Barry John Briggs

On April 22, 2020, Dillon, Montana lost the compassionate, charismatic, generous Barry John Briggs. He was the loving husband and life-long best friend of Mary Anne Jensen Briggs for 34 years. He was also the beloved father of two children; Tim Briggs of Seattle, Washington, daughter Laura Briggs of Dillon, Montana, and soon to be father-in-law to Bennett Chomski.

He was born in Davenport, Iowa on July 28th, 1954 to Vincent Briggs and Kathleen Briggs. He attended Assumption High School and graduated in 1973. Barry found his way to his forever home in Dillon, Montana in chase of the beautiful scenery and mountains.

He was the proud founder and owner of the highly regarded Barry Briggs Construction Company for 35 years. Barry was known for his flawless and meticulous workmanship which resulted in many beautiful homes and buildings in and around the community and consequently, lifelong customers and friends. His devotion to his craft led him to his ultimate project of building his dream home for his cherished family.

Barry was a dedicated member of the Catholic faith and took pride in sponsoring many youth athletic events and organizations. Barry was a relentless sports fan, lending his support to the Seahawks, Hawkeyes, Bulldogs, and Beavers. However, Barry's staunch support of Griz Football stood unmatched. Barry enjoyed riding 4-wheelers, snowmobiles, golfing with his son and his undeniable, special bond with his daughter, Laura.

He is survived by his spouse, Mary Anne, son Tim, daughter Laura, sister Connie Hatfield, brother Doug (Pam) Briggs, brother Roger (Jeanne) Briggs, brother Mark (Jayne) Briggs, brother Ricky (Dorothy) Briggs, sister Jill (Brian) Mosley, brother Thomas Briggs, brother Steven Briggs, brother Mike (Patty) Briggs, brother-in-law Joe (DeeDee) Jensen, brother-in-law James Jensen and Joe Weise, as well as several nieces and nephews.

In addition to his family, Barry is also survived by countless friends and community members that were touched by his incredible generosity and kindness. Barry always sought to elevate the lives of everyone he met, encouraging people to do and be their best while extending his hand in unwavering support.

Memorial services will be held on Thursday, April 30th, 2020 beginning at 2:00 pm at Jaycee Park in Dillon, Montana. Due to the ongoing pandemic, friends and family in attendance are asked to wear a mask and follow proper social distancing measures, keeping in mind the health and safety of the grieving family. The family has asked that, in lieu of a traditional receiving line, you write down your memories and condolences to leave at the

It was summer of my sixteenth year. We'd rounded up the mules.

Our wranglers worked from dawn to dusk. One said, "We must be fools."

Each wrangler had his job to do. He'd pack up every day, five mules and a saddle horse, and head out on his way.

It took a man who knew the job and someone who had guts.

There was no time to dawdle, dang sure could not be a klutz.

Each year my father hired a city dude right out of town.

"It's a gamble, but I know we'll win. No man has let us down."

Well, Albert was the one he chose, a soft and pudgy guy.

Had my father really picked this wimp? You had to wonder why.

Albert was a timid fellow; cowboys should be bold.

Could Albert muster courage? He sure did not fit the mold.

He caught his horse one early morning, but those times were few.

Another horse snuck up on him; he whirled and hollered, "Shoo!"

And then a mule reached back at him and bit him on the butt. He jumped and yelled, "That mule's gone mad!" He sounded like a nut.

So, the wranglers saddled up his horse. Still, Albert was afraid.

He never put his saddle on, so there his saddle laid.

The cowboys were a kinder breed. They helped him every morn.

But kindness only goes so far. His welcome, he'd outworn.

Was Albert really headed home? He'd be one for the book. But then

Dad said, "Jeb's drunk and gone. Looks like we're out a cook."

Well, Albert's eyes came right alive. "Hey! Cooking I can do."

Give me a stove and frying pan. I'll feed this hungry crew."

Breakfast was at six a.m. Flapjacks a golden brown; hot syrup mixed with eggs and bacon, coffee swirling down.

One cowboy hollered, "Albert it's for dang sure you can cook."

You proved you weren't no cowboy. Glad you got a second look."

My father's years had proved him wise. He'd gambled, then he won.

And so, I learned a lesson. There's a place for everyone.

