask that you fill out a separate survey for each child you have in our district.

We will use the information to drive future instruction in case we need to continue with a distance learning format. A committee made up of parents, trustees, teachers, and administration are working together to ensure future decisions consider all perspectives of our school community.

If you have any questions regarding the survey or have other questions in general, please contact our schools. Thank you.

MAKING PROTECTIVE MASKS AND GOWNS

Stan Smith has been busy since the Covid 19 shut down a month ago in a collaboration with the USO as a designer for Vida Fashion Designs making protective masks and gowns for health care and our troops abroad. 1000 protective items have been sent and distributed thus far. He has also sent out care packs with personal care items such as hand sanitizers, soaps, toiletries as well as paperback books, gum and candy collected around town from our generous community. As of Monday all collection boxes have been taken out of service as the needs have been met. Collection boxes will be placed again when the need arises.

Thanks to the Dillon library, discontinued books have been distributed to troops, veterans and other groups through Coalition sendouts since January. Wooden yellow ribbons around town that were damaged by the hail storm last August have been taken down and are

Attorney General Fox Recommends Help for Homeowners Affected by COVID-19

Bipartisan coalition of attorneys general suggest actions to deal with unprecedented disruption to the mortgage market

In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, Montana Attorney General Tim Fox and a bipartisan coalition of 35 attorneys general recommended actions to help homeowners in letters sent Thursday to the Federal Housing Finance Administration (FHFA) and the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

The coalition applauded federal efforts to suspend evictions and foreclosures, as well as expressed appreciation for additional forbearance and foreclosure relief provided by the CARES Act. Coronavirus relief legislation signed by President Trump on March 27 provides protections for homeowners whose loans are backed by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac or other federal entities. "We appreciate the federal actions thus far, but more must be done to implement the new policy," Attorney General Tim Fox said. "COVID-19 will present unprecedented challenges to homeowners and the mortgage servicing industry," Fox added.

As part of the CARES Act, FHFA and HUD have already adopted streamlined processes for borrowers who have been affected by COVID-19 to enter into forbearance plans, which allow borrowers to pause mortgage payments for a limited period of time. Currently, once the forbearance period ends, borrowers are being asked to either repay the missed payments in a lump sum or enter into a more permanent loss mitigation solution.

Because an unprecedented number of borrowers will need help at essentially the same time, the letters recommend moving the forborne (or missed) payments to the back of the loan term. This would allow immediate relief for homeowners and reduce borrower confusion and concern, while simultaneously limiting the strain on the mortgage servicing industry. "These recommendations, if adopted, would help millions of American homeowners avoid chronic delinquency and limit the potentially disastrous strain on the mortgage servicing industry. In the end, these recommendations are about preventing foreclosures and supporting economic recovery," Fox said.

The letters make three recommendations:

1. FHFA and HUD should issue guidance revising their forbearance programs so that forborne payments are automatically placed at the end of the loan's term;
2. FHFA and HUD should expand eligibility for disaster relief loss mitigation programs; and
3. FHFA and HUD should clarify that the moratorium on foreclosures and evictions applies to all aspects of the foreclosure or eviction process. That includes issuing pre-foreclosure and acceleration notices, posting or publishing any notices, filing or proceeding with motions beyond continuances, or taking any other foreclosure or eviction action during the moratorium.

"During this difficult time, protecting citizens' most important asset – their homes – is of critical importance. FHFA and HUD should adopt the above recommendations to provide immediate relief to homeowners suffering from the COVID-19 pandemic," Fox said.

The protection of the CARES Act applies only to federally backed mortgages, which make up nearly 62 percent of the mortgage market. Borrowers who are not covered should contact their mortgage servicer (the company to which they send their monthly payment) to determine whether it is offering any relief during the pandemic. "We ask all financial institutions and servicers to work with borrowers who cannot meet their obligations because of the pandemic," Fox said.

Are you eligible for relief?

If you have a federally backed mortgage, you have the right to request a forbearance for up to 180 days if you have a financial hardship due to the coronavirus pandemic. You also have the right to request one extension for up to another 180 days.

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau offers a guide to coronavirus mortgage relief options on its website. To determine whether you are eligible for a forbearance plan or other assistance:

- First, find out who services your mortgage and whether you have a federally backed mortgage. See tips from CFPB or go to FannieMae or Freddie Mac's look up tool.
- If you do not have an eligible mortgage, your servicer or financial institution may be offering relief to borrowers. Call your servicer and let them know your situation immediately. Ask them what "forbearance" or "hardship" options may be available.

"Keep in mind that forbearance doesn't erase what you owe. You still must repay any missed or reduced payments in the future. If you are able, continue to pay your mortgage to avoid falling behind once the pandemic passes," Fox advised.

Montanans with questions may call the Montana Department of Justice's Office of Consumer Protection at (800) 481-6896 or (406) 444-4500, or email contactocp@mt.gov.

Bible Truth... About the Sovereignty of God and events on earth

Statement of belief: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God..." (2 Timothy 3:16-17), thus all beliefs in conflict with the scripture, God's holy word, are false.

God is the only true sovereignty that exists. He alone has the supreme, unrestricted power in the creation and He alone will have the final word regarding what happens in all things. Though Satan has been given temporary control on earth as "prince of the power of the air" (Ephesians 2:2], we know that he is limited by God [read Job].

Psalm 103:19 says, "The Lord has prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom rules over all." Psalm 75:7 states, "...God is judge: he puts down one, and sets up another." Daniel 4:17a affirms, "...the most High rules the kingdoms of men, and gives it to whomever He will...."

The Biblical record gives many examples of God judging sin for the purpose of getting man to repent and seek God. We who have placed our faith in Christ as our Savior should pray for and share the gospel with those we know who have not yet prepared for death.

The scriptures do not teach that all sickness and disease are God's judgment, but we must understand that the Sovereignty of the Holy God often moves Him to use sickness as a judgment.

I close this series on how to view COVID-19 with the following partial quote from Joni Eareckson Tada, a Christian who has been paralyzed from her neck down since diving into shallow water at age 18.

"As the COVID-19 virus spreads, it is shaking the faith of many..., tempting all of us to live in fear of headlines and people's predictions. But in the worst of times, aren't you glad that Christians, we can be at our best? For we are people of the Word who believe the world belongs to our sovereign Lord. His rule extends over everything, even to, and especially to, microbes and viruses. ...Psalm 33:11 assures that, 'The counsel of the Lord stands forever, the plans of His heart to all generations.' ...And since our Savior always does what is wise and good, He has prudent purposes as it concerns this disease. The world belongs to almighty God, so Christians can be confident in His plan and purposes. There is absolutely no reason to be caught up in the panic or to be caught up in the blame."