"Cruisin' Out Of Seclusion"

DILLON: are you ready for "Cruisin' Out Of Seclusion" this Friday night, May 1, 2020 at 7:00 P.M.? We are changing the theme of the "Cruise" this week to honor our 2020 Dillon Graduates: BCHS Seniors, DMS 8th graders, UM Western Seniors, and Montana Youth Challenge who have missed out on many special memories during their senior year.

We will be using the same "Cruise" route: from the Chamber of Commerce down Montana Street to the stop light, turning right on Helena to the three way stop, turning around in the High School gym parking lot, back out on Helena to the stop light, down Montana Street to the Chamber parking lot. Join the "Cruise" at any point along the route. Don't stop after just one loop let's keep this thing going for at least 45 minutes.

It would be cool to have car windows painted in your school colors and decorated in honor of a graduate you want to recognize. Make signs to hold out vehicle windows, stick on your cars, dress up in school colors, etc... So let's get all you graduates, families, and friends out for a night of "Cruisin'" to honor these special individuals and let them know they have not been forgotten.

Last week's cruise was a blast and your generous donations to the Dillon Food Bank and Love INC. were amazing. In case you missed last week and would still like to donate to those causes, we will have the tubs out in the BW Lodge parking lot.

We want to hear horns, noise makers, and see lots of decorated cars and people! Cruise and wave/honk, display your signs for our GRADUATES while still maintaining social distancing by Not getting out of your cars. Come on Dillon lets have some fun with this...

SIMMS Donates Personal Protective Equipment to FWP for Maintenance

COVID-19 has required solutions that illustrate Montana's resilience, ingenuity and unity in a time of crisis. One such solution is being implemented to help Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks continue providing recreation opportunities across the state.

SIMMS Fishing Products has generously donated 200 pairs of repurposed waders to be used as personal protective equipment, or PPE, for FWP staff that care for Montana's state parks and fishing access sites. FWP will begin distributing the waders to staff in each region next week. The waders will also help U.S. Forest Service personnel care for some federal outdoor recreation facilities.

Brundage Funeral Home

During this time of everchanging circumstances we need to take into consideration those that have lost loved ones to death no matter what the situation. When someone that you love dies there are many emotions that you go through and those emotions are compounded during the current pandemic. Those family's that are suffering loss are left alone to grieve which cannot be helped right now. The normal arm around someone's shoulder or hours spent visiting face to face are not possible. Restrictions are loosened a bit which allows us to have limited commemorations, but we need to be cognizant of the fact that there is illness that surrounds the death of a loved one in those grieving the loss. There is also a wide range of emotion that is coupled between the loss and the pandemic. In some families there is a heightened awareness about the virus whereas others are seemingly unaware of any dangers that it may have. As a community we must be vigilant in protecting those of us that have lost someone to death during this time. During this first phase of the reopening we can have limited services. I would ask that you wear a mask or face covering and maintain social distancing of 6', wash your hands or use hand sanitizer, above all if you are ill or think that you may be starting to get ill, stay home. In Beaverhead County we have been fortunate to not have the outbreak that there has been in other communities. That does not mean that we will not have an outbreak. As things begin to open we need to be just as or more vigilant than ever. This virus is extremely communicable and if introduced into our community undetected would spread quickly as it has in other places. That doesn't mean that we need to be afraid, it just means that we need to take common sense measures to keep ourselves and those around us safe and healthy. What can you do to help someone that is suffering a loss? If they are having services and you are comfortable in attending make sure that you use the above recommendations, be aware that family is grateful for your presence and has been instructed not to interact in a public setting (for their health and safety), one of the most comforting things for family would be for you to take some time and write them a note or letter that can be made into a scrap book with thoughts and memories, write a message on the funeral home website www.brundagefuneralhome.com, drop a meal off on their porch, drop off some paper plates, utensils or tp if you can find any, call but be aware that sometimes it is exhausting for people to visit on the phone and you may need to give them a number to call you back when they are more able to talk, if you don't have a phone number or address send condolences to the funeral home attn: name of family, 300 S. Atlantic St., Dillon, MT 59725. These are not optimal solutions but necessary, just remember by implementing these precautions we will all be back to what is more normal much quicker.

Sincerely, Julie Briggs
